Joie Ray, Laddie Myers and Joe Loomis Invited to Give Exhibitions at Hastings College Event.

FRANK F. LOOMIS, JR.

GH school track athletes will High school track athletes will have plenty of competition this spring, as many meets have been scheduled for the interscholastic boys. Prep schools not planning on track feams will apply their ci-fetts toward baseball, so during the remaining two and one-half months chough competition will take place to keep the athletes busy.

The program of meets has been well planned so that all questionable winners can clash at the state meet on Nebraska field. Coach Henry F. Schulte is expecting a record en-try list this year, as the majority of the colleges are featuring track games in preparation for the state

In the open championship at Prestwick in 1908 the celebrated golfer, James Braid, chanced upon a golfing experience that aimeat passes belief. At one of the holes Braid had reached the green in two and was about five yards from the hole. Five yards beyond the hole was a bunker. Braid putted and for some strange reason his putter same down with 10 times the force required and his ball landed in the bunker. In this championship match Braid was obliged at that stage of the game to put tack his putter and call for a niblick. Despite such an upset he won the hole and his match. the player who is farther away playing first hold good?
