Chicago. May 20 .- The annual meeting of the Military Camps Association of the United States, opened here yesterday with the reading of a radiogram from Gen. Pershing expressing his regret at his inability to attend and his appreciation of the work of the association,

Among the speakers at yesterday's meeting were Arthur F. Cosby, secretary of the association; Charles S. Walker of Des Moines and E. A. Engler of Omaha.

Adjutants from most of the corps areas of the country, describing this year's preparatory work, reported five times as many camp applications as had been submitted at this time in According to plans now before the association, there will this year be three separate types of citizens military training, as opposed to only one type offered last year.
