

Graduate Nurse Again Collapses at Murder Trial

Woman Charged With Slaying Cincinnati Attorney Faints During Testimony of Prosecution Witness.

New York, April 3.—Miss Olivia Stone, graduate nurse, collapsed on the stand today for the second time since she went on trial in Brooklyn, charged with the murder of Ellis G. Kinkead, former corporation counsel of Cincinnati. Although she was revived, physicians said she was in no condition to stand the strain and court was adjourned until tomorrow.

United States Attorney James J. Clark of Cincinnati was on the stand when Miss Stone fainted. In spite of her insistent denials that she had never seen him, Mr. Clark asserted she had come into his office in 1919 to ask for a warrant for the arrest of Kinkead under the Mann act.

Miss Stone several times interrupted Clark's testimony, shouting "I was not telling the truth. Warned to keep still, she kept murmuring under her breath. Finally, while reaching for a glass of water, she fainted.

Dr. Annette M. Ralston of Brooklyn, a specialist on women's diseases, who said a "temporary explosion" in Miss Stone's brain probably was responsible for the shooting, on cross-examination testified that although Miss Stone was of a neurotic temperament, her history gave no grounds for believing she had shown traces of insanity before.

Nurse-Slayer and Victim

This picture of Ellis G. Kinkead, noted Cincinnati and Brooklyn lawyer, for whose slaying Olivia Stone is now on trial, and Olivia Stone, was taken soon after their "wedding," according to the defendant. Its introduction into court furnished the most startling bit of evidence presented in the sensational trial.

Romance Dreams Lead to Taking of Auto and Jail

One-Time Social Leader Takes Car So Young Wife and Self Can Seek Adventure.

Over prairies, mountains and golden desert sands toward a setting sun of romance and happiness, with the cars of the world behind, was the picture James C. Hartnett, 532 Park avenue, portrayed to his young wife after he had stolen a car belonging to L. E. Taylor, Grain Exchange building, according to a confession he made yesterday to Lieutenant of Detectives John Pisanowski.

Hartnett, once a leader in social activities among the younger set of this city, is in the jail.

When Detectives Buglewicz and Cich apprehended Hartnett in a pawnshop at Eleventh and Douglas streets at 10 yesterday morning, he was trying to pass his wife's fur coat to get funds to defray expenses to California, he said. The officers had trailed the stolen car for several blocks. It had been stolen from in front of the public library the night before and the license plate changed.

"I knew this would happen," sobbed Hartnett's wife when officers made the arrest. Hartnett told police that he failed to inform his wife that the car was stolen.

Prepared For Trip.

In the car were valises containing pretty clothes, slippers, cosmetics and an electric iron, all packed for the overland trip, police said.

After his Bertillon measurements were taken, Hartnett said that he took the car "for a joke." Police say he is the son of a grain operator on the Omaha exchange and has been in several minor escapades recently which have cost his father between $15,000 and $20,000.

Hartnett is 30 years old.

De Valera Band Gags Collins at Meeting

to be responsible, but that the request was refused.

Mrs. Fogarty, proprietress of the Commercial hotel, Castlebar, was wounded in the shoulder, presumably by the bullet fired at the meeting.

Roads Blocked.

The correspondent of the London Evening News says all the roads to Castlebar were blocked by trees and that automobiles moving toward the town were stopped by armed men who even ripped up the railway tracks to prevent the arrival of the special trains from the Hudgowns. The meeting was consequently delayed until 7 p. m.

The crowd numbered 2,000 persons, among them many hostile to Collins. Collins was frequently interrupted and then an attempt was made to rush the lories, which supported his platform, says the account, and a supporter of Collins drew a revolver. Others produced revolvers also upon which the crowd stared, women fainting and several persons were trampled upon. A young man was pursued into a side street and a number of shots were fired.

At this point, adds the correspondent, an officer jumped upon the platform, and declared the meeting adjourned in the interest of peace.

Four men were shot and killed and three small children were wounded Saturday night in the Sinn Fein area near the Old Lodge road district. The ages of the men ranged from 40 to 63 years.

Punctuated With Shrieks.

Later heavy rifle and revolver firing, punctuated with the shrieks of women and children, was heard, and shortly afterward the bodies of the four men were taken to a hospital, where the three wounded children also were conveyed. The father of the children, Joseph Walsh, was one of the men who was shot and killed. All the killings took place in the homes of the victims.

Walsh was lying in bed with the two younger children when the bullet killed him, wounding them. Two-year-old Bridget was shot through the head.

The body of a young man was found lying in the road at midnight three miles from Newry. There were two bullet wounds in his head. Papers in the man's pockets bore the name Garvey.

Orange Hill, near Newry, and close to the scene of the recent train burning was destroyed early this morning. Armed men ordered out

Big Fight Waged Over Munny Swimming Pool

Fremont, Neb., April 3.—(Special.)—Fremont boosters, members of the Commercial, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, Central Labor union and other organizations are trying to put over the $25,000 swimming pool bond issue at the coming city election. A big fight is being waged between the boosters and the conservative element, which believes the city is too heavily taxed at the present time.

Boy Scouts have canvassed the city with personal appeals for votes for the bond issue. Movies of other swimming pools throughout the state have been shown in local theaters. The town has been placarded with posters. "Vote for the bonds! Be in the swim!" Office-seekers at the coming election are using the proposed swimming pool as an issue.

A year ago the same issue was introduced in connection with a recreation park. It was defeated by a large majority at that time, but the indications this year forecast a close race.

Isn't that easy? Everyone likes to make rhymes and here is a chance to spend a fascinating hour or two writing rhymes on this popular Baking Powder and perhaps winning a substantial prize for your efforts.

59 CASH PRIZES

For the rhyme selected as best a prize of $100 will be given; for the second, third and fourth best rhymes prizes of $75, $50, and $25, respectively will be given. Biscuits, muffins, pie or cake.
The Price's Co. guarantee

Any woman or girl may enter the Contest, but only one rhyme from each person will be considered. In case of ties, the full amount of the prize will be given to each tying contestant.
