

Police Launch Drive Against Park Vandals

"Only Your Age Saves You From Jail," Judge Tells Man Accused of Flower Theft.

A campaign against vandalism in city parks was opened yesterday by police with the arrest of Frank W. Groeger, 53, 4014 Nicholas street, tailor.

"Only your age keeps me from sending you to jail," Judge W. F. Wappich told Groeger in Central police court after F. C. Anthony, special officer, testified Groeger was picking lilacs and snowballs by the artificial in Bemis park at 7:20 yesterday morning.

Following complaints from residents in different parts of Omaha that vandals are carrying away flowers and damaging the plants by breaking branches, three motorcycle officers under Anthony's direction are watching parks.

"Women are among the worst offenders," Anthony said, "and will be brought to jail as quickly as men would be."

Frank Dineen, city prosecutor, announced he would recommend that the next park vandal taken into court be sent to jail for 15 days with nothing to eat except prunes, bread and water.

"If it requires harshness to halt the destruction of civic beauty, let's exercise it," Dineen said.

The protecting campaign began after L. P. Roberts, 3327 Cumming street, wrote a letter to Mayor James

Third Cut in Gas Rate Announced by Board

The board of directors of the Metropolitan Utilities district authorized yesterday the following reduction of gas rates, the third since the city acquired the plant July 1, 1920:

Gas	Present	New
1,000 feet or less	$1.35	$1.10
Next 100,000 feet	1.50	1.25
Next 100,000 feet	1.10	.90
Over 100,000 feet	1.00	.80

The new rates will be in effect June 1. The new schedule does not disturb the minimum net charge of 75 cents.

Small consumers are affected by the present and the new rates as follows:

The treasurer's report as of May 6 shows a total of $776,758 in the gas fund.

Dorothy Lowden Being Kept Hid Is Belief of Her Father

Dorothy Chenoweth Lowden, 16-year-old harpist, whose father filed a suit to annul her marriage to William Lowden, 35, a month ago, has been missing from her home at 2245 North Nineteenth street since Monday.

That she is being kept hid from her parents is the belief of her father and brother.

Club to Present Comedy

The Angelus Athletic club will offer a comedy, "The Traump Convention," tonight in the hall at Twenty-eighth street and Fowler avenue.

Musical numbers will be offered by Paul Stears, Harold Donahue and Arthur Altman. Other numbers will be presented by E. W. Simral, G. A. Sradly and R. A. Kirkpatrick.

Elks Monument to Be Unveiled at 11 Tonight

Ceremonies to Be Open to Public—Visitors to View Mosaic Chapel at Forest Lawn.

As the solemn chimes of the Elks' gong ring out the mystic hour of 11 tonight, the Elks' monument at Elks' Rest, Forest Lawn cemetery, will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies by Miss Dorothy Dahlman. Immediately following the unveiling, Whitney herd of elks in New Hampshire.

An interesting program for the ceremonies has been prepared by George West and Gus Renze. The program will open with "America" by the Elks' band. The monument will be presented by Thomas R. Dygart and accepted by Herbert S. Daniel.

The services will be open to the public. Those wishing to attend are requested to be there by 10, in order not to interrupt the program.

The Elks' statue is a permanent monument. It is a life-sized elk, cast from bronze, and was modeled by the famous sculptor of animals, Eli Harvey, from a live model in the Whitney herd of elks in New Hampshire.

It has been announced that both before and after the unveiling of the monument the Mosaic chapel at Forest Lawn will be open for inspection. This is the first and perhaps the only opportunity the public ever will have to see the chapel illuminated at night.

Claims Missing Lawyer Absconded With $1,200

Mystery surrounds the strange disappearance of Harold W. Haviland, young Omaha attorney, who has been traced as far as Grand Island, with no further clue to his whereabouts. He was missed six weeks ago. William Holst, druggist, 2702 Cumming street, accuses the barrister of absconding with $1,200 of his money.

Commercial Author Is Guest of Ad-Sell League

John G. Jones, author and member of the faculty of the New York University of Commerce, is in Omaha the guest of the Advertising-Selling league. He is rated as one of the eloquent speakers in the country. Aside from his business association as vice-president of the Alexander Hamilton Institute, Mr. Jones has written several articles on salesmanship and sales management. In 1920 he was chairman of the committee on business methods and industrial relations of the International Association of Rotary clubs. He will be honored at a dinner in Hotel Fontenelle today, when he will talk on "Salesmanship, the Business Stimulator."

What's really wrong with marriage!

SHE has had more marital troubles confided to her than any one else. Letters, "personal and confidential," come to her from the Philippines, from Manchuria—from the world over. Girls between seventeen and twenty-two write most frequently. Again at thirty-five women seek her help. Men of thirty ask her advice more often than cocksure youths of twenty.

Thousands upon thousands, married and single, young and old, have followed her safely past the shoals upon which love and marriage are so often wrecked. Because, while others theorize, and moralize, and preach about what ought to be, she knows how to reconcile romance and matrimony.

If you are married, and fear some day to find happiness a glimmering illusion—if you are going to marry but dread to follow married people you know, do not by any chance miss reading —Beatrice Fairfax's—"What's the Matter with Matrimony," in June Cosmopolitan.

CAN A DIVORCED MAN EVER FORGET HIS FIRST WIFE?

A dramatic revelation for every husband and wife in another of Frederick Arnold Kummer's searching studies of married life.

If your husband confessed to deliberate, cold-blooded murder, could you forget, forgive and PRAISE him? Read "Mabel wouldst of made a poet throw away his pen—but Joe gets no more kick outa her than he does outa his vichy."
