10

Society

..........

The American consulate at Algiers where Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dow are host and hosters has proved a hospitable and delightful visiting place, who does her "heels over the head" for a number of Omaha travellers in the last two months. Miss Irene 50 times each morning, "knees Barmettler, who is travelling with Mrs. John Iten and Miss Helen Iten writes of their stop there, and their visit with Miss Eva Dow of Omaha who has been staying with her brother and his wife in this African city. Miss Edith Tobbit and Miss Jeanette McDonald who are taking a Y. W. C. A. show that girls are get-Mediterraneau tour, have also been visitors in Algiers.

Miss Barmettler and the Itens spent the first part of March at Monte Carlo, and will spend the spring months in Paris and London. They have are growing up into big girls, but already made their reservations for the Passion Play at Oberammergau that little girls, bigger girls and big next summer, as there will be tremendous crowds flocking there for the girls, all of them, are adding inches performance.

Miss Tobbit and Miss McDonald, who are on the "Empress of France" are at present in Cairo. In the same party are Mr. and Mrs. girls take today. Charles Harding and Charles Sherman, Mrs. George Haverstick who has been abroad for the last year is planning to spend Easter in Rome. Miss Eva Dow too, will be in Rome for Holy Week and will stay at one of the convents there.

Personals

Mrs. Gerald La Violette is convalescing from an attack of grippe.

Miss Caroline Mitchell of Des

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kennebeck are

Miss Estelle Lapidus, who is attending Rockford college, Rockford,

Miss Frances Patton of Wellesley college will spend her spring holidays with three college friends at Marblehead, Mass., a picturesque lit-

Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Visits "Classy" Friend.

tle seaport town close to Boston.

Sorority Luncheon.

Delta Delta Delta sorority will be entertained at luncheon Saturday by Mrs. Otto Wiese, who will be assisted by Miss Laura Cunningham.

Miss Mildred Weston will return Saturday morning from Sioux City, where she has been the guest of her Omaha Thursday. sister, Mrs. Howard Martin, Her. little niece, Mildred Weston Martin, will accompany her for a short visit with the Weston family. Moines is the week-end guest of Mrs. C. A. Campbell.

The Flapper Says

in Hot Springs, Ark., where they will Given is fore the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club Tuesday aft-ernoon at Jacob's hall by the suther, Mex John W. (III.) "All the world's a stage." that's what Mr. Shakespeare said. And O, what scenes Friend Rull has glimthed from his box seat over-head! spend six weeks before they return

Miss Katherine Tidvali, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Patton for two weeks, has re-

The givis of our America, with color, form turned to her home in Crete, Neb.

and art. To the world's perpetual acting, have con-tributed their part: So have the dames, and gladly, too, as and from their edicts grim they've no'er been known to budge! Just as today when the flapper flaps. Bo have the dames, and gladly, too, as And from their edicts grim they've no'er been known to budge! Just as today when the flapper flaps. Bo have the dames, and gladly, too, as been known to budge! Just as today when the flapper flaps. Bo have the dames and gladly too, as Bo have the dames and gla

Said "Speak for yourself," to John Al-

dam so desr; The dames, in a manner both haughty and cold. With single accord acclaimed her as in Omaha with her parents. She arrives next Thursday.

Just as today when the flapper flaps.

In these days of beautiful, wide bros cade. From which the gowns were arifully made. If her hoops misbehaved when she tried to sit down. Dances wrinkled their brows in a know-ing frown; Some whispered and smiled at her diro

The horrified dames would all holler, Dubuque, Ia, this week with relatives. Just as today when the flapper flaps.

Many recall the days of the bustle. That was a time when she made her dad hustle: But if waist were too small or bustle too high. Some dame would sight it with eagle eve: And through her poor effort at making a hit. Legion Auxiliary Vaudeville. The American Legion auxiliary will give a vaudeville entertainment at the City Auditorium Saturday, April 1. A dance number by a group of Central High school girls will be a feature of the affair.

.She was instantly labeled, "The little will be a feature of the affair. Luncheon for Bride

A Little Surprise.

