

Hastings Enters First Candidate for Trip Abroad

Miss Ester Brandon Nominated—Many Other Names Filed—Jowa Is Well Represented.

(Continued From Page One.) whose son lies on French soil, asking if she is eligible for the contest. She most certainly is. If raising a son to lay his life on the altar of liberty is not a form of self-support, we do not know the meaning of the rules. By all means send in her name and give her the opportunity of forming one of The Good Will delegation.

Rules of the Contest.

- 1. Any woman or girl above the age of 18, partly or wholly self-supporting, resident of either Iowa or Nebraska of good moral character and acceptable educational standing, is eligible to enter.
2. All candidates must be nominated during the nominating period.
3. Nominating period opens Sunday, April 16, closes at noon, April 22.
4. Nominations to be made by written statement signifying the acceptance of the nominee and carrying at least two names of responsible persons who sponsor the candidate as acceptable under the rules of entry.
5. Nominating counts as 100 votes for the nominee.
6. Only one lot of 100 votes will be credited to any nominee under Rule 5.
7. Balloting begins April 27 and closes at noon, May 1.
8. One vote will be credited to a designated candidate for each 10 cents contributed toward the work of the American Committee for Inevitable France.
9. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes will be declared elected by the judges. Should more than one candidate be credited the same number of votes, the number of votes cast for the trip to France, the one receiving the greatest number of votes will be the official head of the delegation from this section.
10. Should the total of votes reach 100,000, two girls will be awarded the trip to France and for each 50,000 votes in addition to 10,000 an additional girl will be awarded the trip. These figures refer to the total number of votes cast for all candidates in the election and not to the votes of any one candidate.
11. The number of girls awarded the trip will be determined wholly on the total number of votes cast in the election.
12. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes will be regarded as standing in first position, the one receiving the next greatest number as standing in second position, and so on through the list. In case of a tie for any position each will be regarded as holding that position. Winners of trips will be determined according to the number of votes cast for each individually.
13. In case of inability of any winner to take the trip for physical or other reason, the girl holding the next position below her in the final tally of voting will be awarded her place.
14. All expenses of the elected delegates will be paid from their home towns.

Woman Dies; Mate Hurt in Accident

Car Smashed to Bits on West Center Road—Turns Over Three Times.

Mrs. C. C. Stevens, 29, 1722 1-2 Cuming street, was instantly killed Sunday morning when the car her husband was driving east on Center street left the road near Fifty-sixth street, hit a tree, skidded, and then turned over after breaking two telephone posts. The machine was broken to bits. Mrs. Stevens' legs and arms were broken and she was badly mangled. The car was traveling at high speed. Stevens was taken to Lord Lister hospital, where his life is feared for. Doctors said he possibly had internal injuries.

RADIO DEPARTMENT

Radio Booklets Aid to Amateurs

Principles of Wireless Should Be Learned First, Say Experts.

Radio has taken Omaha like it has taken every other city—by storm. All seem to be enthused over the game, but radio sets and equipment are hard to get. Dealers merely throw up their hands and say the orders must wait until the manufacturers put out more products. The demand exceeds the supply. No relief is expected for at least three months. Local dealers will take orders for sets and equipment but will make no promises on delivery—though their forte is: "First come, first served." With radio still an experimental factor in the middle west, the majority of those interested in the game will want instructive literature. Experts say the best results are obtained with the aid of instructive booklets. With that in view, the Radio editor of The Bee recommends that the amateur learn the principles of radio from "The A. B. C. of Radio," which can be purchased from dealers in radio or from newsstands. See Want Ads Are Business-Gettars.

You certainly realize the difference in Corn Flakes when you eat Kellogg's

From the instant you open the generous sized package till they're tucked away in great and tiny "bread-baskets," Kellogg's Corn Flakes are a delight! You can't even look at those big sunny-brown flakes, all joyously flavored, crisp and crunchy, without getting hungry! Kellogg's are never leathery or tough or hard to eat—they're just wonderful!

Such a spread for big and little boys and girls—the sweetheart of fine white corn kernels deliciously flavored and deliciously toasted in Kellogg's own way! You can't imagine anything more joyous to eat at any hour.

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are childhood's ideal food! Kiddies can eat as much as they can carry! Every mouthful makes for health, for sleepy-time-stomachs!

Don't just ask for "corn flakes"! You say KELLOGG'S—the original kind in the RED and GREEN package!

Also makers of KELLOGG'S KRUMBLE and KELLOGG'S BRAN, cooked and krumbled
