

Kearney Man Is Named President of State C. of C.

Budget of $3,000 Agreed Upon for Year's Work—Directors Will Select Next Meeting Place.

Columbus, Neb., May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Nebraska Chamber of Commerce at the close of its annual convention elected the directors and they in turn chose the officers as follows: President, Dan Morris of Kearney; first vice president, J. D. Bushnell, Lincoln; second vice president, J. A. Ross, Long Pine; secretary, Harrison Elliott, Columbus; treasurer, Joseph Barker, Omaha; executive committee, Dr. T. H. Bass, Broken Bow, chairman; C. D. Marr, Fremont; F. E. Teller, Columbus.

It was left to the directors and officers to select the next convention place. It was agreed that the state chamber should operate the coming year on a conservative budget of $3,000 and that the directors draft such a budget and notify the member clubs.

Randall K. Brown of Omaha gave a talk on the recent meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce which he attended in Washington.

Two resolutions submitted by the resolution committee were referred to the directors for consideration at their next regular meeting. One urged the immediate enactment by congress of a tariff on imports adequate to protect American industries and based on the American valuation plan. The other endorses the provisions of the Jones shipping bill and the Green shipping bill calculated to encourage the merchant marine.

Negroes Shot to Death Identified by Cop

Two negroes, identified by Detective Harry Buford as Walter Goodman, 26, 1123 Pacific street, alleged to have been married to a white woman, Dorothy Goodman, 1218 Mason street, and Dan Lewis, 1317 1/2 Mason street, were found shot to death near Seventh and Pine streets yesterday morning.

Persons in the neighborhood told police that two men in an automobile had fired on one of the negroes and then drove north on Seventh street. The theory of the police is that the two were killed in a battle with bootleggers.

Two discharged shotguns were found in the neighborhood.

Judge to Insist on Big Bonds for Alleged Auto Thieves

Ray Jones, State hotel, and Joe Kamala, Menz hotel, alleged auto thieves, were held in Central police court yesterday under $5,000 bond each.

"All bonds for men accused of stealing cars will be large hereafter," Judge Wappich announced.

The men were arrested Wednesday afternoon after they nearly ran down John Holden, police sergeant. They were later charged with stealing a car from Lawrence Schinker, 2206 South Fifteenth street. Fred Joyce, 715 Pacific street, arrested with them, proved his innocence but is under bond as a witness.

Buckingham and Barker Named in $396,691 Suit

Everett Buckingham and Joseph Barker, prominent in civic organizations and former kings of Ak-Sar-Ben, were made defendants in a suit filed yesterday in district court by 26 stockholders of the Omaha Potash and Refining company, for $396,691.55. With Barker and Buckingham the company is named defendant in the case.

Bomb on Dumbwaiter Explodes, Kills Mother

Mrs. Adeline Hahn of Milwaukee opened the dumbwaiter in her apartment to receive the morning's milk and was blown to pieces by a bomb. The family had received threatening letters, and three women are under surveillance as having possible knowledge of the crime. Mrs. Hahn was the mother of two children.

Farm Wives Given Divorce Decrees Here

Joseph Brockelsby, farmer of Vail, Ia., was too familiar with Omaha women, his wife, Priscilla, alleged in a petition for divorce on which she was granted a decree yesterday by District Judge Sears, who also issued an order for Brockelsby to pay her $5,000 alimony. They have been married 25 years.

Elizabeth Giddings, owner of 1,760 acres of land in Arthur county, was awarded a decree of divorce from Arthur H. Giddings on charges of cruelty, and $1,000 which she alleged in her petition she had given to him at various times since their marriage in 1919.

War Widow Fire Victim Shows Improvement

Mrs. Gabriel Olechnowicz, 25, war widow, who was rescued with her children when flames threatened her home at 3118 S street Tuesday morning, shows slight signs of improvement at St. Joseph hospital.

She had several brief returns of consciousness yesterday, attendants said, and each time she calls for her children. Her condition still is serious, however, and her recovery will be very slow from the effects of the smoke by which she was overcome in the fire.
