Generous Giving Has Left Club Homeless

By Mrs. Charles E. Johannes. President Omaha Woman's Club. A glance at some of the contributions of Omaha the Woman's club explains why the city has no "woman's building."

Back in 1893, the year of its organization, the club began giving. It contributed to the drought sufferers in the western part of the state, gave to the Colored Woman's club library, the Omaha Fair Speed association, purchased pictures to be hung in the public schools, assisted in the support of Thayers' Aid, sent money to Armenians, contributed to the Salvation Army Rescue home and spent $1,000 for entertainment of guests at Transmississippi exposition. In 1900 the club gave $1,451.79 to Ak-Sar-Ben. It is a long way back to those days, but the Omaha Woman's club has kept right on giving. Omaha has helped to build houses for the poor, the blind and the deaf, and the club of 600 women has no place in it all its own.

The club has a building site at Seventeenth and Jackson street which is two thirds paid for, and it is building every effort to make the last lap to complete ownership. One of the activities to this end is the inauguration of the May Music Festival which will mean a great deal to Omaha and the near by communities. The club expects to entertain a festival an annual event. There will be an orchestra of 30 pieces under direction of Robert Cusaden. The concerts will be held five Mondays in May beginning at 10 a. m. in the tea room of Burgess-Nash street.

To Hold Sacrifice Sale. Auxiliary B of All Saints parish will hold a sacrifice sale soon after Easter, and anything saleable will be gladly accepted. This is the first sacrifice sale since the war. Mrs. Sam Burns is chairman of the building committee, Mrs. Sam Caldwell is treasurer. Mrs. Sam Oakford, president of the auxiliary, will take orders for stationery and she will be assisted by Mrs. Sam Carlyle, an array of "Sams" which they assure the public is an accident. Mrs. Franklin Shotwell is in charge of publicity. Each district will have a chairman to receive and collect the supplies.

Get Acquainted Club. The Get Acquainted club meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Unitarian church, Turner boulevard and Harney street. Mrs. Thomas R. Jones and Mrs. Jessie G. Cornish will be hostesses. The program will include readings by Mrs. Horace J. Holmes, a piano solo by Miss Bessie Mahan, a vocal solo by Miss Marie Hopkins, and a violin solo by Miss Lois Marmon, with Mrs. Mary Adele Abbott at the piano.

Mrs. Belden's Spoon Bread. Sixteen members of the agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce lunched with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Belden Friday by invitation from Mr. Belden, who wished the distinguished body to know that delicious dishes may be made from corn. Mrs. Belden's "spoon bread" proved the favorite dish. The recipe follows:

One-half cup water, 2 cups milk. Boil and stir in carefully and slowly scant 3-4 cup of cornmeal yellow or white (white preferred) and a teaspoonful of salt. Cover and cook over a slow fire five minutes. Stir occasionally. Separate two eggs and add yolks to mush. Stir in thoroughly. Beat whites light and when stiff fold into mush. Pour into hot buttered baking dish and bake in hot oven 10 to 15 minutes, until it is delicately brown on top and bottom. Dip out with spoon. Serve with butter and syrup.

(This recipe was published some weeks ago in The Bee series of corn recipes.)

Helps for Beauty Seekers By MADAME MAREE To Beautify the Complexion UNTIMELY wrinkles, rough skin, oiliness or other unsatisfactory conditions can be overcome if the following treatment is kept up for a time. Remove the dirt and grime from the skin with mild soap and tepid water, dry the skin carefully and apply a little epitel cream, massaging until it vanishes. This cleanses pores of impurities and gently removes dead cuticle, leaving the skin soft and smooth and of an exquisite tint and velvety texture. Simply get a two-ounce package of powdered epitel from your druggist and follow the simple directions on the package; as this is a greaseless cream, there is no danger of growing hairs or making the skin oily. ANSWERS TO QUERIES DOWNCAST: No woman, or man, for that matter likes to go through life with thin, ugly unmanageable hair, and there is no need to. Get from your druggist one ounce-bottle of hair lotion, and there smooth and of an exquisite tint and velvety texture. Simply get a two-ounce package of powdered epitel from your druggist and follow the simple directions on the package; as this is a greaseless cream, there is no danger of growing hairs or making the skin oily. N.B.: To keep the skin soft and velvety, I know of no better way than the following simple treatment: Every night just before retiring wash the face, arms and neck with a good soap and warm water, then dry carefully and apply a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of salicylic acid in a pint of water; you can get a pint of bay rum, when you get home mix the bay rum with half a quart of water and let stand for a few minutes, then add ten minutes when it will be ready for use. If you will use this every night for a week then twice a week I am sure you will soon notice a wonderful difference in your hair, not only in its appearance, but in the increasing quantity. A.L.: Never squeeze out blackheads, as it only leaves large pores which, as mightily hard to get rid of, the very best and surest way to get rid of the pesky things is to dissolve them; to do this get a small quantity of powdered borax from your druggist, sprinkle a little on a wet sponge or towel and rub over the places where the blackheads are. This will dissolve most if not all the blackheads the first application. M.A.M.E.: Never use a head-wash that shrivels the skin on the hands, because the "free" alkali is very injurious to the scalp; if you will get a twenty-five cent package of ergol from your druggist you will have enough for a dozen most delightful shampoos you ever had. Ergol not only cleanses, both hair and scalp, but keeps them healthy and vigorous. You will also find that ergol leaves the hair soft and silky and easy to do up.
