

Short Re-Elected Mayor by Voters of Sioux City

Labor Candidate Wins Office for Third Term—Iowa Town Elects Woman Mayor.

Sioux City, Ia., March 28.—Mayor Wallace M. Short will serve a third term as head of the city government. He received 13,600 votes as against 12,376 cast for Julius F. Kerberg. Short headed the labor ticket.

The four men who will compose the city council for the next two years are J. C. Heading, Thomas L. Taggart, E. O. Wesley and Patrick J. Dalton.

Taggart and Dalton were on the Short ticket.

Cedar Rapids Result.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., March 28.—Winding up one of the bitterest campaigns in the city's history of politics, Cedar Rapids yesterday elected Charles H. Huston, former postmaster, by a majority of less than 1,000 over the present incumbent, J. F. Rall.

The vote was comparatively light, falling between 4,000 and 5,000 of what had been expected. It is believed the women did not vote extensively.

Woman Leads in Des Moines.

Des Moines, March 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The first woman candidate ever to run for city council here led the entire field of municipal candidates in yesterday's city election by a majority of nearly 3,000 over her nearest competitor. The successful woman candidate was Mrs. C. H. Morris, widow of a prominent local merchant.

Carlton M. Garver was elected mayor over the present mayor, H. H. Barton, by almost a 2,000 majority.

Only one member of the present city council was re-elected although they were practically all candidates for re-election. This one was Harry B. Frazee, park commissioner, who was re-elected today to serve his fourth term.

The other two councilmen elected were John MacVicker and W. E. Mitchell, both of whom have served on the city council under previous administrations.

Reports received here from the smaller Iowa towns where women were candidates for office indicate that they were not very successful in their efforts to become public office holders.

Voters of Charlotte, Mount Vernon and Lenox defeated the women candidates for mayor.

Two Women Chosen Mayors.

Des Moines, Ia., March 28.—Activity of women in the political affairs of Iowa towns and cities at yesterday's elections is believed to have brought about election of two of their number as mayors, victory to candidates they endorsed in other towns, the defeat of the Sunday motion pictures at Ames and New Sharon and the routing of the town's pool hall at New Market.

Women candidates for mayor were elected at St. Charles and Calamus. Mrs. C. J. Young was elected mayor of St. Charles by a small majority. Mrs. Harry Steadman is the new mayor of Calamus.

Voters at Charlotte, Mount Vernon and Lenox defeated women candidates for mayor.

New Sharon and Ames voters decided that they do not want Sunday motion pictures, defeating a proposition which would have permitted them to be shown on the Sabbath.

Reports from Clinton indicate that H. W. Cowles was re-elected mayor by a small majority.

Women were elected to the city council in several towns.

It turned out that a municipal land was a collateral issue in 10 towns and nine of them voted 2-mile tax levies to have town bands.

Labor Ticket Defeated.

two years of union labor control, Burlington yesterday defeated the labor ticket for city council, electing but one of the three members that have been in control of the committee of five. Mayor Smith won over former Mayor James Bell by a majority of 685. Councilmen Canny and Kaiser were re-elected and Henry J. Cook and George C. Young are the other two members of the new council.

Iowa Woman Blames Liquor and Money for Losing Election

Charlotte, Ia., March 28.—"Liquor and money won the election," was the charge made today by Mrs. James McDermott, defeated woman's candidate for mayor in yesterday's city election.

"The charge is false," responded J. R. Kane, who won from Mrs. McDermott, 151 to 104. "Liquor was not the issue at all," he continued. "It was woman suffrage."

The mayor elect added that every vote in the town was out, asserting that the challenge of the young women to bachelors and swains to support the women's ticket or cease courting them had added fuel to the feverish campaign.

On the other hand, Mrs. McDermott maintained that not only all the voters in the town were at the polls, but "imported" ones as well.

County Assessor Dies.

Osceola, Neb., March 28.—(Special Telegram.)—D. R. Leard, Polk county assessor, a resident of Shelby, died Tuesday morning following a stroke of paralysis last Saturday.

Quarrel Over Hog Ends in Shooting and Deaths of Two

Man Slays Father and Son and Wounds Two Others for Pay Demanded for Killing Animal.

State Line, Miss., March 28.—Charles A. Keller, 32, formerly of Ohio, shot and killed George P. Odum, 65, and his son, Clem Odum, 20, and probably fatally wounded Howard E. Norman, town marshal, and A. J. Page here today following an argument over the death of a hog, authorities announced tonight.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the marshal, and Postmaster C. C. Burch disarmed Keller after Norman was shot.

Keller, authorities said, had killed a hog owned by Clem Odum, and when advised to pay for it became angered and searched for Odum. The shooting followed. Page was shot while attempting to prevent any shooting.

Robber Killed by Officers.

Chicago, March 28.—While one band of bandits can look complacently on the results of their last 24 hours of activities there are several others today with prospects that are less bright. One negro, caught robbing a victim was shot and killed by a negro police officer. One burglar was captured by a housewife in her home and police arrested several alleged burglars.

Bandit successes included the invasion of the farm home of Arthur W. Cullen, multimillionaire grain broker at Downers Grove where they obtained $500 in cash, $17,000 worth of jewelry and nine cases of whisky. Another group of robbers operating in the loop district held up the manager of a clothing store as he was about to close and escaped with eight suits.

Armed With Revolver.

Mrs. Edna McKenzie armed with her husband's revolver, answered the alarm given by a neighbor who found a burglar in her apartment. The burglar ran but was pursued and captured by Mrs. McKenzie.

Raymond Green, negro police officer, saw through a grocery store window a negro pointing a gun at the wife of the proprietor of the store. Green went inside and when the robber turned his gun toward him the officer fired three shots. Three bullets, within a circle no larger than a dollar, went through the robber's heart.

Numerous arrests were made tonight following reports of minor robberies.

Killed on Train.

Le Sueur, Minn., March 28.—A man believed to be E. G. Bell of Casper, Wyo., was shot and killed in a drawing room on a passenger train of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad, en route here last night. Mrs. Bell is alleged to have told authorities that her husband was intoxicated and that she shot him in self-defense. She was not arrested early today.

Farmer Commits Suicide by Hanging Self in Barn

Brookings, S. D., March 28.—(Special.)—William P. Timmer, 39, a farmer living 13 miles north of Brookings, committed suicide by hanging himself in the hayloft of the barn on his farm. The body was found by his 8-year-old daughter. It is stated he was in strained financial circumstances. He was a widower and is survived by five children.

This was the second suicide in Brookings county within a week. Oscar Carlson, 34, ended his life by shooting himself through the head, the body being found in his garage. It is thought he was mentally unbalanced.

Man Loses Damage Suit for Loss of 30 Tons of Hay

Pawnee City, Neb., March 28.—(Special.)—Mike Webber lost his suit against Nick Pettinger in county court here for $300 damages for the burning of 30 tons of hay which, Webber claims, was due to negligence by Pettinger. The latter had been burning hedge near the hay and the hay burned during that night. The jury brought a verdict in favor of Pettinger.

Pawnee Church in Drive to Raise $10,000 Budget

Pawnee City, Neb., March 28.—(Special.)—A vigorous campaign has been launched here to raise the 1922 financial budget for the First Presbyterian church. The needed amount is almost $10,000, the largest budget ever attempted by this congregation. All but $1,200 has been subscribed and more than this amount is assured from members who are out of town.
