Chicago, May 18.—Bairish sentiment predominated in the grain markets today and while trade was slow early and fair support was in evidence, the finish was on a sharp decline—wheat off 7¢@4c, the latter on May corn 1¢@3¢ lower, oats 3¢@1½¢ and rye 1½@3¢ lower for May.

There was little in the news that attracted much attention and wheat fluctuated in an aimless manner until near the close, when free selling of the July by a local professional and scattered selling of May found the market poorly supported.

Some stop loss orders were caught in the May and the decline was easily attained.

The trade was in no mood to consider the less favorable crop reports or the claims that France was after new crop winters at the seaport. At $1.27 for July, commission houses were good buyers on resting orders and again at $1.26 3d and at $1.26 1½¢ lower. Oats were quoted unchanged to 1½¢ lower. Rye was 1¢ lower and barley unchanged.
