

5,000 Poles Blown Down in Storm; Damage Is Million

Special Train Carrying 610 Linemen Leaves for West to Repair Damage to Wires.

Damage to telephone and telegraph wires from the storm that passed over a region west and north of Omaha is estimated at $1,000,000, according to reports made last night. The storm swept over an area extending to Goshort from Fremont, south to the Kansas border, and east and north to Worthington, Minn., and Sioux Falls, S. D. More than 5,000 poles are down and several thousand wires broken.

Rush Supplies From Omaha.

A special car of telephone supplies, coupled to the Union Pacific crack Los Angeles limited, left Omaha at 11:15 yesterday morning for Grand Island, the center of Monday's sleet storm area. In order to aid in a speedy restoration of communication facilities this train ignored its usual schedule, which permits no local stops, and unloaded telephone equipment at strategic points along its route to waiting Northwestern Bell Telephone company construction trucks.

As the storm area covers more than 60,000 square miles, it will be some time before a definite check can be made of the number of poles and miles of wire blown down. It is estimated that at least 5,000 poles will have to be replaced.

About 35 telephone construction crews, numbering 700 men, some of them from North Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota, were rushed in to help repair the storm damage.

Sioux City Loss Big

Sioux City, Ia., April 11.—Property loss of roughly $300,000 is left in the wake of the snow storm which struck Sioux City last night and early today.

Telephone companies were the heaviest sufferers. The Sioux City Telephone company places its loss in the city from $30,000 to $75,000, according to J. H. Rae, vice president and manager.

The Northwestern Bell Telephone company is a heavy sufferer in northwest Iowa, South Dakota, southern Minnesota and eastern Nebraska.

Firm Fighting Bankruptcy Suit Denies Low Assets

The Morcamp Drilling syndicate, fighting a suit brought by Frank Morris, George Canyon and Sam Himm, stockholders, in federal court, to have it declared bankrupt, yesterday introduced testimony by James W. Hastings, an accountant, showing that on May 31, 1921, it had assets of $136,862 and liabilities of only $25,250.

George T. Porter, president of the company, and Viggo Lyngby, secretary, allege that the suit was brought as a result of a dispute among stockholders. The plaintiffs allege that the actual assets of the company could not be sold for more than $12,000.

Ernest Cahow Cited on Alimony Complaint

Mrs. Gertrude Cahow, 5001 Underwood avenue, filed a petition in district court yesterday asking an order to cause her former husband, Ernest W. Cahow, Blackstone hotel, vice president of the Great Western Commission company, to appear in court and show why he has failed to pay alimony.

She charges he is $700 in arrears in his payments. She was granted $150 monthly alimony when she was divorced June 1, 1917.

Judge Sears issued an order yesterday calling Cahow to appear before Judge W. A. Redick next Friday and show cause why he should not be cited for contempt for not making these payments and also to show cause why he should not be required to furnish adequate security to meet accruing payments of alimony under the original decree.

Today Named for Raking Backyards in Cleanup

Shotwell Acts in Alleged Swindle

Files Complaints Against Two in Money-Making Marine Case.

County Attorney Shotwell filed complaints yesterday against Billy Georgis and Louis S. Dochoff, alleged exponents of a "money-making machine," charging them with conspiring to commit grand larceny. The complaints set forth that on March 31 Georgis approached Carl Toderoff and asserted that he, Georgis, was a close friend of the United States treasurer. Through his friendship he sold Toderoff a sample of the paper, according to the complaint.

Georgis told Toderoff a friend, Dochoff, was bringing a "money-making machine" to Omaha that he had $6,700 toward the purchase of it, and asked Toderoff to put up $3,300 more toward the $10,000 purchase price of the machine, says the complaint.

Toderoff became suspicious and complained to the county attorney and to the secret service. Georgis and Dochoff were arrested.

City to Purchase Building for Library in Florence

City council authorized City Commissioner H. B. Zimman yesterday to purchase for the city a two-story brick building, Thirtieth and Clay streets, Florence, for a consideration of $13,000. Council made a tender of $12,500 and Mr. Zimman reported that owners demanded $13,000. The building will be used for branch public library, community center and public comfort station.
