

No Action Against Minister Planned

Wallace Wilson, superintendent of the board of public welfare, stated yesterday that his department will take no action against

Rev. William Sanford, who conducts services at 937 North Twenty-fourth street and resides at 1116 North Twenty-second street. "The first information I had of this case was received this morning when Mrs. Ida Levin of my office told me she visited the Sanford church and home," said Mr. Wilson. "I do not see anything in the case to warrant action by us," the welfare superintendent added. Mrs. Levin reported she found Rev. Mr. Sanford living in a four-room building with 11 women of his congregation. "It seemed to be an unusual situation, but there is nothing to justify any action by us," said Mrs. Levin. "Rev. Mr. Sanford said he and his brother came here from St. Joseph about eight weeks ago." Arm Dislocated and Broken Wymore, Neb., May 15.—(Special.)—The 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Milt Hoedling, while playing, fell and broke his right arm and dislocated it at the elbow.
