Sleuths Had No Right to Pounce on Rum, Charge

600 Delightful Quarts Legal at Destination, Says Chief Who Orders It Released.

Federal and state liquor sleuths who pounced upon a railroad car at Lincoln last Saturday and "arrested" 50 cases of whisky will do well to study up on the country's prohibi-tion regulations. Robert Anderson, chief of the federal liquor agents in sess stand yesterday at a continued For, says he, the 600 delightful quarts are held in durance contrary to law. It's a case of false arrest. The captured liquor was enroute from Kentucky to a drug firm in It is legal, says Anderson, to sell iquor in Kentucky and Montana on ure prescriptions. Furthermore, it is legal to ship liquor from one such state to another.

The sleuths had no right to arrest the 600 quarts while they were rneying through the desert of Nebraska between the two oases, 'Release that booze," in short, is Anderson's command. Gus Hyers, state sheriff, who "confiscated" the liquor at Lincoln after the state and federal sleuths, with a brave display of their badges, had taken charge of the liquor, is the baffled villain in this sweet romance which is scheduled to end in the triumph of the 600 martyr botties of booze, their release from custody and the resumption of their journey toward a better and wetter

Omaha Club Will Boost for Byrum

John T. Yates President of Byrum-for-Governor Organization.

Byrum-for-Governor club was organized Monday night at Hotel Rome with John T. Yates as president and Leo J. Crosby, secretary. C. H. Clancy, who called the meeting to of the new club are to promote the candidacy of A. H. Byrum of Bloomington in the republican guberna-at the pramaries July 18.

Mr. Byrum was introduced to the meeting by his campaign manager. R. G. Douglas of Osceola. Among those present were Ed D. Beach, iormer republican state chairman; Henry F. Meyers, Gene Mayfield, Dave Shanahan, Frank Yates, Paul S. McAulay and John Trouton. There were three women in the

"If I am elected governor," he said, "even with the code bill as it beggars cannot be choosers." and save millions of dollars. elected governor I will place all of my cards on the table. My plan would be to have a state budget supervisor who would make a survey of all state activities and make a public record of his findings. He would be answerable to the legislature. The state departments would furnish him with expert assistance. He would turn the budget over to the governor, who would revise, giving his reasons for any changes. That would lave a tendency to shut off some of those fellows who are going over the state as inspectors and inspecting nothing."

Feeder Reports Scarcity of Cattle in Western Nebraska According to John Boyle, a feeder of Hershey, cattle are scarcer in western Nebraska at this time than they have been for several years and he said it was doubtful if there would be much restocking for some

Mr. Boyle brought a load of cattle to the local market which he disposed of for feeders at $7.45 a hundred. He said the recent storm was of great benefit to his part of the State Pioneers Organize Get Together Club Here what a risk he will take with his

A Gef Together club has been organized by the Douglas County Association of Nebraska Pioneers, to give entertainments from time

The first of the affairs will be given Thursday evening at 8 in the association rooms in the court house. It is in charge of Mrs. F. J. Stafford and will consist of musical and literary numbers. There will also be a period of old-fashioned dancing to be participated in by the pioneers.

Iowa Shipper Satisfied With Prices Received Here

I. N. Dempey of Moorfield was in yesterday with two loads of cattle and a mixed load of livestock. He said it was the first time in three years that he had been to Omaha with livestock. He said he was quite satisfied with the prices he received.