SLEEPY-TIME TALES

This does not mean that little girls Little by little the Muley Cow learned not to be disturbed by Johnnie Green's clothesline lasso, and muscles to their size due to the habits and exercises women and about his head and then flung it at hers. She found that the rope did The examination measurements her no harm. Indeed, the more show that girls and women are not Johnnie practised the more expert only taller on the average than they he became. Before a great while were 20 years ago, but also that cerhe could drop his noose over the tain muscles are especially developed. Muley Cow's head almost every time Buttoning waists and skirts in the he tried-when she stood still. back is said to account for the fact By that time Johnnie began to that certain arm muscles are better tire of the sport of buffalo huntdeveloped in women than in men. ing (with the Muley Cow for the Wrist movements have been found to buffalo). He wished he might try be greater and stronger in women

Mrs. Ellery Davis and Miss Bar- and this is explained by the constant bara Baird of Lincoln were guests in small movements taken in sewing, knitting and the use of musical in struments,

"Perfect Thirty

ting larger.

ment in the situation you describe. It takes a little time for people to become acquainted, but there is no help for that except polite, intelligent conversation until you strike the common ground of interest. You should leave the filling of your program to the boys who es you to the dance. A girl should discuss her preferences for food with her escort, not with the waiter. Shortcake and coffee or a sandwich and coffee, or just ice cream, would be appropriate dishes following a dance. Use Use good common sense, be thoughtful for others, be quiet, not noisy, and you won't go far astray with your manners.

Just as today when the flapper flaps. At the time of Miles Standish, 'round sixteen and twenty. Materials for gowns they used quite a plents: Dut when modest Priscilla in bonnet so 'My goodness!" she bellowed. lassoing her from the back of the old horse Ebenezer. But he hardly need your help, and your mother thought his father would approve of does not, it seems to me you should the plan. remain with them. Don't go to work in the hotel. That would be Well, Johnnie, the Muley Cow, and Spot the dog were in the back pasture one day, where the Muley deplorable, even though they would pay you more than you are getting Cow had strayed. And as Johnnie with your sister. paused to pick a few blackberries

he thought what a humdrum place Blue Eyes: (So many girls are Pleasant Valley was, anyway, and how he would like to go off where signing themselves "Blue Eyes" that I am afraid they will get their replies mixed) there were real buffaloes and Indians Going with boys is not so much a Dames wrinkled their brows in a know-ing frown: Some whispered and smiled at her dire distress Just as today when the flapper flaps baltimore and will feave the first of Just as today when the flapper flaps who is a student at the Sacred Heart Dome write of age as of the common-sense of the girl. I think some girls of 15 are old enough and others of that age are not. I think 22 is a who is a student at the Sacred Heart who is a student at the Sacred Heart Just as today when the flapper flaps. Forget not the days of cambric and lines. of some sort. He hoped it was at least a woodchuck

When each dainty bit had its own prop-fer place: Every fair miss was tucked, ruffied and son, Thomas, will arrive next Thurs-The beautiful, imaginative dancing "Sie him, Spot!" Johnnie cried. But old Spot hung back, instead filumced. Till at the least hint of speed she bil-lowed and bounced. Tet if pantlet were raised to expose a fair stocking. The beautiful, inaginative dancing is the speed she bil-lowed and bounced. Tet if pantlet were raised to expose a fair stocking. The beautiful, inaginative dancing is the speed she bil-Nile's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Austin. They have been stopping in the beautiful at this a girl is ever old know that I think a girl is ever old the beautiful at the speed she bil-the beautiful at the speed she bil-bill at the beautiful at the speed she bill the ball at the speed she bill the beautiful at the speed she bill the ball at the b of dashing into the bushes toward which he was pointing. And that Green couldn't understand it. The Muley Cow, too, thought it very odd. "I declare." she said to herself. "I believe old Spot's afraid enough to indulge freely in this form of amusement. of something. I believe he's afraid Pep: The tan polo coats are very of something. I be good. Dark blue is also considerably of a woodchuck." And she gave seen, though next to the tan coats a sort of chuckle, thinking it a great think the capes rank in popular- joke. Neither she nor her friends ty. Capes to match the gown are were any too fond of Spot. uch worn. The only way to have something she intended to tell the whole herd how he didn't dare chase a woodto talk about is to have something how he in your mind. Take a genuine in-terest in affairs of the day; read Mcanw Meanwhile Johnnie Green picked good magazine literature; get a sin-cere interest in something-good music or athletics, it doesn't matter up a stone and threw it into the clump of bushes. And then he heard something that was between a growl much what just so you have some honest enthusiasm for it. Converand a grunt. The Muley Cow heard it too. She

My Marriage Problems Adele Garrison's New Phase of "REVELATIONS OF A WIFE" (Copyright, 1922.)

