

Silver Jubilee Held in Honor of Omaha Priest

Bishop Characterizes Father Stenson as "Beacon Light of Parish" at Solemn High Mass.

"Ecce Sacerdos." "Behold the priest." Such was Omaha's tribute yesterday to Rev. James W. Stenson...

A procession of clergy and laymen, headed by a cross-bearer and acolytes, preceded the mass. A score of priests in cassocks and surplices followed.

As the procession entered the church, the choir sang: "Ecce Sacerdos." At the altar, Rev. James F. Borer was master of ceremonies...

Soloists in the choir were Mrs. Leo A. Hoffman, Miss Mary Maher, Miss Margaret Gentlemen and Messrs. Clinton Miller, Harry Burkley and Thomas Swift.

"Living Example of Grace." Eulogizing the labors of Father Stenson, Bishop McGovern said in his sermon:

"One and all pronounce you above reproach. For who shall tell of the spiritual life given, nourished and strengthened through your ministrations?"

A luncheon at the Hotel Fontenelle was given for Father Stenson following the services. Tables were set for 65.

Merger of Three of 'Big 5' Packers Reported, Denied

Negotiations Held for Combine of Armour & Co., Wilson & Co., and Cudahy & Co., Says Newspaper.

Chicago, April 18.—Flat denial that an amalgamation of the Armour, Cudahy and Wilson Packing companies is contemplated was made today by J. Ogden Armour...

Mr. Armour did not make a formal statement, but authorized a flat denial over his name.

Later today, however, a statement was issued at Wilson & Co., saying that Mr. Wilson, now in New York, had telegraphed authorization for a denial of the reported merger.

Consent of the interstate commerce commission would be necessary for the success of the proposed merger, it is said.

Persons who are credited with being familiar with the merger plans say no new financing is contemplated, the plan being that Armour & Co. exchange its securities for those of the other two companies.

List of Skinner Stockholders Is Filed With State

Two-Thirds of Investors in Packing Company Were Nebraskans, According to Report.

Lincoln, April 18.—(Special.)—More than two-thirds of all of the stock issued and sold by the Skinner Packing company of Omaha was owned in the state of Nebraska, a list of the company's stockholders, containing about 2,500 names, filed with the state tax commissioner.

The total shares owned in this state is estimated at $5,200,000 by Deputy State Tax Commissioner Scott, of which all but $120,000 is of the preferred series.

Omaha and Lincoln people did not invest heavily in the stock the report reveals. Trustees for the Mylander heirs at North Platte hold 450 shares, the largest single block of preferred stock owned in Nebraska.

Consent of the interstate commerce commission would be necessary for the success of the proposed merger, it is said.

Persons who are credited with being familiar with the merger plans say no new financing is contemplated, the plan being that Armour & Co. exchange its securities for those of the other two companies.

Little Navy Men Fighting Hard: Debate Spirited

Graduating Class at Annapolis Reduced—Mondell and Kelley Issues Cry of "Cowards."

By GRAFTON WILCOX. Omaha Bee Special Writer. Washington, April 18.—After a three-days' breathing spell, the little navy forces in the house came back today fighting hard. They succeeded in bringing about acceptance of the section of the naval bill providing for drastic curtailment of the 1922 graduating class at the Annapolis naval academy.

Under the terms of the section, only 200 of the graduating class of 541 to be commissioned, although the government has spent approximately $18,000 to educate each midshipman. An amendment offered by Representative McClintock (Oklahoma) to knock out the section was defeated, 95 to 22.

Big Navy Attacked. Spirited debate broke out when Representative Kelley, Michigan, in charge of the naval bill, and Representative Mondell, Wyoming, republican leader, challenged the big navy faction to come forward with supplementary amendments to boost various items in the bill to conform to the increased personnel provided in the amendment adopted Saturday increasing the enlisted strength to 85,000. The committee, in drafting the bill, based all appropriations on enlisted strength of 67,000 men, and Kelley and Mondell insisted that figures all through the bill would have to be increased to take care of the needs of the increase forced by the administration forces.

Lineman Alive After Shocked by 11,000 Volts. Oakland, Cal., April 18.—Albert Stattengren, 29, a lineman, was alive today after receiving a shock of 11,000 volts of electricity yesterday while making wire repairs on top of a pole in West Oakland.

Firemen and policemen united to rescue Stattengren. Although it probably would have meant death to the electrician's body as it dangled stiff from a live wire, firemen put a rope around it and lowered the suffering man. His legs were burnt nearly off.

Stattengren was rushed to a hospital and placed on a bed of oil-soaked cotton.

Cole Conducting Own Defense at His Trial

A curious turn of Cole's mind was revealed when he was cross-examined by a state witness. The defendant seemed moved when McGucken answered his question as to his occupation.

Cut Short by Judge. "Common labor. I'm a laboring man." "The defendant takes pleasure in talking to a witness who is a laboring man, who actually works for his money," he said.

The judge cut short further remarks by telling him to proceed with the examination. "Sergeant Otto Lickert, who won his promotion by capturing Cole, recounted the story of his pursuit until he finally 'put the gun on him and told him to throw up his hands.' 'You don't mean you really stuck the gun against my body,' said Cole on cross-examination.

"Oh, no, I was 12 feet from you," said Lickert. "And I seemed glad to have your protection from my pursuers, didn't I?" added Cole.

Though the state has 20 more witnesses, it is likely it will finish this afternoon and Cole then may go to the witness stand.

So far as known by the state he has no witnesses but himself. It's doubtful, though, who feels the worse, the Widow Zander or the creditors.
