by Word Reavis
Will Quit Post

Doubt Expressed Whether Nomination to Fill Vacancy to Be by Primary or Convention.

Lincoln, May 26.—(Special).—Announcement that Congressman Frank Reavis of Falls City will resign June 4 to become special assistant attorney general of the United States for the prosecution of war fraud cases caused considerable turmoil in First district political circles, centering in Lincoln.

In accepting Reavis said he would form his law partnership at Lincoln and that he would return here to live after his work in Washington is completed.

F. D. Enfield of Lincoln, Reavis' secretary, will be an associate counsel in the congressman's war graft prosecution work.

The law provides that a special election be held to fill such a vacancy for the next session of congress, convening in December. The attorney general's office expressed doubt as to whether nomination for this election shall be by primary or by convention, although in 1910 a similar nomination in the Third district was by convention.

Doubt also is expressed as to whether or not the law provides for any way of filling the vacancy from the time of Mr. Reavis' resignation until the new session of congress in December.

In event of election to fill the vacancy, either December 1 or earlier, the six candidates already seeking Mr. Reavis' seat at the expiration of his term will have new anxieties. If they wish to serve for the unexpired term they will have to file for that separately and their names must appear on the ballot twice, once for the short term and once for the full two years beginning March 4, 1923. It is possible for one man to win in one case and not in the other.

ment that most of the frauds are said to have taken place.

He will have associated with him in his war graft prosecution F. D. Enfield of Lincoln, his secretary, who will be associate counsel.
Mr. Reavis' statement says.

Statement Is Issued.
"I regret any inconvenience my resignation may occasion and to minimize it as much as possible will employ a competent man to care for all departmental requests until my successor is selected. F. D. Enfield of Lincoln, who has been my secretary, will go with me as an assistant attorney."

"I entertain no illusions regarding the work which awaits me. No crook outside ever robbed the government without the assistance of some crook in the inside. As a result the files are so fixed or confused as to make the trail of the serpent both devious and difficult. Those against whom I shall proceed are fortified financially and otherwise throughout the nation and will have powerful influences in the public mind which will be in sympathy with them. I will be glad if my home people will abate incidental criticism which will be directed at me and judge my administration by the results achieved.

"The law partnership with Max Beghtol of Lincoln, which was to be effected at the end of my congressional term, will be entered into at once and I will devote as much time as my duties here will permit to its business. I shall return to Lincoln permanently as soon as I have completed the work here."

Senate Stages Daily
Shindy Over Daugherty

Washington, May 26.—The senate staged its daily shindy over Mr. Daugherty and his acts. Senator Lenroot, Wisconsin, republican, arose and read a letter written by Mr. Daugherty to Senator Watson, Indiana, May 22, frankly admitting his connection with the successful effort to obtain the release of Charles W. Morse from the Atlanta penitentiary during the Taft administration. Mr. Daugherty also acknowledged in a letter that he had received $4,000 from Thomas B. Felder for his expenses and services in connection with the Morse case but added that this did not more than half repay him for the money he disbursed out of his own pocket.

The attorney general's letter to Senator Watson was written as a reply to the charges made by Senator Caraway, Arkansas, democrat, in debate recently. At the time Mr. Caraway made the charges Senator Watson rose to Mr. Daugherty's defense and emphatically denied that the attorney general had had any connection with the Morse case. He stated that Mr. Daugherty had so informed him. In the letter made public today by Senator Lenroot at the request of Senator Watson, who is in Indiana, Mr. Daugherty stated that Mr. Watson must have misunderstood him.

Senator Watson, Georgia, democrat, presented a memorandum submitted to him by a young man who furnished him with the information upon which he based his charges he made against the attorney general yesterday.

"Prosperity Special,"
Largest Train to Cross
U. S., Under Steam Today

Remarkable Train of 20 Oil Burning Engines, Santa Fe Type, Each Nearly 100 Feet Long, to Travel Rails From Baldwin Locomotive Works to East St. Louis—To Be Used on West Coast.

