Burch's Attorney Challenges Jury Panel in Trial

Action Taken on Ground of Alleged Tampering, Following Statements Made by Talesmen.

Los Angeles, March 30 .- The entire panel of jurors in the trial for murder of Arthur C. Burch was challenged this afternoon by Paul W. Schenck, chief defense attorney, on the ground of alleged tempering.

Schenck also asked that subpoenas he issued for District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, Chief Deputy William C. Dorn and any other members of the district attorney's staff who might be able to tell the court anything about efforts declared to have been made to ascertain pointons of prospective jurors,

This was the result of statements by talesmen that persons had questioned them or their neighbors about their attitude concerning the Schenck made his motion when 12 jurors had been passed for

Deputy District Attorney Asa Keys objected to the motion and Judge Sidney N. Reeve denied it, declaring he believed he was without power to dismiss an entire panel for the cause stated. Schenck was granted a continuance until tomorrow afternoon so that he could prenare affidavits making the ground of his objection to the jury a matter of

Grimes Barber

Des Moines, Ia., March 30 .- (Special Telegram.)-Failing to recover from a period of despondency from which he had been suffering for six weeks, J. R. Darrel of Grimes, Ia., committed suicide in a room in the Grand hotel by opening a gas jet. His body was discovered by E. C. Conley, hotel proprietor. Darrel's identity was established by means of a statement from Shiffers restaurant at Grimes, found in his pockets. According to persons living in Grimes, where Darrel maintained a barber shop, the barber had been in a fit of melancholia for several in the Haycock mountains 22 years ago.

Chief of Police Harry Rhodes announced tenight. Chief Rhodes and he was convinced the prisoner was Roy Hecox of Humer township, Illinois. The dentist, according to his own midstream, story, was waiting for a street car at I in the morning. Three men in an automobile drove alongside of Kills Self in him, covered him with their revol-vers and ordered him into their machine. Two of the bandits sat in the back seat with the dentist between them. After they had re-lieved him of $18 in currency and his gold watch they drove to the outskirts of the city. Fearing that the dentist resisted the two men and Mrs. Alden was unanimously electjaw. Dr. Johnson said that he did not remember any further details of where he was taken by the sluggers.
