"Love and Learn"

It's full of laughs, with here and there bits of near tragedy throwing dark shadows across the plot-this romance of the college co-op dining hall. Lanky determination of Sophomore Joe, part time waiter in the co-op, is pitted against the avoirdupois and automobile of "Fat" Franklin for the love of Lela of the soft blue eyes, with the wistful light in them. Which wins? Let Peter Clark Macfarlane tell you in his Blue Ribbon story in next Sunday's Bee. It's one of the best fiction offerings The Bee ever has published.