Philadelphia, May 26.—(By A. P.)—Flying pennants proclaiming it the "Prosperity Special," the largest and perhaps the most remarkable single train of locomotives ever hauled across the country, was scheduled to leave the Eddystone plant of the Baldwin Locomotive works today for East St. Louis, Ill. It consists of 20 oil-burning engines of the Santa Fe type, each with its tender, nearly 100 feet long, and weighing 621,000 pounds.

The train is part of an order of 50 locomotives of this type built for the Southern Pacific lines. All of them are ready for delivery, and the remainder will be forwarded as rapidly as possible.

Half Mile Long.
Several coal-burning engines, pullers and pushers, will furnish the motive power for the 20 locomotives making up the body of the train, which is nearly half a mile long and weighs more than 6,000 tons.

The train will travel only during the day. No attempt at sleep will be made and at many of the overnight stopping places, and in a number of cities through which it will pass, arrangements have been made by state and municipal authorities, commercial and industrial organizations and public school officials to review the train.

The locomotives are so large, Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the Baldwin works said, that it was impossible to haul the train through Philadelphia, Harrisburg or Pittsburgh. It will require at least six engines to haul the train around Horseshoe curve, in Pennsylvania. Neither will it be possible, he added, for the great train to cross the Mississippi river at St. Louis, over the Eads bridge.

Throughout the journey each of the locomotives, which are to be used in the freight service on the heavy grade in the far west, will be manned by an experienced engineer.

"Return of Prosperity."
Many distinguished men and officials of the Southern Pacific and other railroads attended exercises marking the departure of the "prosperity special."
"The trip has been made possible," Mr. Vauclain said, "by the courage

Habeas Corpus Writ Calling Prisoner Before Judge for Hearing Granted;
Bail Canceled.

White Plains, N. Y., May 26.—(By A. P.)—Supreme Court Justice Young this afternoon dismissed the writ of habeas corpus taken out for Clarence Peters, ex-navy man.

His release was sought on the ground that there was no legal charge preferred against him in connection with the shooting of Clarence Peters.

Immediately after Justice Young handed down his decision Allan R. Campbell, counsel for Ward, served notice of an appeal.

Meanwhile Ward, who was re-arrested last night, was taken back to jail.
Bail Canceled.

White Plains, N. Y., May 26.—(By A. P.)—Supreme Court Justice Young this morning issued a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Walter S. Ward, vice president of the Ward Baking company, who was re-arrested last night on a charge of killing Peters of Haverhill, Mass., near the Kenosca reservoir about two weeks ago.

The writ was served on Sheriff George Werner, directing him to bring Ward into court for a hearing on the question of whether he was again to be released on bail. A bail bond of $10,000, accepted shortly after he surrendered last Saturday, stating he had shot Peters in self-defense after being blackmailed by him, was cancelled yesterday when District Attorney Weeks had told the court there were certain discrepancies in his story.

Ward, who had been out on $10,000 bail following his confession of killing Clarence Peters, former navy man, was re-arrested yesterday after District Attorney Weeks appeared before Supreme Court Justice Seeger with an affidavit declaring that new evidence had cast doubts on Ward's confession. The bail bond of $10,000 was mentioned and Mr. Weeks' petition stated "this bail now appears to be insufficient." The affidavit concluded by asking that Ward again be held without bail.

ing her husband home for dinner last night, did not know of his arrest until informed by reporters.

The efforts of Ward's attorneys to secure the habeas corpus writ was expected to make public the new evidence on which the authorities based their latest action.

District Attorney Weeks said he was prepared to push the case entirely into the open. "We will have to show our hands if Ward secures a writ," he said.

Ward seemed to be a favored prisoner after his re-arrest. He drove up to the sheriff's office in his own car about 6 o'clock last night and laughed and joked with his attorneys and the officers in the sheriff's private office.

Lansing, Mich., May 26.—"I read H. G. Wells' 'Outline of History' for 100 pages, then quit because I have no time to waste on an endless chain of inaccuracies," declared Prof. Robert M. Wenley, department of philosophy at the University of Michigan, in an address before the Michigan Historical society in session here.
