AN INTERESTING commentary on the advance reservations for Galli Curci, who appears at the Auditorium the evening of May 27, is that two-thirds of them are from out of town. It may be that the American Legion show, the Junior League performances and the country club openings have quite engaged local society, which will indulge in a few "unengaged" breaths before falling in line for the great singer.

According to Lucius Pryor, who is presenting Galli Curci, the concert reservations made during one day, Tuesday, from out of town include: Kearney State Normal, 8; Peru State Normal, 12; Norfolk, 18; Milford, 6; Plattsmouth, 24; Pierce, 6; McCook, 10; Rushville, 6. From Iowa towns: Thurman, 11; Red Oak, 10; Glenwood, 28; Atlantic, 12; Farragut, 8; Sidney, 6.

This Leaves the Arms Free from Hairy Growths

(Toilet Talks.)
A simple method for completely removing every trace of hair or fuzz is here given. This is painless and usually a single treatment will banish even stubborn growths. To remove hairs, make a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method will not mar the skin, but, to avoid disappointment, be certain you get delatone.

Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

W. J. C. Flowers should be delivered to the young lady by the florist. I don't know why a man should not carry them himself, if he wishes to, but somehow or other he makes rather a funny picture advancing, bouquet in hand. Have them delivered. You should not remain at the girl's home after a show without an invitation, and even then should not stay long on account of the lateness of the hour.

I think we should "keep out." In the case you bring up I think the best you can do is to silence gossiping tongues with a staunch defense of your friends whenever unkind remarks are made in your presence, but if your friends have done no wrong there is nothing for them to do or say about the lies that are being told. Good conduct is the best refutation for lies.

Troubled: Happiness is not built with the timber from wrecked homes. If your husband is good and kind to you, you are more likely to be happy with him than you would be with some man who professes his love for you without any right to speak. Your husband is the father of your child, to whom you owe much. You are on shaky ground. Better have a serious talk with yourself.

Old True Friend: It is a very good plan to keep out of other people's business. Sometimes it is a delicate problem to decide just where friendship stops and undue interest begins. In other people's affairs of the heart
