Production of Coal Shows Slight Increase

Washington, April 16.—(By A. P.)—Coal production in the United States, reduced by 75 per cent when miners in unionized fields walked out April 1, is now showing a slight increase, it was reported by the geological survey.

Nonunion fields where operations have been resumed produced 10,720 car loads Monday, April 10, and forged slowly ahead on each succeeding day until Thursday, the last day recorded, when the output was 11,480 cars.

The production on April 13, though less than in districts now at work, are able to produce where demand is active, the survey said, was the greatest of any single day since the strike began. On April 3, production was 11,445 cars, but in the next few days output, even in non-union fields, showed a tendency to fall off.

G. O. P. Leaders Undecided Over 1923 Naval Bill

All Supporters Requested to Be on Hand Tuesday in Case Record Vote Is Demanded.

Washington, April 16.—Contemplating the decisive vote by which the house yesterday recorded its approval of an $86,000 man navy as recommended by President Harding and American naval experts over one of 67,000 men advocated by the committee on appropriations, republican leaders were undecided whether to press the matter to a formal vote in the house.

The absence of definite information and anticipation of a demand for Arthur, republican, Oregon, one of the leaders in the fight for the increase, announced that telegrams had been sent to all supporters of the amendment to return here Tuesday.

It was generally understood that Chairman Kelley, in charge of the bill, would insist on a separate vote on the amendment. Under the rules, one-fifth of the members on the floor would have to stand up for a roll call in order to obtain it.

Some of the members supporting the committee bill were doubtful whether the vote yesterday of 177 to 130, could be changed if another poll was taken. Mr. McArthur declared advocates of the amendment were satisfied an even wider margin in favor of it. There was no accurate count as to how the democrats divided on the $86,000 proposal. Off hand, it was stated they split about even, but the democratic leaders asserted that the party stood about 2 to 1 for the committee report.

Allies Call for Shutdown from Russia

Soviet Delegates Told to Answer Yes or No as to Conditions of Cannes Resolution.

By The Associated Press. Genoa, April 16.—Then Russian delegates were told to answer definitely yes or no as to whether they will put into practice the conditions of the Cannes resolution and the guarantees contained in the London experts' report, according to a French communique issued subsequent to the adjournment of a lengthy meeting between the allied leaders and the Russians.

It seemed impossible, said the French statement, to get anything tangible from the soviet delegates, who astonished the allied representatives by demanding 50,000,000 gold roubles as the amount due Russia because of foreign intervention. This is two and a half times greater than the amount the allies claim from Russia.

Italians Not Pleasid. An Italian statement regarding the meeting was more optimistic, pointing out that the subjects discussed are more vast in scope than was dreamed of when the Genoa conference originated.

"This," says the statement, "is an attempt to bring about the coexistence in the world of finance, economic capitalism and communism. This morning the experts were struggling in a kingdom of figures and in the afternoon the allied leaders took the discussion back into the kingdom of principles."

The bolshevik delegates have been asked to expedite the discussion as much as possible, and the conversations will be resumed as soon as possible.

Committee on Road Probe Is Touring State

Hastings, Neb., April 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The committee appointed by the legislature to investigate relative cost of state and county road construction arrived here this evening preparatory to entering the reported hostile federal road territory of Clay county tomorrow.

This county, represented in the legislature by Charles H. Epperson, has been a constant name on Epperson's lips in legislative halls and before the probe committee and it has been pictured by Epperson as filled with men in open arms against the federal road plan, angered with the personnel of the state highway department and ready to lambast the department from soap to nuts when the committee arrives at Clay Center.

McAdoo to Enter Race for Presidency, Rumor

Washington, April 16.—Former President Wilson's letter repudiating the message given to the New York democratic dinner by Joseph P. Tumulty and the consequent break between Mr. Wilson and his long-time devoted secretary are regarded here by some democratic leaders as certain indications that William G. McAdoo is planning to become a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination in 1924.

