Make Washday a Habit

Many things that might be improved have been with us so long that it sometimes never occurs to us that we could do better without them. We are slaves of custom—of habit.

The buttons on our coat cuffs date back to the Seventeenth Century, when coats were of such rich and costly fabrics that it was necessary to protect the wide sleeves by rolling and buttoning them up. We have abandoned brocades and cloth of gold, but we still cling to cuffs.

In many parts of France, Italy and Austria, women harness themselves up with the oxen and drag the plows. It has never occurred to them that women have a higher mission.

Are you thus bound by habit and custom to washday? Perhaps you simply haven't thought much about the matter heretofore—but there is a more modern method than that of the scrubboard.

It is our family laundry service. It is a better washway—we wash your personal and household goods in the same careful manner you would do them yourself. No flapping in the wind to collect soot or tear the textiles—but a sure, pure drying. Then ironing by our steam-heated method that never scorches. Delivery at a definite time on definite days—these are what we give you.

Washday is a heritage of the past that as a modern woman it is unnecessary for you to cling to longer.

Call us up and let us give you freedom from the trying labor of washday. We will be glad to have our driver call for your family bundle.

Miss DuPont

Featured in
"Foolish Wives"

will call at our 16th and Harney store on Monday to purchase her various toilet needs. Miss DuPont's purchases will be sure to include several items in the Jonteel line, as she finds the wonderful creams and powders indispensable, both at the studio and at home.

Don't fail to be there at 12:30. Moving pictures will be taken of Miss DuPont and of the Crowd.

TALC
Jonteel
25¢

FROM the flower gardens of all the world, from India and France, Guiana and England, the Holy Land and Italy, were gathered the fragrances that go into the making of Jonteel, the New Odor of Twenty-six Flowers.

Yet never before has a talc of this quality sold at a price so low.

These pictures will be shown at the Brandeis Theater. We want you in this picture.
