

Russia to Reject Allied Demands, Says Tchitcherin

But Reply Will Be Conciliatory, Not Intended to Break Off Negotiations.

Genoa, May 6.—(By A. P.)—Russia's reply to the allied memorandum, expected to be ready Sunday or Monday, will be a distinctly conciliatory document, not intended to break off negotiations, Foreign Minister Tchitcherin said today. It will, however, be declared, firmly state Russia's inability to comply with the terms offered.

The chief stumbling block, it was indicated, was the clause relating to the treatment of foreign property nationalized by the soviet government. Russia regards the provisions of that clause as a distinct attempt to infringe its sovereignty and will not accept the plan for a mixed tribunal, which M. Tchitcherin said would mean the establishment of a "flock of little reparations commissions" to interfere with Russia's internal affairs.

Reuters' correspondent here says today: "The final Russian decision is not expected before Monday or Tuesday. Meanwhile it is rumored that Prime Minister Lloyd George's train is ready and that, failing a favorable change in the situation as the result of M. Barthou's return, Mr. Lloyd George will return to London forthwith."

The most critical stage of the conference was reached today, arising through the differences in the ranks of the allied delegates over the memorandum to Russia and the attitude of the Russians themselves, it was declared this afternoon by an official Italian spokesman.

"This crisis," he said, "is more grave than the one the conference sustained after the signing of the Russo-German treaty on Easter Sunday."

The Russians ask billions and billions of gold francs, and they do not ask them in the form of credits with which they can buy goods, but in cash-in-gold.

Belgians Reinforced.

Brussels, May 6.—(By A. P.)—Belgian forces in Germany are being reinforced. Two thousand men, their staff officers and 1,100 horses are to leave for the occupied area today and Monday. The measure is due to the recent series of frequent aggressions in which Belgian soldiers have been victims. The latest of these affairs occurred at Homberg, near Essen, on Thursday, when two German civilians wounded Belgian lieutenant Bronne with revolvers.

London, May 6.—The Times says that the Shell group of British oil companies has assured the British government it will not be a party to any arrangement which will prejudice other oil interests in Russia. This follows reports that the Shell group has signed an agreement with the exploitation of the soviet oil fields.

Wife of Council Bluffs

Solon Dies at Washington

Washington, May 5.—(Special.)—Mrs. Louella Green of Council Bluffs, wife of representative W. R. Green, died this morning at 7 at Garfield hospital. She had been critically ill for several months. Burial will be in Rock Creek cemetery here.

Mrs. Green, who was Louella Washington Brown, was born at Bannerston, Ky., February 22, 1861, the daughter of Rev. Artemus and Margaret Brown. The family moved to Iowa in 1864, where her father, as a Methodist minister, became widely known for his wit and homely humor. She and Mr. Green were married at Charlton, Ia., in 1887. They resided at Audubon, Ia., for many years and changed their residence to Council Bluffs in 1915.

Mrs. Green is survived by a son, William R. Green, jr., Buhl, Idaho; a daughter, Mrs. Courtney Campbell of New York; a sister and three brothers.

Judge W. F. Wappich told Humphrey Lynch, 1007 South Twentieth street, in Central police court Saturday that he had discovered the panacea for all his ills.

"The best prescription is 'Cut out bootleg whisky,'" the judge said after Lynch told him a fine of $10 for drunkenness was an injustice to a sick man.

Lynch is a brother to John Lynch, former county commissioner and political feudist.

Cars Run, Factories Hum in Tiny Town

All the bustle and bustle of life in a river manufacturing town is shown in detail in a mechanical miniature city, run by electricity, which will be one of the new attractions at Krug park this summer.

Steamboats move up and down the river with whistles blowing, business men and women and factory workers scurry about the streets, factories and sawmills are seen in operation, and trains, street cars and automobiles fit here and there.

When in operation the miniature city it said to portray correctly life in the little city of Winona, Minn., home city of Alvin Frank, manufacturing jeweler, who made the model city.

It took Frank 12 years to complete the miniature.

Visits of Royalty Worry French Secret Service

Operatives Familiar With Anarchists and Revolutionists Trail King Alexander, Who Is Now in Paris—Queen Marie of Roumania Always Has Small Dagger for Protection.

By The Associated Press.

Paris, May 6.—Royal visits mean anxious hours for the Paris police, who have not forgotten that once King Alfonso's carriage was destroyed by a bomb here, although he escaped injury. Unusual measures, therefore, have been taken to protect King Alexander of Yugo-Slavia, who is in Paris.

Although the French government feels that Alexander is reasonably safe with his own bodyguards, it is taking no chances of anything happening to him. A squad of secret service operatives, all familiar with the anarchists and revolutionists who make Paris their headquarters, trail the king.

