

Battlers Appear in Splendid Condition for Their Encounters

Morris Lux and Battling Ottie, who square off tonight night in the main event of the Cornhusker Athletic club's benefit show, completed their training yesterday with light workouts. Both appeared in the proverbial pink of condition.

The card will consist of three 10-round bouts. Joe Gorman, Portland lightweight, and Arlos Fanning of Kansas City, who meet in the second bout on the program, also appeared in fettle for their affair.

Gorman ruled a favorite over his opponent today. The opening bout is between two bantams—Harry Brauer of Denver and Buck Timothy of Davenport, Ia.

Both these boys won championships in the service during the war and are willing seppers, so the whole card should be one of continuous knuckle whirling.

The boxers, accompanied by their managers, met with representatives of the club yesterday in the city hall and agreed to a 30 per cent deduction from their guarantees in view of the fact that the proceeds are to go to Terry O'Mallory's parents. Another meeting will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon to complete final arrangements.

City officials have cut the price of the Auditorium from $500 to $250. The Townsend Gun company will donate the gloves for the evening, while Steve Green has announced that he will do the announcing free of charge.

Leo Shea, referee, has chopped his price as third man in the ring, and John Dennison has volunteered his services at timekeeper.

Tickets for the Tuesday night show are selling fast, and it is believed that the parents of Terry O'Mallory, who died Friday night in a dressing room at the Orpheum gymnasium as a result of a bout with Ray Carter, will receive more than $2,000 through the benefit boxing show.

$364 in Boxer's Benefit Fund

Table listing names and amounts for the O'Mallory fund, including names like E. M. DeWitt, Gene Manick, Fred Smith, etc.

A total of $364 had been subscribed to the Terry O'Mallory benefit fund today.

Among the contributions received today were $25 from Buddy Logan, O'Mallory's instructor, and $10 from Jake Isaacson.

The fund was started Saturday morning when it was learned the dead boxer's parents were without funds to defray funeral expenses.

Bert Muth, match maker for Labor Temple, who staged the fight in which O'Mallory lost his life, this morning announced he would pay expenses of the burial.

As a result the money contributed to the burial fund will be turned over to the lad's dependent parents.

Contributions may be made at the Sportsman's cigar store, Baseball headquarters, or sent to the sports editor of The Bee.

Brown Holdout Will Hurl Pro Ball Here

Dinah Wright, independent baseball pitcher, who has played around Omaha for the last seven years, will return next week from Joplin, Mo., where he has been managing a billiard parlor.

Wright expects to be joined here by Rolla (Sug) Mangel, a lefthander who has been playing independent baseball at Casper, Wyo. Mangel is the property of the St. Louis Browns but has steadfastly declined to report after having had a brilliant try-out at the close of the 1919 season.

St. Paul, Minn., March 20.—The proposed 10-round bout between Billy Mace of St. Paul and Bartley Hadden of New York, light heavyweights, set for April 5 here, has been called off.

Improvement Begins on Country Club Course---Fontenelle Makes Plans

The golf bee will begin buzzing at the majority of Omaha golf clubs this week.

A crew of workmen started putting the Omaha Country club course in shape yesterday, and before the end of the week other courses are expected to be overhauled in preparation for the coming season.

The golf season will open on a big scale in about three weeks, although the sport has not been altogether "dead" during the winter, for gutta percha enthusiasts never failed to turn out for a few holes' play on any suitable day.

Plans for the coming season were made by the Fontenelle Gold club directors at a meeting yesterday.

The directors contrived a number of interesting and unique contests to hold the golfers' interest and also decided to give special attention to women members.

The following officers were elected: C. R. Moore, 3111 Fontenelle boulevard, president; Seavey Hudson, 1807 North Forty-seventh street, vice president; W. E. Dougherty, 3119 Fontenelle boulevard, secretary, and R. A. Pearce, 4458 Spaulding street, treasurer.

The red letter event on the Omaha golf calendar is the Transmississippi golf tournament here the week of July 10.

Charlie Johnson, Country club pro, has returned from California and is in charge of the preparations at that club.

Handicap Golf Meet. New York, March 20.—Players with a handicap of four strokes or less will be the only entrants accepted for the national amateur golf championship, to be played at the Country club, Brookline, Mass., beginning September 4.

Dealt Fatal Wallopp Ray Carter, Principal in Ill-Fated Battle Bears Bruises of Fight

New York, March 20.—Manhattan's two big league baseball teams have far to go before then can hope seriously to compete with any degree of success with the teams of their respective circuits.

The Giants took the small end of a 12 to 6 score against the White Sox yesterday at San Antonio, Tex., while the Yankees were lambasted at New Orleans by the St. Louis Cardinals, 13 to 10.

Brooklyn's entry for the National League stakes came through against the Louisville American association team at Pensacola, Fla., 3 to 0.

