Georges Carpentier Scores Knockout Over "Ted" Lewis in First Round

World's Light-Heavyweight Champ Drives Sharp Right to Point of Englishman's Jaw For Victory

Frenchman Outweighs "Kid" Eighteen Pounds-Fans Hiss Winner-Bout Lasts Two Minutes and Fifteen Seconds.

London, May II.—Georges Carpentier tonight knocked out Ted (Kid) Lewis in the first round of what was to have been a 20-round bout for the light-heavyweight championship of the world, held by Carpentier. The end came when Carpentier, in breaking from a clinch, drove a sharp right to the point of Lewis jaw. The Englishman toppled over backward and lay motion less on the floor until the referee counted 10. Then Carpentier picked up his fallen foe and aided in carrying him to his corner.

The great Olympia amphitheatre held a record crowd, for the battle had attracted widespread interest. Hundreds of handsomely gowned women were among the spectators for Stecher Match and evinced keen disappointment at the quick work made of the British favorite by the Frenchman. Among others present were the Duke of York and Prince Henry, who were seated at the ringside. Jack Dempsey was applauded as he entered the arena, and was shown to a seat near That the bout will be an honestto-goodness "shootin" match was made plain yesterday when Hanson said that neither wreather asked for the royal personages, to whom he was later introduced. Q. Should the umpire call time at once in case of a collision?

A. The batter never reached first base and with two out no run can score if the batter falls to get to first.

Q. Should the umpire call time at once in case of a collision?

A. The umpire may not call time, until there is no longer a possibility of play.

An accident of that character is distressing but the team at hat is suffilled to full protection.

Q. If the ball is pliched to the batter and hits the ground before it gets to home plate in it a legal pitch?

A. Yes, It is legal in the same that it must be ruled upon. Of course, it would be a ball, but if the batter atrikes at it a first is an investment of the ball is to be fleded as any batted ball would be.

A. A play begins the mament the pitcher begins to wind up the deliver the ball. If he stops his wind up it is a balk so it is only fair to start the play with his pre-liminary motion.

Q. Must there be a white line between first and second and second and third to show the base running line?

A. There is no need for them, A certain latitude is held as to the baseline but of course it is the effort of every runner to run in just as straight a line as possible between those bases. a mean bat in the sixth frame when he singled to right, scoring Nufer from third with the winning run. Lindberg had good control through-out the contest, issuing three widely scattered bases on balls.

The Buffalo hurlers didn't fare so good. Polson was the first Omaha pitcher to face the Saints. He al-lowed the visitors two hits and a Q. In match play where a player's ball rolls against the flag stick while it is still in position and stops there, can he claim to have holed out on the stroke?

A. No, but he catilized to remove the stick himself, and if the ball drops in he is credited with heling out on the stroke. Of course, if his caddle was standing at the hole, holding the stick, even though it still remained in place, the player loses the hole in match play.

Q. Who is considered the longest driver among American professionals?

A. This is largely a matter of opinion. Jim Barnes and Bob MacDonald are very long drivers. Charlie Hall of Birmingham is another, and there are numerous others.

Q. Is long driving sovery essential in a champion player?

A. It depends on what you mean by "long driving," of course, hat as competent a critic as George Buncas may one of the first things he asks about a promising young player is whether he can gay one of the first class players, both smaleur and professional, sale to hit the ball for good distance.
