Beginning Monday

a Sale of Silks

A trial lawyer always looks for a motive. So should you.

What is the motive behind a sale of silks at the very beginning of the season?

Answer—We have bought several lots of silk at lower prices. We believe these purchases indicate a lowering silk market. Silk merchants say not, but—we are going to act on our belief and SELL SILKS.

Publicity people claim it poor psychology to forecast lower prices, but we've been telling the truth so long we can't learn to do otherwise.