Mr. Wilson's repudiation of the message to the Jefferson day banquet was actuated, in the opinion of leading democrats, not because of the wording of the message delivered by Mr. Tumulty as coming from Wilson, but because of the impression created that it was an endorsement of the renomination of James M. Cox.

Mr. Wilson, his friends say, is not for Cox for another nomination and does lean favorably toward the nomination of his son-in-law and former secretary of the treasury, who was runner-up to Cox in the 1920. Party leaders insist that McAdoo is quietly maneuvering for the nomination next time and that this was one of the reasons for the recent removal of his residence from New York to California.

Spring Floods

Third Party to Issue Statement

Wray Will Attempt to Explain Switches in Candidates and Different Platforms.

Lincoln, April 16.—(Special.)—Third party leaders announced today that their next attempt to square themselves with the public in putting Norton on their ticket as a third party and democratic candidate for governor and switching Arthur G. Wray to the candidacy for United States senator would be a statement to be issued shortly by Wray, either from York or through J. H. Edmisten, third party chairman, Lincoln.

The leaders received Wray's consent to prepare such a statement and it is probable that on this statement and the campaign plans outlined the third party will depend to straighten out the middle of Norton's candidacy on a personal platform agreeing in hardly a single plank with the platform adopted by the third party at its Grand Island meeting.

Four Suspects Held for Crete Robbery

Crete, Neb., April 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Police here arrested two men and turned them over to state officers for investigation in connection with the Sweeney-Lindquist robbery here two weeks ago. J. D. Barr and a companion were arrested after asking some boys on their arrival in the city, for the hotel where that woman stopped who was connected with the store robbery.

Barr claimed to be making arrangements with Sheriff Greer to furnish a $1,500 bond for the release of Sweeney, who is now held in jail awaiting his trial. He said he knew the woman here by the name of Lindquist and that he stayed with Sweeney in Omaha. He appears to be well acquainted with the couple that visited Crete, and when questioned by the police as to how he expected to furnish a $1,500 bond, when he beat his way into Crete on the blind baggage, he didn't have a very good explanation.

Hot Fight on Tariff Bill Looms

Controversies on Practically Every Schedule in Measure, as Reported to Senate, Are Predicted.

Debate Opens Thursday

Washington, April 16.—Proposed duties in nearly every schedule in the tariff bill are involved in controversies which will be carried into the floor of the senate. Comment by manufacturers, importers and members of congress since the bill was reported to the senate last Tuesday indicate that a prolonged debate is in prospect and that dozens of amendments will be pressed. Debate on the bill is scheduled to begin next Thursday.

While the republican senate leadership insist that congress will not adjourn without disposing of tariff legislation, they admit that the situation may become such as to make it difficult to avoid delaying final action until next winter. Soldiers' bonus legislation and the army and navy appropriation bills threaten to delay speedy passage of the tariff measure.

Summary of Situation. A summary of the situation with respect to the various schedules in the tariff bill shows:

Schedule 1, chemicals, oils and paints—extension of the present embargo and license control of imports of dyer for one year, together with authority to the president to extend it for one additional year if not entirely pleasing, either to importers or manufacturers.

Schedule 2, earths, earthenware and glassware—Manganese producers are hopeful of a higher rate of duty than approved by the finance committee.

Schedule 3, metals and manufactures of producers of manganese which was restored to the free list by the finance committee will seek to have the senate approve the duty proposed by the house.

Seek Duty on Shingles. Schedule 4, wood and manufactures of domestic coast interests may seek to have a duty placed on shingles, which were made dutiable in the house bill, but are on the free list in the senate measure.

Schedule 5, sugar, molasses and manufactures of—The controversy over duties on sugar will be pressed, both by domestic beet and cane sugar interests who desire an increase over the rate in the senate bill which is the same as in the Fordney bill, and also as in the emergency tariff and by Cuban sugar interests.

Schedule 6, tobacco and manufactures of—California growers of tobacco similar to the Turkish product may seek the restoration of the special duty proposed in the house bill.
