First Step Is Taken to Launch Canal Project

Negotiations Opened With British Ambassador to Make Treaty for St. Lawrence Waterway.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER. Washington Correspondent of The Bee. Washington, May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The State department formally announced yesterday it had taken the first step toward making the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterways project a successful achievement. It has opened negotiations with the British ambassador at Washington looking to the making of a treaty with Britain and Canada for the purpose of making it possible to dig the big ditch and give the middle western section access to the water lanes of the world. Although the formal acknowledgment of the action was made today, a note declaring the desire of this government to negotiate a treaty, had been directed to the British ambassador some time ago and has been transmitted to the Canadian government. The fact there has been a delay at Ottawa in replying is not regarded as significant. The chief importance attaching to the announcement rested in the fact that it shows approval of and cooperation on the part of the Harding administration with the project of linking the middle western lake ports with the ocean, despite the spirited opposition of New York interests.

Christian Durr, Resident Here Half Century, Dies

Delegates to Grocer Convention Named

J. E. Kirk, president; C. F. Kelly, vice president, and Sam Rosenbaum, director, of the Omaha Retail Grocers' association, were elected to represent that body at the national convention of grocers in Cleveland June 26 to 29, at the meeting of the association at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night. Representatives from the six zones of the organization made reports that each division had organized and elected officers for the coming year. Plans were made for the annual picnic to be held in Krug park July 20.

Presbyterians Are Now United in One Council

Assembly Endorses Campaign to Place Bible in Public Schools—Favor Japanese Memorial.

By the Associated Press. Des Moines, May 26.—Confirmation came yesterday, just before adjournment, in the 134th general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States that the Southern Presbyterians, now in session at Charleston, W. Va., had voted to join the general council of reformed churches, from which they have till now remained aloof. This telegram read to the 800 commissioners at the Coliseum, cleared up ambiguity in a message received the day before, and marked an achievement for which American Presbyterians have been working for many years. The southern denomination is the last to come into the reformed church council. Commissioners declared that this was the last preliminary to actual reunion of church severed by the civil war. This federation was bracketed with the consolidation of church agencies as one of the outstanding accomplishments of the year.

Bible in Schools.
Efforts by Presbyterians in the state of Washington, since reinforced by other denominations, to gain legal right to place the Bible in all public schools were endorsed by the assembly. An organization has been accomplished of inter-denominational scope, headed by R. L. Edmiston, an attorney and Presbyterian layman, known as the Bible Fellowship, which proposes to go as far as the United States supreme court if necessary to secure authorization for this work.

Resolutions of congratulation and amity were adopted toward the Church of Christ in Japan after the commissioners had heard Rev. Masahisa Uemura of Tokio, head of that church, tell of its growth since its beginning in 1857 to its 228 churches, 37,000 communicants and 75,000 adherents of today. A resolution favored raising a memorial fund of $250,000 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the church, one-half to be collected in Japan, and one-half in America, by the included denominations.

Southern Meet Closed.
Charleston, W. Va., May 26.—The 62d general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church closed here yesterday. Featuring its session, the assembly adopted a portion of the constitution of the Presbyterian church approved by a joint committee in Philadelphia in 1921, seeking closer relations with the Northern Presbyterian church. It also adopted resolutions of comity between the Southern church and the Reformed Presbyterian church, and between Presbyterian churches of the United Kingdom and Presbyterian churches of the United States.

The church retains its membership in the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, but has withdrawn all financial support from that body.

Mellon Will Drop Case of Iowa Man

No Further Action Planned Against Men Ousted From Treasury Department.

Washington, May 26.—Secretary Mellon, after a conference with President Harding at the White House late yesterday, announced that no further action would be taken by the Treasury department in the case of A. D. Sumner of Iowa and C. C. Childs of Ohio, who were removed by order of the secretary from the offices of deputy commissioner of internal revenue and supervisor of collectors, respectively, through the consolidation of the offices.

Secretary Mellon said reports that Sumner and Childs would be reinstated were without basis. "So far as the Treasury department is concerned," he added, "the entire matter is a closed issue." Dispatches from the Pacific coast quoting Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Dover to the effect that if the removal of Sumner and Childs was a personal matter he might "be heard from," when called to the attention of Mr. Mellon evoked a reply to the effect that "I fail to understand such remarks." Secretary Mellon said further that Sumner and Childs were not appointed by Mr. Dover. He could not discuss, he said, any plans for a further reorganization of the internal revenue forces of the government.

Rearrest Bank Robbery Suspect at Cherokee
Cherokee, Ia., May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—George Dooley was arrested here by Sheriff Sangwin and Hi Yackey of Council Bluffs on suspicion of complicity in the bank robbery at Arion, Ia., and Staplehurst, Neb. He had written to Wm. Martin and Thomas Burns, held at Seward for the Staplehurst job, to sit tight and employ an attorney and that he would send them money from Cherokee. He was released from arrest at Omaha last Thursday.
