U.S. to Abandon Line of Troops Along Border

This policy, a relic of the days of "watchful waiting," is a mistaken one, the general staff of the Ameri-

Instead of attempting to patrol the Mexican border with small cavalry detachments, garrisoned in little towns and villages on the international line, the new military arrangement will be to have a sizeable mobile force located somewhere in the distance in case of emergency.

Attacks Cordon Plan.

"I think that was wrong," Brig. of staff, told the house appropriations said. committee in discussing the manner in which small detachments of troops with rather an unnecessary clatter, have been scattered all the way along "My dear, everyone loves him!" principle, that, if you are guarding least a line of considerable extent, you ing a cordon of troops along that line; that is, on a line like our southern border. During the war the custom grew up down there, of establishing small she answered, flippantly. posts from Brownsville, all the way out to the California border. These little posts were given semi-permaconstruction, with their own electric lighting system and, in some us what might be called a block house system from the mouth of the Rio Grande on out through Texas

Changing System.

"We are abandoning the system rapidly now. Of course the condi- Then how many lessons does it rapidly now. Of course the toops, the thousing and related conditions "Does what take?"

"Does what take?"

"I mean how many lessons should to dance as—as scattering of troops in very small I want to be able to dance as—as posts. If you scatter them, the troop well as you do, for instance?" egins to go down to recruits, and then you have a little group of men not sufficient for instruction and not enough to be of use in case of

Brother of Canadian Premier Dies in Denver

Dougal King, brother of W. L. Mac-MacKenzie King, premier of Canada, died at his home here following an extended illness. Dr. King was the author of several medical text books. He had resided in Colorado for more than 15 years.

Ottawa Colorado Science and the colorado for more than 15 years.

The next three weeks passed like a dream to Elizabeth and were the happiest she had ever known, although afterward, when she looked back on them, they seemed composed chiefly of hard work and disappointments, with here and there little rays of encouragement and hope.

Ottawa Colorado Formare than 15 years.

Civil Service Board Will

Hold Examination April 8 The local civil service board will hold the regular subclerical examination at the postoffice April 8. Positions of watchman, messenger and skilled laborer are to be filled from this examination. Mail guards also are appointed from this examination. Information will be supplied at window 11 of the postoffice.

Strike at Standstill.

Providence, R. I., March 19 .- The leaders of the two textile strikers' organizations, the United Textile Workers and the Amalgamated Textile Workers, were absent from the state and the day was one of mactivity in the Rhode Island strike situation. A meeting of the state board of mediation and conciliation. scheduled for noon, was postponed

Political Activities

Antelope County.

Neligh—S. P. Christiansen, who served for a short time as denuty sheriff of Antelope county, has filed on the demoratic ticket for sheriff. J. A. Sutton, present incumbent, has made his filing for re-election on the republican ticket. E. D. Kilbourn has filed on the republican ticket for county attorney. W. W. Cole, present representative from Antelope county to the state legislature, has filed for re-election.

Madison County.

Madison—Earl W. McKinney of Madison has filed for nomination for sheriff subject to the democratic primary. John J. Malone of Madison, for a number of years superintendent of the public schools of Humphrey and an extensive property owner and farmer of Madison county, has filed for nomination of county superintendent.

Jefferson County.
Fairbury—Earl Willoughby of Fairbury has filed for county clerk on the democratic ticket. C. Broadston of Steele City has filed for the nomination of sheriff of Jefferson county on the republican

Schuyler—Charles Jones has announced himself as candidate for representative on the republican ticket from Colfax county. A Colfax county convention of the progressive party has been called for March 21.

Columbus.—Indication that the primary campsign for candidates in Platte country for democratic nominations for the office of county attorney this year will be a lively race is evidenced by flings made by three democrats. Otto F. Walter, present incumbent, August Wagner and Joseph Vow"ll be wasted here. It's all right

Nonaha County.

Auburn.—The political pot is beginning to boil in Nemaha county and several candidates have filed. A. W. Black of Auburn. Ed Wittler of Brock have filed for treasurer on the republican ticket and Harry Young of Brock has filed on the democratic ticket. Charles Davis. the democratic ticket. There is a famous French dancer whom I have spoken to about you and for cutting threads. There is

The Dancing Master

Big Mobile Force Will Replace Relic of "Watchful Waiting" Policy on Mexican Line.

Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Washington, March 19.—The administration has made up its mind to abandon the practice of trying to maintain a thin line of troops all along the 1,800 miles of Mexican border.

This policy, a relic of the days of the standard bowlers of the days of the standard bowlers.

Elizabeth Conyers, a country girl, is visiting ber city counts. They take her to a ball. She feels krenly the contrast between her dowdy, homemade freek and the smart clothes the other women went. The only person in the gathering who takes pity on her is Pat Royston, who takes her in the standard to dance. Elizabeth's relatives tell her that he is non-ried, and that she i net to meet him again. Elizabeth's un s. with whom abe meets Royston, but he does not feet ogniles her. Walter Sneath proposers, but she week the some there was been made her home. Her unde leaves her only 100 pounds. She goes to the city and, anexpectedly, meets Royston. She becomes acquainted with Entil Sunger, a mannequin, and visits her home. Pat under the proposers had not been made her home all the story in the proposers, but takes pity on her is Pat Royston, who takes pity on her is Pat Royston, whe takes pity on her is Pat Royston, who takes pity on her is

Elizabeth was glad when she heard the front door shut and Netta

"Well, all fixed up" she asked cheerily, as she came into the room. "Yes; I'm to go with you tomor-"I know. I love shopping. I'll show you all the best places. We shan't rear of the line, but within striking be able to go to them, of course, but it's nice to see them, all the same. She began to pack up the tea

"I think Mr. Royston is the kind-Gen. James G. Harbord, deputy chief est man I've ever met," Elizabeth

Netta put two saucers together "It is a general military she answered. "All the women at a line of considerable extent, you ont attempt to do it by establishbeth said, unthinkingly. Netta flushed. "Men all seem to make fools of themselves at some time or another," Elizabeth went over to the window and stood looking out into the twilight street, "How much do people pay Mr Royston for lessons?" she asked sud-Netta was busy scraping the jam

"Three guineas for six lessons as a rule," she said, absently. "It's more if you want extra special attention and and all the latest fandangled steps. "Three guineas for six lessons!

Colorado for more than 15 years.

Ottawa, Ont., March 18.—W. L. MacKenzie King, premier of Canada, left for Denver to bring back the body of his brother, Dr. MacDougal bottom of the ladder which she was so ambitious to climb.

*There were no wakeful nights for her now. At the end of the day she was always so tired that she fell asleep as soon as her head touched the pillow. "Are you sorry you started?" Net-

"Are you sorry you started?" Netta asked once, looking at Elizabeth's smile. "I told you what it would be,
you know."

Elizabeth opened her eyes wide.
"Sorry!" Why I've never been so

"Sorry!" Why I've never been so happy in my life."

Mrs. Mason had not once been near her, and neither she nor Dolly had written; for all that either of them knew, Elizabeth might have been dead and buried. And then one day at the end of three weeks, Royston called Elizabeth back as she was leaving the studio. "I want to speak to you if you can spare a moment," he said.

Elizabeth turned quickly. "Have I slacked off again?" she asked, despondently. Unconsciously she had begun to adopt Netta's slangy way of speaking, just as she dress and the way in which she did Royston did not answer the question; he was looking at Elizabeth with rather a sorry sort of smile.

"I just wanted to tell you that I can teach you no more," he said.

her hair.

The startled color flew to her face.
"Not teach me any more! Oh, what do you mean? What have I done? I've tried my best; I've done everything you've told me."
"He smiled. "I know, it's not your fault; it's just that I've taught you all I know myself, and that it's time you went to some one better than I am-a professional teacher, if you undearstand what I mean." Her distressed eyes searched his face. "I don't know what you mean; I To don't want to go to any one else. I'd much rather stay with you. Of course, I know I can't pay what I ought to. I've known that right from the first, when I found out what your fees were for ordinary people. But if you'll let me stay I'll do anything for you. I'm good enough to teach some of the begin-

You'll be wasted here. It's all right Guster County.

