

Taxicab Driver Is Charged With Murder of Fare

Fremont Man Dies of Fractured Skull After Being Taken to Police Station by Chauffeur.

O. D. Fairman of Fremont, Neb., who was taken unconscious to the Council Bluffs police station Wednesday night by Clyde Elending, taxi driver, died Friday night in Mercy hospital from a fractured skull.

Elending is held in $2,000 bail. Frank Northrup, deputy county attorney, yesterday morning filed information against him charging murder in the first degree.

Fairman never regained consciousness before he died. According to police, the taxi driver told them he had had an altercation with Fairman over the fare and had slapped him. But he denied hitting him hard enough to fracture the skull or knock him down. Fairman was intoxicated at the time, he alleged. Fairman's skull was cracked between the eyes.

Mother Takes Hand in Elopement Tangle

A new move in the marital difficulties of Carl E. Dimond, Nebraska university student, and Lolita Elizabeth Youngman Dimond, pretty Central High school student, who eloped to Papillion July 21, 1921, was made yesterday when Mrs. Zaida J. Dimond, Carl's mother, filed a petition of intervention seeking to bring about annulment of the marriage.

A few weeks ago the girl brought suit for divorce against Dimond, alleging that he had written her from Lincoln that he wanted to have nothing more to do with her.

Mrs. Zaida Dimond in her petition for annulment declares she tried to prevent the marriage. She says Carl and Lolita began to go together when they were high school students, Carl, 19, and Lolita, 18.

Traveling Man Found at Lincoln With Throat Cut

Lincoln, May 6.—(Special.)—W. D. Harold, 45, St. Joseph, Mo., traveling man, was found in a serious condition at the state fair grounds yesterday, with both wrists and his throat slashed. Harold is supposed by police to have inflicted the wounds on himself.

According to friends, Harold had been suffering a nervous breakdown, as a result of fear that an effort was being made to take his 14-year-old daughter, Tylen, from him. Mrs. Harold died about three years ago. City Physician Slattery said Harold probably would recover.

Perjury Charged; New Damage Suit Trial Is Granted

Affidavit Alleges Plaintiff's Injury Not Due to Tram Car Accident, But Wrestling Match.

"I'd like to have this fellow appear before me some day on some charge," said District Judge Goss yesterday. "I won't say what I might do to him, at this time." But—

He referred to John Karras, alias Steve Chrlka, alias Sam Stalks, who, on February 1 was given a judgment by a jury in Judge Goss' court for $940.50 for damages alleged to have been suffered by him when the doors of a street car closed on his elbow in 1919. Karras sued the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company for $5,000.

Judge Goss yesterday granted a motion for a new trial filed by Herbert Connell, attorney for the tram company, alleging perjury.

With his motion, Connell filed an affidavit sworn by L. Pollos alleging Karras was not injured by a street car, but that his elbow was injured during a wrestling match at St. Joseph, Mo., in 1916.

On this same injury, Pollos' affidavit states, Karras secured $1,000

Highlander Suit Is Argued in High Court

Lincoln, May 6.—Arguments began yesterday in the supreme court in the case wherein two policy holders in the Royal Highlanders fraternal order seek to enforce the payment of what they assert is the remainder due upon what are known as pioneer certificates. Officers of the Highlanders take the position that the fate of the organization is at stake, and that to pay the certificates will bring about a situation in the order that might mean forcing it out of business.

In the early life of the organization it issued a number of these pioneer certificates to first members. By their provisions, it is alleged, the policy-holder who remained in the order for the 20 years and had attained the age of 50 years was to receive the face of his policy in 10 annual installments. Three of these installments, it is asserted, were paid, but the Highlanders then declined to make any further payments, the plaintiffs in the suit assert.

Semenoff Planning Russian Revolution

San Francisco, May 6.—Count Vladimir Baronoff, accredited representative of the Cossack leader, Ataman Semenoff, in a statement published in the San Francisco Examiner today, outlined what he termed "the real purpose of Semenoff's mission to the United States and Europe."

Overthrow of the bolshevik government in Russia and the restoration of a constitutional monarchy under a relative of the murdered czar, he said, was being planned in San Francisco and other cities of the United States and Europe. He added that conferences of Russian political leaders are expected to take place in San Francisco and Washington within the next month.

"Wonder Girl" Advertises for Return of Lost Watch

Miss Eugene Dennis, Atchison "wonder girl" who aided Omahans in locating lost articles and relatives during a visit here under observation of David Abbott, psychoanalyst, lost her wrist watch while on a shopping tour in Kansas City, according to the Kansas City Star, and promptly inserted a want ad in the Star. The next morning a woman called her by telephone, described the watch, returned it and received a reward.

"Somehow I can't seem to find things for myself like I can for others," the girl is quoted as saying.

Pretty Divorcee Fined for Fake Revenue Stamps

Katherine Warner, Arrested in Booze Raid, Pleads Guilty and Skips Out of Court.

Dashing Katherine Warner, 24, slipped into federal court, just before noon yesterday, accompanied by an attorney, pleaded guilty to an indictment charging her with possession of forged internal revenue stamps, away with a little dance step down the corridor, one hand on the arm of the attorney.

The indictment was returned with a large number of others Friday.

The beautiful divorcee wore a superbly tailored blue suit, grey gloves, black silk stockings, black slippers and a large veil drooped from her hat.

She gained prominence in Omaha last January when she was arrested in a house in Benson Acres by Police Sergeant Williams and charged with possession of liquor. The stamps also were found there.

She gave the name of Katherine Warner. Later it was learned she is the former wife of Frank E. Timponi, orchestra conductor in the Illi-

Creighton High Youths Will Get Sound Thrashing

Two Creighton High school students, 15, each have a good, sound thrashing coming within the week. They have asked for it and it has been promised to them. The boys who are to receive severe corporal punishment are William Gillin, 3023 California street, and Joseph Nalty, 2215 Webster. William's father, John J. Gillin, will chastise him, while Walter's mother and older brother have promised that he will get his.

The lads, charged with joy riding with Ray Amarine in cars which the latter had taken without the formality of getting the owner's permission, were before Judge W. G. Sears in juvenile court today.

The judge gave the boys a stiff lecture and then agreed to drop the case providing that they would ask their father to give them a thrashing and the fathers would consent to administer the punishment. Mr. Gillin was in court.

"I have already given him a thrashing," he said, "but I will give him another one."

Young Nalty turned to his mother. "How about me?" he asked. "You will get yours," he was assured.

Four Drake Students Suspended From School

Dea Moines, Ia., May 6.—Four men, students of Drake university, were suspended, and the suspension of a dozen others is hanging fire, pending an official investigation of the hanging in effigy of D. W. Morehouse, dean of men, and the early morning invasion of a sorority house which was climaxed by an underwear party.

The effigy of Dean Morehouse was found hanging from a limb of Chancellor Elm, on the university campus, this morning. Dean Morehouse himself climbed the tree and cut it down.

The "hanging" followed an investigation by Dean Morehouse of the activities of a group of students a week ago, when they invaded the Alpha Chi Omega sorority house to arouse the coeds to take part in the campus day celebration. Finding the girls yet in bed, the students are said to have tied knots in their clothing.

University officials, while declining to discuss details of the affair, say the matter is very regrettable and that the students responsible will be seriously dealt with.

And dollies peep out of those wee little dreams
With laughter and singing;
And boats go floating on silvery streams,
And the stars peek-a-boo with their own misty gleams,
And up, up, and up, where the Mother Moon beams,
The fairies go winging!"
