

Omaha Church Janitor Is Held as Bootlegger

Lincoln Woman Pleads Guilty to Staging Party With Contraband Booz—Hyers Misses Trip.

Lincoln, Neb., April 19.—(Special Telegram.)—State Sheriff Gus Hyers is going to visit Omaha if Omaha law violators will cease occupying his time in Lincoln.

Gus has just filled the gasoline tank of his auto preparatory to driving to Omaha in company with Deputy United States Marshal Thomas Carroll and Federal Prohibition Enforcement Officer Robert Anderson. They were leisurely driving down a principal street here when Anderson casually remarked: "There's an Omaha bootlegger."

There was a squeak of brakes and the three officers surrounded the car and emerged triumphant with 15 quarts of whiskey and two prisoners. They gave their names as Aaron Marsh, 3917 North Twenty-first street, and Howard Maltby, janitor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, Omaha.

Bessie Graham, 1035 J street, Lincoln, who was arrested later, pleaded guilty to staging a party with the two men and drinking of their stores and paid a fine of $100.

According to Sheriff Hyers, the two men confessed hauling liquor to Beatrice.

Judgment Against Omaha Dismissed by High Court

Lincoln, April 19.—(Special.)—The Nebraska supreme court overturned today a joint judgment running against the city of Omaha and Ernest Moschel for $6,800, obtained by Sarah Johnson, widow of Morris Johnson.

The high court dismissed the case as to the city on the municipality's appeal from Douglas county.

Johnson was killed when his automobile was bumped by Moschel's car and thrown into the path of an oncoming fire truck, the accident occurring at Eighteenth and Cass streets.

The high court, in dismissing the suit against the city, said that the driver of the fire truck was using reasonable precaution in driving.

Prince Hirohito Sees First Show in Tokio

Tokio, April 19.—The prince of Wales, accompanied by Prince Regent Hirohito and seven other imperial princes and princesses, attended a reception at the Imperial theater here Monday night, thus helping to break down one more old barrier between the imperial house and the people. The regent never before attended a theatrical performance in Tokio, and Monday night his seat was not barred off from the rest of the audience, while the princes and princesses blood mixed with the general audience, all unprecedented. The prince of Wales' visit is certain to leave the imperial Japanese court life hastening to democratization.

The prince leaves tomorrow, his trip including places off the tourist track.

Hoffmeister Mentioned for Congress in Fifth

Broken Bow, Neb., April 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Fred Hoffmeister of Imperial, a member of the state road investigation committee, may be a candidate for congress in the Fifth district.

When the committee traveled through that district Tuesday there was much talk of Hoffmeister for congress, and he admitted he was giving the proposition consideration. Hoffmeister has been a member of the legislature for 10 years and has lived in the Imperial valley for 30 years. He practiced medicine there until a few years ago, when he bought a ranch and began raising hogs and cattle.

Hoffmeister is a democrat.

Where, oh where, is there solace for a broken heart? If you know, wire Uncle Bim Gump, P. D. Q. collect.

Restaurant Man Shot in Row With Employee

Grand Island, Neb., April 19.—(Special Telegram.)—R. W. Kellogg, in charge of the Union Pacific yard restaurant, was shot in the right thigh when an altercation arose between him and a recently hired night employe. The argument is said to have started over reports that customers had been given meals free while the new attendant was on duty.

The men, according to reports, engaged in a knife duel, while Mrs. Kellogg is said to have obtained a revolver from their boarding car. In the tussle that ensued, it is stated, the gun, while still in the hands of the woman, was discharged.

Kellogg is in the hospital. The other man is said to have left for Omaha shortly after the shooting.

Complete Hotel Lease.

Beatrice, Neb., April 19.—(Special Telegram.)—At a conference of the directors of the Beatrice Hotel company and E. L. May of the May Hotel company, all arrangements for the lease of the new $300,000 hotel by the May company as operators were made. Actual work on the structure will begin in about 60 days.

14,000 Acre Interest in Alliance Ranch Sold

Alliance, Neb., April 19.—(Special.)—One of the largest real estate exchanges of the year here was recorded when Herman J. Krause purchased the remaining one-half interest of the estate of himself and his brother, John H. Krause, deceased, at public sale. The Krause ranch, of which Herman J. Krause is now sole owner, consists of approximately 28,000 acres, located 20 miles north-east of Alliance. The price paid for the 14,000 acres belonging to the interest of John H. Krause was $4 an acre. The Krause ranch is one of the largest in western Nebraska.