Mr. Dempey said the recent storm was felt pretty heavily around Moorfield and Curtis and that lots of snow fell which made the winter wheat look better than it has so far

Road Conditions

(Furnished by Omaha Auto Ciub.)
Lincoln highway, east: Roads bad; cloudy with prospects of rain. Cedar Rapids reports tourists are sending their ears through. Roads impassable.
Lincoln high, west: Roads very-bad to Grand Island and west.
O. L. D. highway: Roads bad.
Highland Cutoff: Roads bad.
S. Y. A.: Roads fair.
Cornhusker highway: Roads bad.
Omaha-Topeka highway: Roads bad.
O Street road: Fair.
George Washington highway: Roads reported bad. Cara coming through slowly.
Black Hills trail: Roads bad.
King of Trails, north: Roads bad, but cars making slow time.
King of Trails, south: Roads very bad near La Platte. Ccunty teams pulling cars through.
Custer Battlefield highway: Roads reported bad through flows. Some points impassable through flows. Some points impassable through flows.
River-to-River road: Bad.
White Pole road: Bad.
White Pole road: Bad.
Five Grass road: Roads bad.

Office, AT lantic 1945.

The Dancing Master

a right to call the tune."

her with rather wistful eyes.

"Nobody can prevent you by main force, if you mean that," he said. "It's just a question of what will be the wisest thing for you and the fu-ture. I don't flatter myself that Neil Farmer cares any more for me than I do for him, and so if he objects to our acquaintance, yours and mine, and you are a wise little girl, you will cut me out."

She looked up with wounded eyes.

"Our acquaintance! I thought you

"It is kind of you to remember

Tears swam into Elizabeth's eyes, don't understand you a little

Third Maine District

August, Me., March 21.—The re-publicans retained control of the third Maine congressional district in by a margin greatly reduced from that received by Mr. Peters in 1920. John E. Nelson, republican, was slightly more than half of that cast in 1920, when women voted for the

Mr. Peters, who resigned early

Sioux River on Rampage;

Families Forced From Homes

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 21.-Flood waters of the Sioux river, reinforced by a heavy flow from upstream, inundated additional farm

Sioux Falls. Swift currents are rushing through cornfields and West

Sioux Falls, a suburb, is completely

The city pumping station is in the midst of the flood waters and employes are going to and from work

Several farm families have been forced to vacate their homes and move their cattle and other livestock

Between Valley and Fremont

Fremont, Neb., March 21 .- Eighty-two automobiles are stalled on the road between here and Valley, Neb.

mired deep in mud, as a result of washouts caused by the heavy rain of Saturday night. The cars have been abandoned by their owners until the roads dry. Valley is 14 miles

Nelson Mayor Renominated

Nelson, Neb., March 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Mayor C. E. Jensen re-

Shows

11-1-3-5

7 and 9

by Caucus of Citizens

82 Automobiles Are Mired

surrounded by water.

to higher ground.

from Fremont.

terms.

in boats.

and it was only with difficulty that bit," she said uncertainly. "You take me to Mme, Senestis because do the best for myself; then when she speaks of Mr. Farmer you ob-aid we were friends."

that," Royston said formally.

she kept them from falling.

"You will stay with Netta as it is," he answered rather sharply. "The fact of your studying with Mme. Senestis will make no difference at first to your ordinary life."

Her face flushed eagerly.
"Oh, then, I shall still see you sometimes."

He turned his head away Yes, certainly, if you wish to, and Elizabeth Convers. a country girl, in visiting her city cousins. They take her to a ball. She feels keesily the contrast between her dowdy, homemade front and the smart clothes the other women wear. The only person in the gathering who takes pity upon her is Paf Roysion who tries with some success, to teach ker to dance. Elizabeth's relatives tell her he is a dancing taht he is married and that she is not to meet him again. Elizabeth's relatives tell her he is a dancing taht he is married and that she is not to meet him again. Elizabeth's relatives tell her he is a dancing taht he is married and that she is not to meet him again. Elizabeth's relatives tell her hee's uncle, with whom she made her home, dies. On her way home she meets Royston, but he does not recognize her, Walter Sneath proposes, but she rejects him. Her uncle leaves her only 100 pounds. She goes to the city and, unexpectedly, meets Royston. She becomes acquainted with Enid Sanger, a manusquin, and visits her home. Pat, who is Enid's husband, hakes her to her home. Her aunt obtains employment for mer as a maid. Elizabeth runs away, Pat traches ser to dance and arranges for her to meet Mme. Senestiv, a famous teacher. New go no with the story:

(Continued From Yesterday.)