Broken Bow.—The following Custer county citizens have filed for county offices: State senator, Florian Jacobs, Broken Bow, republican, representative 79th district, J. W. Lundy, Sargent, clerk, J. G. Kinow my own limitations; but you've got it in you to do better, to do great things. It wouldn't be fair if f did not tell you that you must go on—that if you've got the pluck and patience I am sure you'll make a great name for yourself, and nobody will be more proud and pleased than I shall."

The color had died slowly from whom I have spoken to about you and for cutting threads. There is and she is anxious to see you and less chance of tearing the material Nuckolls County.

Superior — Dowin Keifer, ex-service man, residing near Superior, has announced his judge for herself if what I have said when ripping is done we announced his is the truth. If it is she is willing to blades instead of scissors.

train you and bring you out-that is, her own small sum would have evaporated long enough ago had he Elizabeth that all he had done for her had been done gratuitously. He went on to explain that it was quite a without payment, on condition that in the future a certain percentage of that training.

"If I was not sure that your future is all you can hope for I would not suggest it." he added. Don't have so sad. Why, I thought you would be wild with excitement." 'So I am, of course. I never thought She broke off, unable to put her thoughts into words; she only knew that it meant leaving Royston, the only friend she had. 'And when-when . . ."

"I have asked Mme. Senestis to let me take you to her in the morning. She wants to talk to you and see you dance." He paused, "Well, aren't you going to say thank you very much?" he asked.

"Of course, only-supposing I 'You won't fail." "You are very sure," Elizabeth

He made no answer; he opened the door as if to dismiss her. "Then tomorrow I will take you to Mme. Senestis," he said.

"Yes-yes, thank you." She passed him with bowed head and went out of the room and down-

Improvement Notes

Launch Hospital Drive.

McCook—McCook's preliminary drive or hospital funds closed with $25,000 iedged. Bids will shortly be received nd contract let for a $75,000 hospital.
he Dominican sisters have piedged $37,00 for the enterprise of which the sisterord will be charge.

"Does what take?"

"I mean how many lessons should I want to be able to dance as—as well as you do, for instance?"

Netta looked up.

"If you're extra smart you might do it in three dream?" about a substitute of the present outlook the coming which means that unemployed men can find plenty to do if they want to work.

do it in three dozen," she said, rather shortly. "If you're a dud, goodness only knows how many!"

"Three dozen!" Elizabeth made a slow calculation; three dozen meant 18 guineas. It was not going to leave much over out of the 20 pounds for clothes and to pay Mrs.

Silcum.

Start Public Library.

Benkelman—Benkelman is to have a public library. County Superintendent of Schools Una Richards has purchased new books from the proceeds of an entertainment given for that purpose. Some books have been donated from private libraries. About 200 volumes are now on the shelves at the county superintendent's office and available for public use. This is intended to be the foundation for a free public library.

North Plante—The Abel Construction company, which was awarded the contract for laying 38 blocks of asphalt paving, have shipped the machinery and expect to have the work under way by April 1. Two additional paving districts are being formed, one consisting of four blocks and the other six blocks.

Culls

Mary had a flock of hens,
They looked like Joseph's coat.
When Mary went to view her pens
She said "They get my goat."
So Mary, when she had some time,
A breeding pen picked out.
The best of hens and cockerel fine
Put all the scrubs to rout.

The undernourished child gets less attention than the average automo-

Good cows plus systematic feeding multiplied by good business judgment equals success in dairying.

It is never too late to plant trees, and now is a good time to make plans for a highway planting. Select hardy kinds adapted to windbreak use and plant not closer than 40 feet.

Make your head save your heels. Every chick has a right to be well incubated and brooded. Give him a Individual hog houses are especially good for the renter to build, as they are easily moved.

The Farmer's Wife

MARY ANN GRAY. Protect Poisoning in Food Substances.

"How can I detect canned goods, both meats and vegetables, which are likely to cause ptomaine poisoning," writes one reader. "It is necessary for me to keep large supplies of canned goods on hand and rather than serve my family suspicious food I have for my motto, 'When in doubt throw away.'"

