

Market, Financial and Industrial News of the Day

Live Stock

Omaha, March 24, 1922.
 Heavy arrivals of wheat in Omaha were posted this morning, 49 cars of that cereal being reported in, as compared with 22 cars yesterday and 27 cars a year ago. Receipts of corn were 68 cars, as against 111 cars yesterday and 21 cars last year. Shipments continue on a liberal scale and totaled 160 cars of all kinds of grain, as compared with 83 cars last year.

Trade in the early part of the session on the local exchange was very quiet and the demand for grain generally was only fair. Trade in wheat was especially slow, however, in the latter part of the session a fair demand developed and the floor offerings were taken at prices ranging from unchanged to 1c higher prices. A very good demand existed in corn and prices were unchanged to 1/4c up, being generally unchanged. Oats were quoted 1/4c higher. Rye priced an easier tone and sold 2c lower than yesterday. Barley was unchanged.

Chicago Grain

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS.
Omaha Bee Local Wire.
Chicago, March 24.—While houses with eastern connections were free early sellers of wheat, the market developed an overall condition. After a rally of 1-3/4¢ to 1-1/2¢, it closed with net gains of 3-8¢ to 3-4¢. Local longs went out of their corn early, but there was a good class of buying. The close was unchanged to 3-8¢ higher. Oats were 1-1/4¢ to 1-1/2¢ higher and rye 1-1/4¢ to 1-1/2¢ higher.

Financial

The New York Times.
By ALEXANDER DANA NOYES.
Omaha Bee Local Wire.
New York, March 24.—Probably there were people in the financial district who believed, when the stock market opened today, that prices would break heavily on the overnight news of the 333 to 70 vote for the soldier bonus bill in the house.

New York Bonds

(The Bee is the only Omaha Newspaper which publishes the official close of the New York stock exchange bonds.)
New York, March 24.—Liberty bonds again leading the market, with a gain of 1/4¢ to 1/2¢. The market was generally quiet, with a few active features being noted. The market was generally quiet, with a few active features being noted.

N. Y. Curb Bontis

New York, March 24.—Following is a complete list of today's transactions on the New York Curb market up to 1:15 p. m., with rates of each issue and the high, low and closing prices.