Royston went over to the window and stood leaning against the sill, his eyes on Elizabeth's dainty little fig-of her was correct, and yet he waited apprehensively for Mme. Senestis to When Elizabeth had finished she went over to where Royston stood,

He was positive that his judgment

she was a little flushed with nervusness and her breath came fast. Madame stood with her hands on hips, nodding her curiously babbed head. Then suddenly she

"And you will come to me, little miss-when? Elizabeth moved closer to Royston and it was he who again answered. "How soon would you suggest, mad-ame, always supposing * * *?" bit," she said uncertainly. "You take me to Mme, Senestis because Madame snapped her fingers with you say it is your duty to see that I a little impatient sound.

"Tomorrow: it is not too soon. There is no time to waste. I start at once, at once. You were right little miss here, she will be all that you say * * *"

There is no time to waste. I start at ject to him, and then when I say that I will not go to her at all, but stay with you and Netta, you tell me that I should be very foolish to Royston stood up stifly.

"There is a good deal to be discussed first," he said, quickly. "I told you that Miss Conyers has no money, and so * * * "

"Money—pouf? Madame snapped her fingers again. "I will find the money; I have already found it. A friend of mine—very rich, and already very interested in mademoiselle. You know him, perhans I that I should be very foolish to throw up such a chance. I don't know what you mean; but if—if you don't want me to go, after all, I am quite willing not to. If you don't like Mr. Farmer, I am sure I shall hate him, too, and that's all about it; so it's for you to say."

(Continued in The Bee Tomorrow.)

Republicans Win in Republicans Win in You know him, perhaps speak of Mr. Neil Farmer.

"Neil Farmer!" Royston took a quick step forward, his face flushing as he echoed the name, "I dislike that order, explained that the purposes man; I will not have him mixed up with Miss Conyer's affairs. I-He broke off, conscious of Eliza-beth's amazement and the obvious pired term of John A. Peters, but torial contest which will be decided amusement in the eyes of Mme.

She shrugged her shoulders. "Mr. Farmer is my friend, and elected over Ernest L. McLean pardon, but beggars cannot be the choosers, as you say it. It is for mademoiselle here to say if she will take the good money of Mr. The total vote yesterday was a lightly made to the same of the sa

Elizabeth looked at Royston. "If some one has to pay," she began, first time in Maine. "surely it does not matter who it is. Mr. Peters, who resigned early Madame is right when she says that this year to become federal district beggars cannot be choosers." judge for Maine, was elected in 1920.

She was feeling sore, she did not altogether like the bargaining feeling which seemed to exist, and she thought it unreasonable of Royston to object as it was he who had to object as it was he who had brought her here.

FIf Mr. Farmer is not afraid to risk his money * * * she said. Madame spread her hands deprecatingly. "There is no risk," she said calmly, "Monsieur here—he knows that I speak truly. It you keep well, petite, and work hard, nobody can be lands last night and now cover several hundred acceptance of the lands last night and now cover several hundred acceptance of the lands last night and now cover several lands last night and tell to what a golden future you may Elizabeth flushed with pleasure; "What shall I say?" she asked.

"My cousin knows Mr. Farmer well; she likes him, I think."

"Eh, but he is nice-very nice!" Madame protested. A wicked little smile crept into her eyes as she looked at Royston. "Monsieur here, he have the green eye."

he have the green eye."

Royston flushed angrily. "It is no affair of mine," he said shortly. "I am only anxious to do the best for Miss Conyers. If I had the money—" He stopped with a hard laugh. "If wishes were horses beggars would ride," he added flippantly.

Madame nodded her towsled head.
"Then that is good. I tell Mr.
Farmer that we settle with him and mademoiselle. She will come along with me, and he shall see for himself

She laughed, as if she had made a good joke, and held out her hand to Elizabeth. "Then goodby for the present."

