

Omaha Lawyer Turns Down Federal Post

George A. Lee, Omaha attorney, has been offered the position of attorney for the internal revenue department at Washington. The offer came through Elmer Dover, assistant secretary of the treasury. The position carries a substantial compensation.

Mr. Lee declined the offer. "Under no circumstances would I leave Omaha," he said. My present connection as general counsel with the Continental Gas and Electric corporation suits me perfectly. I consider Omaha one of the most prosperous, progressive and cosmopolitan cities in the United States. "I have lived in Seattle, Denver and Washington, and Omaha is far and away ahead of any of these cities."

The Continental Gas and Electric corporation is moving its general Cleveland offices to Omaha. The company is now occupying the entire sixth floor of the new Standard Oil building.

Sues to Annul Marriage of Son to Dancing Teacher

Dorothy DeVere, solo dancer and instructor of dancing to children, is the defendant in a suit brought in the district court for annulment of her marriage to John Kulakofsky. They were married last fall, when they eloped to Papillion, according to the petition. At that time the husband was 19, his father, Jarohn Kulakofsky, who is pushing the annulment proceedings, said.

General Kernan Not to Come Here for Duties Till May 15

Maj. Gen. F. J. Kernan, new corps area commander at Fort Crook, who landed in San Francisco from Manila early this week, will not arrive here until the middle of May. Colonel Upton announced yesterday. General Kernan is taking a month's leave of absence.

Russian Family Reunited.

Through the efforts of Harry Hough, American Legion adjutant, Sam and Jake Lagman, grocers at 1623 North Thirty-third street, were reunited with their mother, Mrs. Diana Lagman, after an absence of eight years. The mother and four children arrived in Omaha last Sunday, fugitives from Ukraine.

Nancy Brady Being Sought for Dying Grandmother

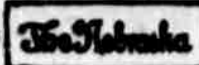

A grandmother is dying at Cozad, Neb., and she wants to see her daughter, Nancy E. Brady, mother of John Brady, who lived in Omaha several years, according to a message received yesterday by Chief of Police Dempsey from John Henry of Cozad.

ONE MINUTE STORE TALK

"It's about time for you to tell the women of this city what you told them a year ago on my suggestions: That you do not charge for style value at this store—that the value is all in the merchandise," said a little woman to whom we are indebted for the suggestion.