The Promise That Katic Made Seem a Vow. "Meester Graham." Katic's voice held the same min.

Katie's voice held the same mis-ture of mischief and fright which I had seen in her face when we Katie's voice held the same mix-I had seen in her face when we made our exit through the side door of the restaurant. The conviction deepened in my mind that she had some reason to fear the possible whose service she had quitted so unceremoniously Dicky halted in his rapid stride and looked down at her indulgently.

THE BEE: OMAHA, SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1922.

Katie giggled in embarrassed ashion. "I tink we better take dot taxicab and get away from dis place queeck as we can." She indicated an empty machine, with the driver standing idly near it. Dicky looked at her keenly, then without a word, but with an odd little smile, lifted his stick, summoned the man and put us into the machine. As he did so, I looked nervously back and saw the restaurant proprietor come pell-mell out f his door, and look wildly up and down the street. Luckily he looked the other way first, and at the driver's question as to our destination, blurted out the first thing which came into my mind, "Brooklyn bridge, and hurry."

"I Fraid to Tell." "What the-" Dicky began mazement, but I put my finger on my lips, and he contented himself with glaring at me until we had safely rounded the corner without the restaurant proprietor catching through the rear window.

when he swung it in wide circles wrath of the restaurant proprietor about his head and then flows it at whose service she had quitted to the man after us now." this suggestion, and Katie was not was the only one I heard Katie in the least impressed.

"Katie, I've certainly got to slip you the frosted cake," Dicky said at last, wiping his eyes. "What a prize winner you'd be for the cooks' union What a fine old world this would What a fine old world this would if every single man, woman and child in the whole universe would get the thought that "the next thing to happen will be something good If "the next thing to happen will be something good." you used not worry and neither will L expression was real or assumed. "I mean," thundered Dicky, "to stop this possense and tell as what ples again. I sense inter the peoples is mine and tell as what ples again. stop this nousense and tell us what ples again. I sooch a fool to make ready to serve wherever the oppor-you did. We may get into a dickens all this mess shoost about feeling tunity shows itself, because "the bad for dot Jeem. Ven he cooms tunity shows itself, because "the next thing to happen will be something good." "All the world loves a lover," he-

Common Sense

By J. J. MUNDY.

Which philosophical observation cause that lover feels that everymake upon Jim's absence and her thing in the whole world is good and worthwhile.

"Spring is come, spring is come," runs a song which every heart should echo, because we are on the edge of something good-fair What course should be followed weather, sunshine, green leaves on same." "Katiel" My voice held the note which has rarely failed to bring obedience from her. "I want you to tell me at once what you did." She gulped, looked at me and gig-gled irrepressibly again. "Nôtings mooch," she said. "Old sing and plenty! But I took me can of toward thinks antagonism to stub-kerosene oil und I pour cet into re-frigerators and ofer everything else born aggressiveness. It is disastrous great "something good" is bound to It is time the grownups took up

SCRUBS POLISHES

TITZPATRICK BRS. (MORE

Keep TileFloors White sight of us, a fact of which I assured myself by turning and looking "The restaurant man was looking for us, I am sure," I said in explanation at last, turning and facing my irate husband, "so I said the first thing which came into my head." "Dot's shoost so goot as any place." Kate announced cheerfully. 'I got me a room ofer here couple blocks, but my rent she paid, so vomans vont lose nodings, und I got nodings over dere but old nightgown und sweater dot I goin' gif pretty All my good tings ofer to my cozine's not LEANS . SCOUPS ANTISEPTIC very far from Brooklyn bridge, und my comb and brush und lectle tings And Johnnie Green was und clean blouse in here"-she indicated a small bag in her hand. always keep dese tings handy, und shoost now I slip my suit ofer my vork dress. I feex me cop at my cozine's cef you have time.' Katie Confesses.

qveeck to rummage sale.

Dicky consulted his watch.

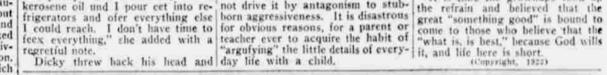

"We have plenty of time, for we can get lunch while you are at your cousin's-can you get something to cat there?

"Oh, yes! She feex me something nice."