"I arrange all the rest with Mr. Farmer and monsieur here." "I will look in again this even-ing," Royston said rather curtly. He was frowning as he followed Elizabeth into the street.

"You don't look as if you are pleased," she said, glancing up at him. "I thought it was what we rame for-what you wanted. He shrugged his shoulders. "I suppose I expect too much. I suppose I thought I was going to have it all my own way. However, if you are satisfied—"

"You don't like Mr. Farmer," Elizabeth said after a moment. "I remember you told me that the first night I met you."

"It's not possible to like every one," Royston said evasively, "but I must say I don't care for the man. That isn't the point, though, and if he will do for you what I—what I unfortunately am not in a position to do, neither of us should have any cause to quarrel with him." They walked some way in silence;

then Elizabeth said hesitatingly: "It is not too late to draw back now, if you would like me to. I should not mind. I should be quite happy, just staying on with you and Handicaps of Disease As you travel through life you will find many handicaps, but none compared to the handicaps of disease. Have these eliminated by CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL ADJUSTMENTS given by a competent CHIROPRACTOR.

Lady CHIROPRACTOR in attendance Consultation and spinal analysis free.
Residence calls when necessary.

Drs. Curren & Curren, Rooms 5-6 Wend Building, 18th and Farnam

Residence, KE nwood 3719.

Wedding Joke, Plea of Youths for Dish Theft

Husband of Woman, Who Trails Suspects to Bluffs, Won't Let Her

Prosecute.

if—if Farmer has no other ideas on the subject. After all, I suppose that the man who pays the piper has Mrs. Helen Kochler, 1517 North Nineteenth street, qualified as a deective Monday by causing the arrest of three theft suspects in Coun-Elizabeth was not feeling at all cil Bluffs, but her success gravitated happy. There seemed to be some subtle change in Royston's manner since they left Mine. Senestis'. to Central police court yesterday when her husband, "Dutch" Kochler, former bar owner, announced he was Nobody can prevent me from see-ing you if I want to," she said. There was a note of defiance in her a man "with a heart" and instructed her not to appear against the trio. Archie Morgan, a bricklayer roice, and Royston looked down at

FIRST TIME IN OMAHA New York PASSING of WINTER SHOW 1921

Willie & Eugene Howard

MARGOT ASQUITH World's Most Interesting Woman

Brandeis Theater 4 P. M. Tomorrow Prices, $2, $1.50, $1 and 50c

Wallace Reid Elsie

Ferguson Elliott Dexter

George Montague

in the Paramount Picture

Forever Based on

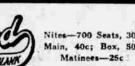

DuMaurier's Story

worth waiting a year for

THEATER

Nites-700 Seats, 30c

Today and Thursday Only!

a William de Mille production Here's a Comedy That Tickled Omaha,

NEAL BURNS in "O Promise Me"

Starting Friday for Nine Days NORMA TALMADGE in "Smilin' Through' The Greatest Photoplay of Her Career

Sam Bellville, farmers of Herman, terday and pointed out Morgan and ler's wedding.

Neb., the accused men, pleaded guilty the two Bellvilles as the alleged "Mrs. Kochler was not at home yester to charges of petit larceny. Morgan thieves. They had visited her home. was fined $10 and sentence against After their return to Omaha the men the other two was suspended,

Following the disappearance of merely a joke, that a fourth man years," her husband said. "The cele-ree silver spoons and six hand- caused them to take the spoons and bration was belated to say the least." sainted china dishes from a valuable set at her home Sunday night, Mrs.

LATEST BOOKS RENTED

The Great Prince Shan-E. Phillips Opponheim's latest, Price $2, Rented Be cente.

Head of the House of Coomless Francis Hodgson Burnett's new book.

Price 52. Rented 15 cents.

To the Last Man by Zane Gray.

The White Desert by Courtney Cooper.