One effect of the presence of these guards is the nullification of the king's attempt to preserve his incognito, as the number in his party arouses curiosity and subsequent identification by the crowds. The only European sovereigns who insist on going about Paris unprotected are King Albert of the Belgians, who, dressed as an ordinary civilian, mingles with the crowds on the boulevards, and the shah of Persia, who usually travels alone or with a single companion. But even in these cases the French government assigns detectives to keep a vigilant eye on the visitors.

King Constantine of Greece has not been in Paris for some years, but always carries a big arm revolver in his hip pocket.

Among the queens, Victoria of Spain thrilled Paris by going to her brother's funeral in England with only a maid as an attendant. Queen Marie of Roumania moves about with the utmost freedom, her sole protection for being her favorite lady in waiting, but a little dagger is always at her waist, ready for an emergency.

"I wear this mostly for an ornament," the queen explains, "but it has a certain utility, too, though I hope I shall never have to use it."

Revive Grandmother Styles.

A renaissance of grandmother styles has taken place and ideas long laughed at by rising generations have been given full recognition by the leading Paris dressmakers.

Beginning with the old-fashioned vests which grandma considered essential to warmth and health, and dressing right down to shawls, the dressmakers have taken these old ideas and developed them into the smartest and incidentally the most expensive elements of dress for spring and summer.

Quilted vests, however, are no longer just quilted vests. They have become "cloakly silk short coats," for the Bois de Boulogne and the races. They are considered the latest thing and the price range from $50 to $100. Black quilted silk with cherry red lining is the color combination which has most frequently appeared at the races, while another favorite is white and brown.

They are loose-fitting and fall about 18 inches below the waist, being held in at the hips with colored belts. The old-time shawl of grandmother's day now appears as a luxurious embroidered affair which the dressmakers say will be worn with evening gowns. Period dresses of the cireoline type have already been announced to the fashion world, and now lace—also of the kind grandmother wore—is to be used as trimming.

Duchess lace is on display in all of the best shops and fans of this material are regarded as very smart. Further touches of grandmother are found in cashmere, which is one of the most fashionable materials for dresses and in the strings of amber beads, which have driven jade into second place.

So far silk and linen stockings continue to be worn, but one dressmaker predicts that a modernized version of the old cotton stocking will soon take its place in the "back to grandmother movement."

Suzanne Lenglen in Rumors

Suzanne Lenglen of France and Manuel Alonso of Spain, who are to play together in the mixed doubles at the international hard court tennis championships in Brussels May 13-21, will continue in the mixed doubles of the more serious game of life, if a report current in French circles in the last two weeks is confirmed.

Their engagement was announced during the St. Cloud championship last year, when Suzanne's father decided the report, saying his daughter was too young to think of marriage. The young couple were much together at that time and the coaching and encouragement the girl star gave the Spaniard in the terrific match he finally lost to the late William Laurentz somewhat offended the feelings of French tennis enthusiasts, who thought she might have favored her compatriot or at least remained neutral.

Community Services at the First Baptist Church

The Sunday evening services at the First Baptist church are of a community nature and many who are not members of that church or any local congregation attend. Tomorrow night the pastor, Dr. A. A. DeLorme, will speak on "Wrong Ideas of Liberty," with a prelude on a year of crimes and lawlessness in Omaha.

A program of music, under the direction of Henry W. Thornton, always precedes these discourses. Sunday night the quartet composed of Miss Ethel Woodbridge, Miss Margaret Spalding and Messrs. Walter Dale and Carl Smith, will sing Mendelssohn's "How Lovely Are the Messengers" and a full chorus of 25 voices will sing Roberts' "Seek Ye the Lord," by the organ voluntary, "Memories," by St. Clair.

Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet at Clifton Hill

The Clifton Hill church will hold a mothers' and daughters' banquet in the church parlors next Friday at 6:30 p. m. The program will be as follows:

Hendon, toastmaster; Selections, Clifton Hill orchestra; address, Mrs. Ada Anderson; saxophone solo, Mrs. Bess Watson; mothers' address, Mrs. Myrtle Hicks; daughters' response, Miss Grace Jardine; community singing, led by Miss Gene Swanson; recitation, Miss Gladys Byder; recitation, Miss Janus Johnson; duet, Miss Ruth Goerns and Miss Rosa Watson; reading, Miss Beth Ellington; selections, Clifton Hill orchestra.

Floods in Southeast Texas.

Houston, Tex., May 6.—Many towns of south and southeast Texas are inundated, bridges are being washed away, railroad traffic is paralyzed and property loss will reach into millions of dollars because of continued rains which have sent rivers and creeks out of their banks, according to reports reaching here last night.

Greatest damage is reported in the basins of the Colorado, Brazos and Trinity rivers.

