Edna Sampson, Movie Star Is Featured In a Most Unique Display

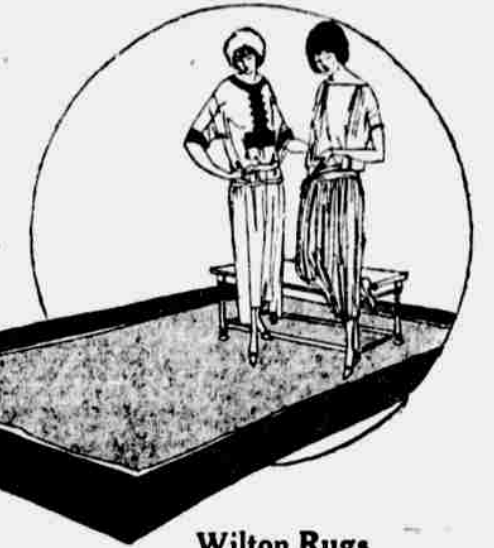

During "Good Housekeeping Week," April 17th to 22nd, we have planned a unique idea to demonstrate how this store can practically furnish a home complete. To demonstrate this we have furnished a complete Four-Room Apartment, in our Seventeenth Street windows, and at 9 a. m. Monday morning, Edna Sampson, from Hollywood, Cal., who appeared with Harold Lloyd in his great production, "A Sailor Made Man," will take her residence in this apartment.

During each hour of each day this week, she will give interesting demonstrations. Be sure to see her during the week.

The Royal Electric Cleaner

Cleans by Air Alone

The dirt is in the rug, not on it. Embedded dirt is full of sharp grit that cuts and ruins rugs. The Royal removes this dirt by the most satisfactory method—with a powerful suction scientifically applied. The "Royal" picks up more than the litter—it removes every minute particle of dust.

Why We Recommend The ROYAL Cleaner

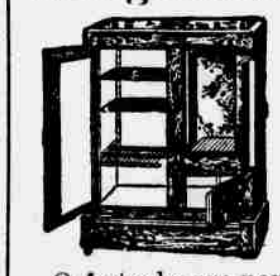

First—"It cleans by air alone."
Second—The brush can be detached as required.
Third—The "Royal" is moderately priced.
Fourth—It is so constructed that only common care is needed.

Let Us Demonstrate It in Your Home

During "Good Housekeeping Week" we are especially featuring the "Royal" and will be pleased to demonstrate it in your home, without any obligation on your part. Convenient terms if desired.
