Ovington-Klein.
In St. Peter's church on Tuesday morning occurred the marriage of Miss Josephine Klein and Mr. J. Sherwood Ovington, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Steyer.
The bride was becomingly gowned in white tulle with orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Anna Gallagher, as bridesmaid, wore pink, with hat to match, and carried Columbia roses.
John Seidler served the groom as best man.
Proceeding the ceremony and during the nuptial mass Mrs. George Klein sang.
Mr. and Mrs. Ovington have gone on an eastern honeymoon and upon their return will reside in this city.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Over announce the marriage of their daughter, Beatrice, and Mr. Carl I. Anderson of Omaha.

Mrs. Stewart Entertains.
Mrs. Charles Test Stewart invited about two dozen guests to her home Saturday for a buffet luncheon.

The affair was planned complimentary to her daughter, Mrs. Donald McFerron, of Hoopeson, Ill., who, with her daughter, Marie, is visiting in the city.

Miss Hess Has Prominent Part.
Miss Gretchen Hess of this city will have a leading role in the Junior League play which is to be given in Omaha next Friday and Saturday.

She and Ray Millard have a specialty dance together and she has also been chosen for several other dances and choruses.

Last year Miss Hess and her sister, Geraldine, who is now Mrs. Douglas Peters, scored big hits in their clever work in the Junior League revue.

Mrs. Chester Dudley, who has been suffering from a sprained ankle, has now recovered and she, too, will appear in the League show this week.

For Chicago Visitors.
Miss Anna Newell and Mrs. John Shaw Brooksmit of Chicago are two charming visitors in the city who have been honored during the last week at several delightful functions.

Miss Newell, who is en route from a sojourn in Chicago, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Melthrop, jr., and Mrs. Brooksmit is spending a fortnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Stillman.

Monday night the Melthops gave a dinner for their guest and the following evening Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Douglas entertained for Mrs. Brooksmit.

Wednesday evening these visitors shared honors at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickham.

Thursday Mrs. Leonard Everett was hostess at a luncheon of 12 covers for Miss Newell and on the same day Mrs. William Coppock had 21 guests at a buffet luncheon for Mrs. Brooksmit.

Mrs. Coppock's decorations were pink snap dragons and she was assisted by Mesdames Angeline Brinsmaid, Eldon Lougee, W. S. Stillman and W. L. Douglas.

Later in the afternoon Mrs. Brinsmaid entertained for both of these popular visitors at a very beautiful tea.

Miss Newell was complimented on Friday at a small luncheon given by Mrs. Ernest Elred Hart.

Bridge Luncheons.
Quantities of pink sweet peas were used with most charming effect by Mrs. Frank Garrett and Mrs. Fred Hurd at a luncheon followed by bridge which was given Wednesday at the Garrett home.

Thirty-six guests were present and prizes at the game were awarded Mrs. Brookmit of Chicago and Mrs. Dillon Ross.
The same color scheme was carried out at the party on Thursday when covers were again arranged for 36.

At the latter affair Mrs. Lyman Shugart had high score and Mrs. C. I. Palm was second.

Visitor Honored

Mrs. Harvey C. Bennett of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Spooner, of Glen avenue.

Since her arrival in the city she has been honor guest at several delightful affairs, and other parties are planned for the near future.

Mrs. Bennett will return to California about June 1.

Returns from East.
Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen returned last Monday from a stay of nearly five weeks in the east.

Mrs. Schoentgen is vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and was present in Washington, D. C., at the recent convention of this organization.

She also visited during the spring vacation with her son, John, who is a student at Williams college, Williamstown, Mass., and en route home spent a couple of days with her daughter, Miss Jane, who attends St. Catherine's in Davenport.

While in Washington Mrs. Schoentgen was entertained at luncheon by Miss Caroline Dodge, formerly of Council Bluffs until a few years ago, and Mrs. Edgar Scott, whose former home was Omaha.

Two other enjoyable affairs, which Mrs. Schoentgen attended, where only Iowa women were present, was a luncheon given by the Misses Cummings, sisters of Senator Cummings, and one at which Mrs. James Wallace, wife of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, was hostess.

Afternoon Bridge.
Ten tables were placed for bridge on Friday at a delightful party given by Mrs. George Spooner complimentary to her daughter, Mrs. Harvey C. Bennett, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. George Spooner, who recently moved here from Des Moines.

Both of the honor guests were former Council Bluffs girls whose marriages took them away from the city. Mrs. Bennett was Miss Lucy Spooner and is spending the month of May with her parents on Glen avenue.

Before her marriage Mrs. George Spooner was Miss Gertrude Tinley and has only recently returned here to permanently reside.

Out-of-Town Visitors Entertained.
Mrs. H. M. Pulcher of Chicago and Mrs. Eugene Glass of Battle Creek, Mich., both of whom are visiting in the city, were guests of honor Monday at a luncheon of 12 covers given by Mrs. Dillon Ross, who used a color scheme of pink in her table decorations.

Tuesday Mrs. H. B. Jennings invited a dozen friends to luncheon for these out-of-town visitors who on Wednesday were luncheon guests of Miss Mary DeVol.

Snap dragons were used by this hostess as a centerpiece for the dining table, which was arranged for eight.

Mrs. Glass will leave for her home on Monday, but Mrs. Pulcher plans to continue her visit until the middle of the week.

For Mrs. Bennett.
Mrs. Hester Moon entertained informally at luncheon on Saturday to compliment Mrs. Harvey C. Bennett of Los Angeles.

Tea.
The members of Queen Esthers Guild of the First Presbyterian church will give a tea in the church parlors next Friday from 3 until 5, when about 100 guests are expected.

Dance.
Sixty-five couples attended a dance.

ADVERTISMENT.
FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength.

This preparation for the treatment of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

ing party given last Monday evening in the Eagles hall by Dr. and Mrs. M. E. O'Keefe and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Hollingsworth.

Informal Luncheon.
Six guests lunched informally on Wednesday with Mrs. Lucius Pryor at her home on Fairview avenue.

Personal.
W. J. Heiser is out of the city on a business trip.

Reed Flickinger returned early in the week from a short stay in Chicago.

Mrs. Harry Abbott of Chicago is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lougee have as their guest, Mrs. F. E. Cox, formerly of this city, but now of Bay City, Mich.

Miss Inez Perego underwent an operation on her nose last week and is now convalescing at her home on South Sixth street.

Mrs. B. O. Brington left Thursday evening to visit her daughter, Elizabeth, who is a student at DePaul university at Greencastle, Ind.

Mrs. Mariel Mann leaves tonight for Davenport, Ia., and will be at St. Catherine's school there until after the graduation exercises in June.

Judge and Mrs. J. R. Reed, who recently sold their home on McPherson avenue, last week purchased the L. C. Besley property on East Broadway and plan to move in the very near future.

Charm of Motherhood

THERE are many homes once childless that now are blessed with healthy, happy children, because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored the mother to a healthy, normal physical condition.

The following letters give the experience of two young women and prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I have taken your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—when I was a girl for pains, and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy, and will send you his picture. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born."—Mrs. W. JOHNSON, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

Kutztown, Pa.—"I wish every woman who wants children would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done so much for me. My baby is almost a year old now and is the picture of health. She walked at eleven months and is trying to use her little tongue. She can say some words real nice. I am sending you her picture. I shall be thankful as long as I live that I found such a wonderful medicine for my troubles."—Mrs. CHARLES A. MERTZ, Kutztown, Pa.