The Yankee defeat was doubly bitter because Babe Ruth permitted a single to pass through his legs like a pig in an alley.

Falk Signs Contract. Chicago, March 20.—Bib Falk, recalcitrant outfielder, today was safely in the Chicago Americans' fold. He went down to San Antonio, where the Sox defeated the world champion New York Nationals yesterday, and signed a contract.

He will join the club Friday when the Sox play at Austin, his home town.

All the Chicago Nationals looked good in their 8 to 6 win over the Vernon Coast league club yesterday, according to reports sent here. Arnold Stutz and Hack Miller, new outfielders, smacked out three hits each, and the Rochester club of the International League for a week's tour of South Carolina.

The eleven men left behind are expected to be joined during the week by Howard Ehmk and George Daus, two Tiger pitchers who have not reported.

Omaha Buffaloes Take Short Rest Following Victories Over Houston

Victoria, Tex., March 20.—(Special Telegram)—Two successive victories from the Houston (Texas League) club by the Omaha Buffaloes put the entire squad in a jovial frame of mind today and the whole regular roster celebrated by laying off.

The regular returned to Camp Victoria this afternoon highly elated over their 2-to-1 and 19-to-15 wins from their Texas league rivals.

Practice sessions will start anew tomorrow in preparation for four successive exhibition games, which will be played in this city on March 23, 24, 25 and 26. Houston will be here Thursday and Friday and Corsicana of the Texas-Oklahoma league will be guests on Saturday and Sunday.

The weather continues balmy, much to the delight of the pitchers, who love to work out when a hot sun is shining to get the kinks out of their soup bones. Manager Burch has expressed elation over the showing made by the team he took to Houston with him. The twirling of Wilson and Okrie in the first game featured that contest, while the heavy hitting of the whole Omaha team was the feature of the Sunday game.

From now on the practice sessions will be much more strenuous, and Manager Burch will begin the arduous task of selecting his team. This will require a lot of thinking because all of the men in camp have been showing up well. Walters and Snedecor at first at Waite, Meek and Obit at second have been showing up like luminaries. Amen, Griffin and Manush have practically assured themselves of outfield berths.

The Nebraska interscholastic pentathlon, to determine the all-round track champion of state high schools, will be held April 14 to 19 at Lincoln.

The pentathlon was introduced to high schools last year by the University of Nebraska, with some 40 schools competing.

High schools entering the pentathlon will run off the outlined events on their own athletic fields. Records will be forwarded to Coach Schulte, but must include not more than the four high men. Any record made by a high school athlete in an interhigh school meet may be recorded for an all-round score, under the rules.

The events in the 1922 pentathlon by groups are running high jump, track champion of state high schools, shot put (12-pound), and discus throw; 220-yard dash, 880-yard run and 120-yard high hurdles. Each contestant must compete in at least one event in each group and a total of five events to be eligible for state honors.

Douglas Myers, the 1921 champion, is a student of the university.

Supreme Court to Hear Arguments in Stockyards Act

Washington, March 20.—A case of wide importance involving the effort of the federal government to regulate stockyard traders in the packer act of 1921 was reached for oral argument in the supreme court today.

The case has come up on appeal from the United States district court at Chicago in two cases, one brought by T. B. Stafford and the second by James E. Burton and others, the decision of the lower court being favorable to the government.

The packers and stockyards act is being attacked by the trade on the grounds that the livestock reaching the various stockyards of the country has completed every phase of interstate commerce upon delivery to the commission merchants from whom the traders buy, and that no act of the traders is in interstate commerce or so intimately related to it as to give the federal government any control over them.

Government Files Brief. E. G. Godman, appeared as counsel for Stafford and Levy Mayer for Burton.

The government filed a brief prepared by Solicitor General Black and Blackburn Esterline, of the Department of Justice, and will present oral argument tomorrow. The government contended that the transactions of the traders form a part of the great current of interstate commerce flowing into the stockyards, the enormity of which it emphasized by statistics showing that 15,423,872 head of livestock valued at $665,421,232 reached the Union stockyards at Chicago in 1921, and that the value of livestock arriving there in 1921 was over $500,000,000, to say nothing of livestock reaching other large stockyards throughout the country.

Interstate Commerce. One-third of the livestock arriving at the Chicago yards, the government asserted, was sold to members of the Traders exchange while moving in interstate commerce, and those who received and in turn sold the livestock while so moving were, the government insisted, subject to federal regulation. The livestock at Chicago was handled, the government claimed, in interstate commerce by the Union Stockyards and Transit company, which has been held by the supreme court to be a common carrier engaged in interstate commerce.