New Orleans, La., May 6.—Flood waters from the break in the levee at Poydras, 12 miles south of here, approached New Orleans today, having reached the swamps near Chalmette National cemetery. Levee board officials, however, expressed assurance that the city was in no danger, declaring that if necessary the flood waters could easily be diverted into Lake Ponchartrain.

Senate Bonus Plan Given to Harding

President Withholds Decision on Legislation While He Studies Proposals.

Washington, D. C., May 6.—President Harding after a conference today with senate finance committee republicans, withheld decision on the soldiers' bonus legislation until he can study the various plans proposed.

The McCumber soldiers' bonus plan was presented to President Harding today by senate republican leaders who included Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Chairman McCumber, and Senators Curtis of Kansas, and Watson of Indiana, members of the finance committee.

The measure presented to the president is similar to that passed by the house, except that the so-called reclamation option has been eliminated. Provision would be made for loans to veterans on adjusted service certificates, advances to be made in the first three years by banks and thereafter by the government.

Senator Smead of Utah, ranking republican on the finance committee, plans to present later a different bonus proposal to the president. The chief feature of his plan is a 20-year endowment life insurance policy for veterans, with no specific provision for loans.

Program of United States Shipping Board Completed

The Western World, one of the board's 535-foot vessels, was built by the shipbuilding corporation, Ltd., at Sparrows Point, Md., and on Wednesday will formally be turned over to the shipping board. The vessel recently was allocated to the Munson line for its South American service.

Acute Pains Disappear as If by Magic. In the Form of Nuralidum It Is Now Caught in Sugar

It is only within a few months that the Nuralidum tablets have been prepared for general use by the Nuralidum Co. of Chicago, but reports are coming from all over the U. S. and many foreign countries that verify the recent statement of a noted scientist. "The rays caught in sugar," he said, "taken internally seem to work miracles, acute pains disappear as if by magic, their effect on the human system is startling, the invalidism characteristic of old age vanishes, aged appetites become keen again, and red corpuscles have increased by 250,000 in forty-eight hours. These tablets are a wonderful tonic and blood remedy and their possibilities are still undreamed of."

Nuralidum seems to energize the entire system with new, life-giving force. It revives glandular activities, stimulates the functions of elimination, increases the weight, stays the hand of time by preventing hardening of the arteries and as a tonic to drive out and remove the cause of disease and thus make sick people well a veritable fairyland of science stands revealed.

These wonderful Nuralidum tablets are on sale at $1.50 per vial, by Green's Pharmacy, Haines Drug Co., Sherman & McConnell and Beaton Drug Co.

Votes of Women Ardentely Sought in Michigan Fight

Both Townsend and Kelley Making Strong Effort for Support of Fair Sex at Primaries.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Detroit, May 6.—The women of Michigan, who will vote in a primary for United States senator for the first time this year, are finding themselves assiduously courted by both the Townsend and the Kelley factions of the republican party.

The activity of women in politics in this state indicates their vote is going to be an extremely important, if not a decisive, factor in the contest between Senator Townsend and Congressman Kelley for the nomination for senator.

The Kelley managers have been putting forth great efforts to enlist the support of the League of Women Voters in condemnation of Senator Townsend for his defense of Senator Newberry when Henry Ford, defeated democratic candidate for senator in 1918, sought the unseating of his opponent.

The Townsend committee looks with disfavor on the banding of women in separate political organizations and is making a strong appeal to women, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Venillet of Alpena, to participate actively in the Townsend canvass. Townsend committees are being organized throughout the state with an equal number of men and women on each.

One of the most influential advocates of the renomination of Senator Townsend is Mrs. S. L. Calkins of Ypsilanti, president of the Michigan W. C. T. U. In a letter recently published, and in numerous meetings of the union, Mrs. Calkins urges women to stand by the senator who has stood by them throughout his 19 years of service in congress and answers the criticism of Townsend for his vote to seat Newberry. That Townsend would have been unworthy of respect had he not defended his colleague and that she would have done the same had she been in his place, is the assertion of Mrs. Calkins.

Woman Touring West in Search for Son at K. C.

Kansas City, Mo., May 6.—Accompanied by her cat, "Spot," and a young world war veteran she picked up on the way, Mrs. Marie Whitaker, who set out from New York April 1 in a small motor car for Kansas City to find her missing son, Sid, arrived here last night.

As when she left New York, Mrs. Whitaker was virtually penniless when she got here. The last lap of the 1,500-mile trip—from Lexington, Mo., to Kansas City—was made on gasoline bought with funds residents of Lexington gave her, she said.

Although plainly showing the strains of travel, all members of the party, including "Spot," were in high spirits. The little mother was confident she had reached her journey's end and soon would find the son she has not seen since 1919, and who, she has been told, is living in this vicinity.