Vande Marks Folls by Herbert Quick.

Alice Adams by Booth Tarkington.

The Beautiful and Damned by Filsser.

zersid.

Books as published sold or rented.

Subscription sets bought, sold and chatged.

M. J. Barry DEALER IN BOOKS

With All-Star Cast of 150, Including 75 WINTER GARDEN BEAUTIES Bargain Matines Today, 50c-51:50-51:50-12:60

Starting Sunday

Fawcett

Love

Peter Ibbetson

Prices, 50c. A few at 75c. Boxes, $1.00 SEATS ON THURSDAY will bring happy times for all nominated today by a citizen's cau-cus. He has held the position two

GRUETT-KRAMER-GRUETT In "A Circus Day in Georgia" LAURENCE JOHNSON America's Excellent Ventriloquist BILLIE GERBER REVUE

Circuit THE BEN IN VAUDENMENT S:15

JANE AND LEE Assisted by William Phinney In "THE NEW DIRECTOR"

THE FOUR CAMERONS

JAMES DOYLE and EVELYN CAVANAUGH Topics of Day. Assop's Fables. Paths News. Mats., 15c to 50c; Some 75c & $1 Sat. & Sun. Nights. 15c to $1: Some $1.25 Sat. and Sun.

NOW PLAYING Jewel Carmen

Nobody" Moments of mystery and romance and greater moments of greater drama.

HAROLD BEFORE BREAKFAST LLOYD

of the Genuine

$5 Cash ~ $5 A Month

We are perhaps the only special "self" appointed Victrola dealer in Omaha and for those desiring this make we can supply BRAND NEW VICTROLAS, any style, at lowest prices. Big new stock just arrived.

Music Co. 419 South 16th Street

Omaha

Tekamah, Neh, and Homer and Kochler went to Council Bluffs yes-dishes in celebration of Mrs. Koch-Sam Bellville, farmers of Herman, terday and pointed out Morgan and ler's wedding.

told police investigators that it was day and we have been married many to get back.

to send anybody in the penitentiary "I'll be 50 years old my next birth- over a few dishes that we are going

Bee Want Ads Produce Results

STARTS TODAY

ANITA STEWART

The Inimitable Star, in

"Her Mad Bargain''

> Directed by EDWIN CAREWE and Augmented by a Star Cast

JEALOUSY drove her from the protection of a home— NECESSITY forced her to pose as an artist's model because her beauty was highly manifest — DESPERATION inspired her in making the most unique bid for happiness ever conceived by a woman - and the question

Could You Blame Her?

Also Showing

A MACK SENNETT COMEDY "Made in the Kitchen"

A HOME BREW with a real KICK You'll Scream at LOUISE FAZENDA and CHESTER CONKLIN

Rialto Symphony Players Harry Brader, Dir.

Overture—"Carmen"

"OMAHA'S FUN CENTER"

Gayety Mat. and Nite Today

YOUT AL REEVES BEAUTY SHOW

HARRY (Heinie) COOPER MUSICAL

Julius K. Johnson Premier Organist

PLAYING "Your Heart's a Red, Red Rose"

Last Times Friday FIRST SHOWING IN OMAHA

In His Western Success "White Oak" COMING SATURDAY

TOM MIX "Chasing the Moon"

Round Two "The Leather Pushers"

Auditorium FRIDAY EVENING March 24, at 8.15

The Tuesday Musical Club Presents

MATZENAUER

CONTRALTO

Seats, $1.00 to $2.50 at Box Office. No War Tax.

ADVERTISEMENT

BLACKHEADS GO OUICK BY THIS SIMPLE METHOD

Featuring ALICE TERRY

RIGHT

BY THIS SIMPLE METHOD

Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body, go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of calonite powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. The calonite powder and the hot water have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them open and unsightly—and unless the blackheads are hig and soft they will not come out, while the simple application of calonite powder and water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the poces in their natural condition. You can get calonite powder at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method,