Gallant Old Battery One of Famous Civil War Unit Able to Attend Holds Last Roll Call

Cleveland, O., March 20.—The Cleveland light artillery, the gallant old battery that served in the civil war and which is said to have fired the first shot at the Confederate forces in the first land battle of the war, has struck its flag to Father Time.

The last roll call of the organization, held on Washington's birthday, February 22, following annual custom, was answered by only one of the two remaining veterans of the original battery and two honorary members who served with other Ohio batteries.

Nicholas Weidenkopf, 78, who was the youngest soldier in the Cleveland battery, called the roll and the Rev. Henry C. Martindale of Cleveland and Richard King of Chardon, the two honorary members, responded. Henry Rebeck, the other survivor of the battery, was ill at his home here.

"It was the dying wish of Col. James Barnett that the last of us turn over the Cleveland artillery records to the Western Reserve Historical society," said Mr. Weidenkopf. "I move that the Cleveland Light Artillery hereby disbands."

The motion carried and Weidenkopf was designated to present the records of the battery to the society.

Amusement Park at Kearney Is Burned

Kearney, Neb., March 20.—(Special)—Kearneyites will have to look elsewhere than to their amusement park for entertainment this summer for that institution, with exception of the roller coaster, was wiped out by fire. High tension wires blown down by the terrific storm are believed to have started the blaze. The big dance hall, lunch rooms and all concessions of the main building were gutted and only fragments of the massive three-foot brick wall remain standing. When the fire was discovered the entire structure was ablaze. A blinding snowstorm raged and an effort of the fire department to get to the blaze was frustrated, telegraph and telephone poles being down and their tangled mass of wires obstructing the highways. It is estimated the loss will be between $15,000 and $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

Home Building on Increase During Last Three Months. Washington, March 20.—Marked stimulation in home construction is shown in contracts awarded during the last three months as reported to the division of building and housing of the Department of Commerce. The department announced today that in 27 states in the northeastern quarter of the country, building contracts awarded in December totaled $101,000,000 and in January and February $75,000,000 each.

Although normally, it was pointed out, these are the months of least activity in building, their contract totals compare with a monthly average of $73,000,000 in 1921.

RATS RATS RATS RATS RATS

Rats are a menace to the community—a band of robbers, like thieves in the night; with no redeeming features. BurnUmUp will prevent hidden losses caused by these animal pests.

Do you know that each female rat is capable of producing from sixty to one hundred rats per year if allowed to breed unmolested. BurnUmUp compound will exterminate the scavengers.

Experimental tests with live rats held in captivity has proven that rats will eat BurnUmUp in preference to corn, oats, wheat, mill feed, etc., which makes it a wonderful accomplishment.

With the use of BurnUmUp compound, which is a finished product in powdered form, ready to use, rats become mummified, thus preventing decomposition and bad odors.

BurnUmUp will not cause destruction of cats should they eat the carcass of a rat slain by BurnUmUp. Make it unanimous—use BurnUmUp Rat Slayer. The crusade on rats is rendering a service to mankind, and the individual who neglects to slay the rats becomes a menace to the community.

BurnUmUp Rat Slayer is 100% efficient, destroy the pests.

Geddes Denies Saying Pacific Pact Avoided War

Oakland, Cal., March 20.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador, yesterday formally denied that he had said that the four-power treaty had averted an imminent war, as had been reported in versions of an address he made in Los Angeles, recently discussed in the senate.

Sir Auckland said that as soon as he arrived here on his series of visits to Pacific coast cities, he instructed his secretary to prepare a telegram denying that he had mentioned an "imminent war." The telegram, he said, would be sent immediately to the British embassy at Washington and thence through diplomatic channels, to the capital.

It read: "San Francisco papers report this morning that the British ambassador has been quoted as saying in a speech delivered at Los Angeles, that the four-power treaty averted an imminent war in the Pacific. The ambassador has been asked to deny that any such statement was made by him, either in a public utterance or a private conversation."

His remarks in Los Angeles, were in an address at the City club, were contemporaneous and dealt with world conditions in general and according to tradition to President Harding for calling together the nations of the world.

"I did not say anything that had not been said a hundred times before," Sir Auckland stated.

Basket Ball Facts You Should Know

Q. In amateur rules, is "three men in a foul on the team which has two players in the key?"—A. L.

A. Not unless one of the players holds, blocks, charges, pushes or uses unnecessary roughness.

Q. What is meant by 12-inch basket?—A. Professional rules say the inside rim of basket must extend 12 inches from the official backboard. This is commonly 12-inch basket, and the straight rod from hoop must be 12 inches long.

Q. In case of the game, do teams change goals in extra period?—A. A. S.

Q. In professional rules two fouls are called on a player, one for holding and the other for talking back to referee. Does it count?—C. D. F.

A. No, game does not count, but if a player, while throwing for the goal, is fouled by an opponent and succeeds in putting the ball, both offense and goal shall count.
