Program Begun to Get Interest in Waterways

Move to Arouse Nebraskans to Importance of St. Lawrence Project Is Started.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER.

Washington Correspondent Omaha Rec. Washington, May 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The Mississippi Valley association, interested in the development of waterway transportation in the middle-western section of the United States, has undertaken a program for the purpose of awakening increased interest among Nebraskans in the development of waterways Officers of the association have worked in co-operation with Representative Jessers, who is an enthu-siastic supporter of waterways projects. The association will send literature dealing with the subject to county commissioners, editors of newspapers and members of the state legislature.

Representative Newton of Missouri, who is planning, at the request of Representative Jefferis, to offer an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill providing for the survey of the Missouri to demonstrate the feasbility of a six-foot channel between Kansas City and Sioux City, did not ind the suitable opportunity to offer his amendment today as he had planned, but hopes to do so tomor-

"Maybe she's too young to know about it, too," Snowball suggested.
"Young!" Mr. Crow cried with a short, mirthless laugh. "The Muley Cow's not young. She's the oldest cow on the farm. If the truth must he told, she's so old that Farmer he told, she's so old that Farmer Green wouldn't keep her if it weren't that Johnnie Green thinks she belongs to him. And he's raise a terrible row if his father sold her.

"Are you too young to explain about this trick that you just warned me against?" Snowball asked. "I'd like to know how there can be any danger in salt. How can anybody be caught with salt?"

"Well, you are a silly!" cried Mr. Crow. "Can't you guess that John-nie Green is going to put salt on everybody's tail?" (Copyright, 1922.)
