

The old spirit still obtains in Germany. A new brigade of marines, being broken, is here shown passing in review before commanding officers. The new German flag is flown. Copyright, Kadel & Herbert

One of the prettiest of the young women in the cast of De Wolf Hopper's new production at the Jolson Theater NEW YORK.

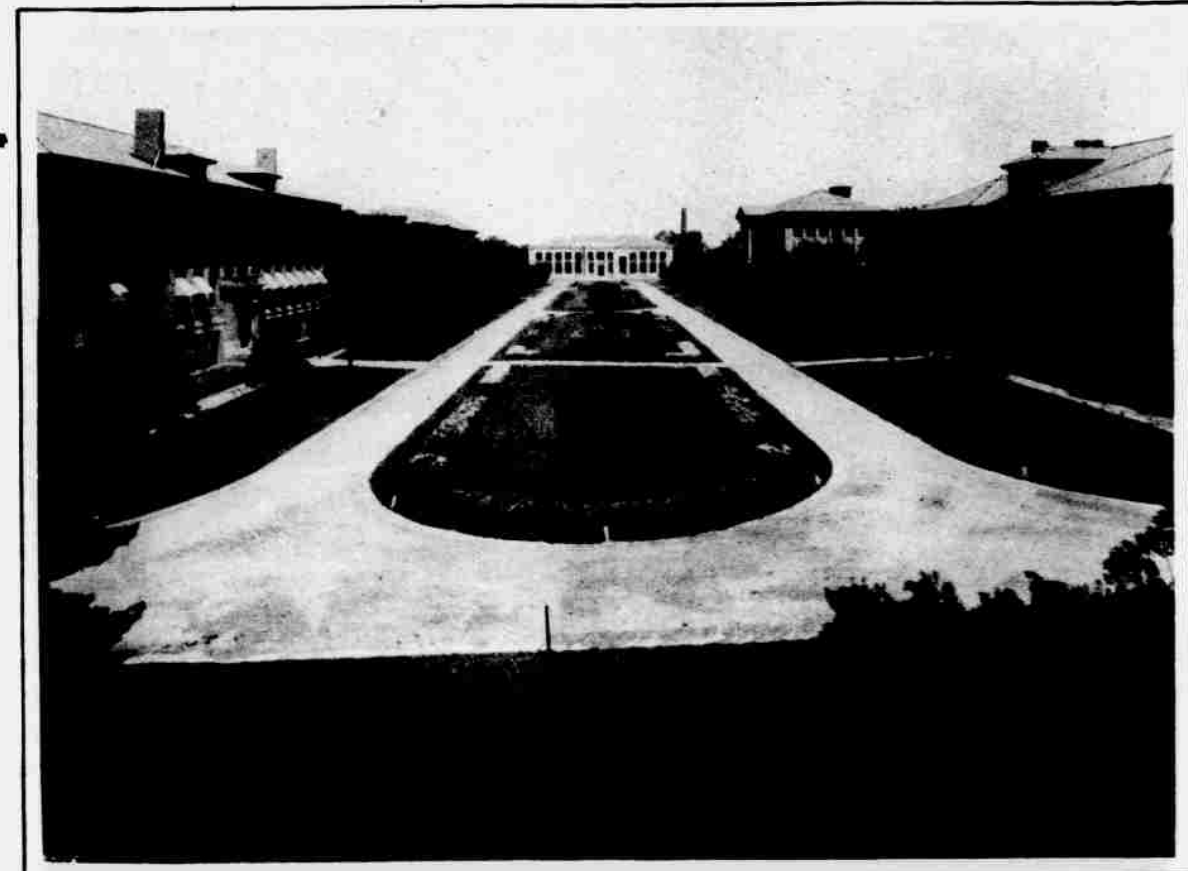

An interesting man who is important to farmers and horticulturists, yet little known—Dr. David Fairchild, in charge of Foreign Seeds and Plants Bureau for the Government. P. & A.

A charming painting of Mrs. Wellington Koo, the petite wife of the Chinese Minister. The artist was Miss Leonebel Jacobs.

Above—An extraordinary "catch"—a 700 pound shark caught by a Seattle policeman in Seattle harbor—the largest one man catch on record. Keystone.

This main driveway, flanked by buildings of the agricultural college, University of Nebraska, was thronged yesterday with visitors to the annual "Farmers' Fair." Special exhibits and demonstrations and a "wild west show" formed part of the entertainment program that attracted hundreds of sightseers to the college campus. The photo shows the agricultural hall in the left foreground. The agricultural engineering building is at the end of the drive.

At the left, Mr. Dresel, the American Charge d'Affaires at Berlin, and, at right, James R. Barbour, representative of a great American financial corporation in Berlin

A new photograph of Major Gen. Mason, who is Chief of the Air Service of the United States Army. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.