The only safe way to detect such oisoning is to send a sample of the foods you suspect to your state college bacteriological laporatory for examination by expert bacteriolo-gists. Food which is likely to cause poisoning is very often not notice-ably altered in appearance, odor or taste. It pays to play safe in this

Sour Cream Cookies. 1 c. sugar, 1-2 c. putter, 2 eggs, thick sour cream, grated rind of lemon, I t. lemon extract, 1-2 t. salt,

Business Activities

Open New Grocery. diney. A new gracery atoms has been ned in Ridney by Bishe Hanna, who formerly in the same business here.

Boys Filling Station, operior, -- Charins filth who has been asser of the Nya-Schneider-Jenks her yard, has resigned his postting has purchased the filling station of Mutual Oil company.

Buys Glenover Grocery, the West Side grocery store, has purchased the grocery belonging to Allen Puterbayed in Glenover, and will operate the business in collection with his present dustress.

Quits Politics for Business.
Schupier.—County Treasurer George W.
Smith resigned and he said O. G. Smesh and A. Jacobson formed a company for the distribution of the O. K. storage battery with headquarters at Lincoln. Their territory is Nebraska, lowe and Jaho.
Mr. Smith head been treasurer for five years.

Consolidate Ice Companies.

Wymore—J. E. Carr, who has been in the retail ine nusiness for three years, has sold out to Taylor and Heinig. Mr. Carr will continue in the cost tusiness.

Cound-Cound Milling company are going to build a much larger mill in this city, the work of which will commence at

New Filling Station.

Cozad—E. N. Davis has just completed a new filling station to this city. He new contemplates installing a wireless out-fit, also building a tourist park near his place of business.

Telephone Managers Meet,
Nebraska City—The managers of the Lincoin Telephone and Telegraph company of the Nebraska City district comprising Otoe, Cass, Nemaha and Johnson counties met here in conference. W. E.
Bell and Milton Barrett of the headquarters office at Lincoin were in attendance and spoke of the relationship between the managers and the general public. Nincteen managers were in attend-

Superior—S. W. Thomas has established filling station on the Kansas line south f Superior. He expects to do a big usiness as there is no inspection charge have been engaged.

New Bank Chartered.

Sidney.—The Sidney National bank has been chartered and will open about May I. This new bank will take over the business of the First National bank of Sidney, which closed May 10, 1921, and will pay depositors in full under a certificate of deposit plan, which has been approved by the comptroller of the currency at Washington, D. C. The officers of the new bank will be Francis A. Chapman, the president; Raibh S. Price, vice president, and Charles L. Mann, cashler. The capital stock will be $10,000 with a paid up surplus of $25,000 at the start. There will also be organized and operated in the same building the capital stock of $300,000 and surplus of $200,000. They will handle the loams and deposits of the closed First National bank and act as holding company for the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loams and deposits of the defunct bank. The officers of the loads and towashing to estimate any unnecessary and duplicated exposus. The officers of the loads and the same breed. The officers of the loads and the same breed. The officers of the loads and the same breed of the same breed. The officers of the loads and the same breed of the same breed. The officers of the loads and the same breed. The officers of the load the same breed.

The officers of the loads are the loads and the same breed of the same breed. The officers of the loads and the same breed. The officers of the load the load the loads and the loads and the loads and the loads and the loads are the loads and the loads are the loads and the loads are the loads and the loads dent of the institutions, comes from Colo-rado, where he has had banking experi-ence. He also has been the receiver of the First National bank of Sidney, Chap-pel and Bridgaport. Mr. Price has been assistant to Mr. Chapman and was for-merly engaged in the banking business in Grand Island, where he was associated with the Grand Island State bank. Mr. Mann has lived in Sidney for several years and was formerly assistant cashier of the First National bank. The new bank will occupy the quarters formerly occupied by the First National bank,

A bill was recently introduced in the New York state legislature making it a crime for a driver of an automobile to operate a car with one hand through the streets of New Corns?

Blue=jay to your druggist Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms-a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid-the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists. Free: Write Bauer & Black, Chicago, Dept. 113 for valuable book, "Correct Care of the Feet."