"Then, that's settled. But now"affecting a sternness which I knew And he did not feel-"suppose you tell me, you imp, what you did to make you so afraid that restaurant propriepeeg, I vish I could feex him good and it is essential that we direct it and plenty! But I took me can of toward firmness and confidence, and laughed long and heartily, while I tried in vain to look properly shocked, and Katie grinned in gamin-like when they're on a strike. But don't

Parents' Problems

I almost laughed aloud myself at

"He pretty smart policeman cef he own adventure for many a day.

name ven I go by heem to vork, und nobody knows me ofer dot side of river. But I bet he awful mad shoost

Just as today when the flapper flaps

Miss Catherine Goss will entertain at luncheon next Monday at the

And still there were days when you'd scarcely believe "Width" was demanded both in skirts and in sineves; Brandeis tea room for Mrs. Jesse And with crinoline, linings. facings and Thurmond, a recent bride. braids.

braids, A balloon ascension rivaled not those fair maids; Still, if from lack of material she nar-rowed that skirt. The watchful and waiting declared, "She's

Just as today when the flapper flaps.

Now ponder the days of clothes long and tight. When all that is mortal was plumb out of sight: Their walk. Fil allow, had no hint of the Grees. And the "hobble" today we'd hail as a Dear Miss Fairfax; May I bother you for a few answers? freak: Even so. If she hobbled too fast or hob-bled too far. Upon her fair name there was surely a sear.

Upon her fair name there was surely a scar. Just as today when the flapper flaps. Dwell not on the maids of the past and the old. Their days have been spent as a tale the best. With bobbed hair and paint she's out-classed the rest: She cares not a whit what all the dames say. High-skirted, galoshed, she flaps on her way. And hence we say the flapper flaps. Upon her fair name there was surely a lis out in the best would relieve the em-barrassment right at first. Would it be proper to dance with anyone except the ones I was with? Some boys expects of fill in the girls? Some boys expects of fill in the girls? What is the nicest way to order at a cafe; give your order to the waiter or to your escort? What would be best to order after a dance? Is some good shortcake and coffee all right, Franz Johnson o

And hence we say the flapper flaps. Dear dames, can you not think of a kind-lier way To cope with the girl problem of to-or stays. The girls of each decade will have a mad craze; and jeering and anger and scorn Are lost on the air as the dew of the morn. Manual score and sc

Just an today when the flapper flaps. I can see no cause for embarrass-

Low Shoes Are Fashion's Edict

Pumps and oxfords are being worn this season even more generally than last year. As usual, Fry low shoes correctly interpret to the last detail the prevailing style trend. They come in a variety of graceful lasts and in all the popular leathers.

> Whatever style you favor there is a Fry Shoe that will suit you exactly.

Fry Shoe Co. 16th and Douglas Sts.

The Muley Cow heard it too. She sation will then come easily enough. Chest out, chin in and a spring from the ball of the foot will help give you good earriage. Fractice with a weight on the head and take with a weight on the head and take wildest sort of scent note of the way you use your muscles. It was enough for the Muley Cow. "My goodness!" She bellowed, "I'm When a boy asks you to go to a dance and you wish to accept, why not say, "Thank you. I'll be glad to go"? You don't need to use these words. Say whatever seems natural. Spot. Spot

Johnnie Green had not noticed that the Muley Cow had fled. He need to do so for safety's Your weight should be 117 game in the thicket, when that queer really sake. grunty growl made him stop short. pounds. You are near enough that The next moment, not 10 feet in front of him a shaggy form rose up Pals: You need advice all right, but much more than I can give you out of the tangle and glared straight from this distance. Talk to your at him, parents. I cannot think your ques. It wa It was a bear!

(Copyright, 1921.) tions are seriously made.

A daughter, Elizabeth Jane, was Saves doctor bills and coal bills born March 24 to Mr. and Mrs. as well-a thermometer, so you can keep the house at the uniform tem-perature of 70 degrees. Franz Johnson of Wahoo at the Stewart hospital.

"The Quality Coffee of America"

Economy=the Greatest Flavor - The Richest

M.J.B Coffee may cost you a little more per pound than ordinary coffee - but remember M.J.B Coffee will cost you less per cup because of its greater strength and richer flavor.

Vacuum Packed Groneweg & Schoentgen Co. Council Bluffs Wholesale Distributors

