

Kiwanis Club Stages Pre-Volstead Comedy

Omaha Kiwanians were given a glimpse of early history of the Kiwanis club at their noonday luncheon in the Hotel Rome yesterday.

through a playlet entitled "The First Kiwanian." The Indian village of "Ohoondryan" was the setting. Chief Rinnahoot and his daughter Jintia, who failed to appear, were leading characters. Havunother and Skotchibah, elders of the tribe, also played important parts, as did Proskripshun, the medicine man.

Action took place in 1888, when an "honest" trader arrived at the village, introduced noonday lunches and municipal ownership, and organized the first Kiwanis club. Data on the Kiwanis convention in Toronto June 20 to 22 was furnished members.

Robber Seeks Liberty Here on Technicality

Fred Sledge, in the county jail serving a sentence of one to seven years for robbery, through his attorney instituted habeas corpus proceedings yesterday to gain his freedom on the ground that his sentence is void because the state law provides that a prisoner must be taken to the state penitentiary to serve out his term within 30 days after being sentenced.

If District Judge Leslie upholds the contention of Sledge's attorney, 25 other prisoners here may be liberated. A hearing on the writ will be held next Monday.

"Sledge requested that he be permitted to remain in the county jail because his wife desired to visit him," said Deputy County Attorney Henry Beal.