BABYS COLDS are soon "nipped in to "nipped in the bud"
"dosing" by use of—

Cuticura Soap -Is Ideal for -The Complexion

SAFE AND SANE for Coughs & Colds

With the County Farm Agents

BUFFALO COUNTY. J. E. Ludden,

Kearney-Representatives of more

Two Bargain Days.

Superior—The Superior merchants will have two big bargain days this month, Forty-four firms are sending out announcements of apring merchandise.

Open Ice Croam Factory, Superior—The new ice cream factory owned by Edazil and Elilott is ready for operation. The services of Vorn Rove, an experienced ice cream maker of Omaha, have been engaged.

New Bank Chartered.

Sidney.—The Sidney National bank has been chartered and will open about May.

I. This new bank will take over the business of the First National bank of the services of the county of the comptroller of the current approved by the comptroller of the currency at Washington, D. C. The officers of the new bank will take over the approved by the comptroller of the current approved by the comptroller of the currency at Washington, D. C. The officers of the new bank will be Francis A. Chapman, president; Raiph S. Price, vice president, and Charles L. Mann, cashler. The sociation.

Grade: An offspring resulting from making a purebred with a scrub, or from making abinale not purebred but having cines purebred ancestors.
Scruh: An asimal of mixed or unknown breeding without definite type or mark-livestock, Mr. Purbaugh states. Improved breeds and better animal husbandry offer the soundest solution of present-day needs. Mr. Purbaugh declares, and the one who will start with any breed of livestock or poultry and then stay in and grow pienty of good stock to sell, whether for breeding purposes or slaughter, will succeed. The agent cautions, however, that profits depend upon good care, housing and feeding, as well as breeding.

SALINE COUNTY.

Address of the control of the contro

the work is cited by Mr. Olson in the fact that reactors are grouped and shipped to Omaha in carload lots, thus saving considerable freight.

Tons of the various kinds of clovers are being purchased in Washington county, says Mr. Olson, as a result of a campaign to inject more humus in the sell. Sweet clover appears to head the list. Hubam clover appears to head the list. Hubam clover use is taking the field, one man who raised seed last year selling in given much impetus.

Poultry Feeds

Save Your Chicks

Ninety per cent of Baby Chick losses are caused by improper feeding.

The digestive organs of a Chick are very delicate. Strong, unbalanced feeds bring about bowel impaction and other intestinal disorders, which quickly result in death.

Red Feather Growing Mash With Buttermilk is the ideal starting and growing mash for your chicks. It will keep them in perfect health and develop them into strong, early-laying pullets from two to four months sooner than when you use ordinary unbalanced feeds.

THE RED FEATHER WAY is the safe and sane way. Feed from the RED FEATHER BAG and you will save time, trouble and money.

Red Feather Feeds Are: "The Finest Feeds on Earth"

Write for Free Chick Feeding Bulletin and Booklet "B" on How to Raise and Care for Baby Chicks. These Free Booklets combine the knowledge of the best successful chick raisers in the United States.

BUY FROM YOUR NEAREST DEALER

H. H. ANDREASON, 2520 Lake Street H. AZORIN, 2330 South 20th Street B. C. BEZANSON, 4012 Kansas Avenue CHRISTOPHERSON COAL AND FEED CO., 3505 North 30th L. H. CINEK, 5215 South 24th Street FORD FEED STORE, 920 North 16th Street J. S. HANDELMAN, 6620 South 36th Street MURPHY COAL AND FEED STORE, 4602 South 28th Street. PELTZ BROS., 3005 Haskell Street
J. H. PRICE, Florence
SARATOGA GROCERIES AND MEATS, 2404 Fort Street
STOLTENBERG ELEVATOR CO., 6136 Military Avenue
THE RED FEATHER STORE, 1236 South 13th Street
WALNUT HILL FEED STORE, 1425 Military Avenue
WEST "Q" FEED CO., 45th and Q Streets
WELSH GROCERY CO., 4705 South 24th Street
A. W. WOLFSON, 5642 West Center Street
A. PRADDELL, 5501 North 35th Street

M. C. PETERS MILL CO.

29th and B Streets, Omaha