

Clubdom

Woman's Club Concert. The Woman's Club Chorus, directed by Henry Cox will give two song groups at the closing concert of the Omaha Woman's club festival Monday, 10 a. m. in Burgess-Nash tea room.

A number of out-of-town reservations have already been made for the bridge party to be given by the Daughters of 1812 at the Prettiest Mile club June 8. Luncheon will be served and there will be 16 hands of bridge.

From Fremont will come the Mesdames C. G. Moore, Fred Wachter, Edward Hein, Oscar Hanson, Robert Wall, Elie Harmon and J. W. Evans.

Mrs. Stanley Conover will entertain 12 guests and Mrs. T. Dinan will have eight. Others who have reserved tables are the Mesdames Grant Parsons, William Ritchie, Charles McMartin, Charles Marshall, William Malone, A. M. Crowley, A. A. Allerhelgan, J. M. Lowe, George Taylor, Henry Rhimar and C. H. Mullen.

Rummage Sale. Omaha chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will conduct a rummage sale Wednesday at Twenty-sixth and I streets. Proceeds will be used in furnishing the Nebraska room in the administration building which is connected with the Memorial and Continental hall in Washington, D. C.

Anyone wishing to donate articles for the sale is requested to notify Mrs. Thomas H. Tracy or the following members of her committee: Mesdames Frank L. Adams, T. O. Warfield or F. P. Larmon.

Lilliputian Bazar. St. Annes guild of St. Martins Episcopal church will hold a Lilliputian bazar Wednesday, May 31, at Trinity parish house. Complete outfits for children may be had at the bazar, which will be open all day. Mrs. F. O. Beck, Mrs. Charles Beck and Mrs. Charles Stewart are in charge of the affair.

For Yates Teachers. The mothers of the Parent Teacher association of Henry W. Yates school will entertain the teachers at a supper Monday evening at Camp Brewster. The party will leave the school at 4 p. m. Mrs. Frank D. Fields, retiring president, is in charge of arrangements.

Ice Cream Social. Women of the Holy Cross parish will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn at 5065 Center street, Saturday evening, June 3. C. E. Hain will have charge of the radio concert which will be a feature of the affair.

Christ Child Society. A splendid collection of children's books has been sent to the Christ Child center from the extension department of the public library in exchange for those received last autumn.

Camp Fire Girls. The regular monthly meeting of the Camp Fire Guardians' association will be held Thursday, June 1, at 7:30 p. m. at Camp Fire headquarters. This is the last meeting before camp and a large attendance is desired.

On May 3 Mrs. Samuel Streit, a member of the national board of Camp Fire Girls, in New York city, entertained Madame Pavlova. At this time Mrs. Oliver Harriman, national president, presented Madame Pavlova with the Camp Fire Girls' check of $1,000, which was their birthday gift to the Russian girls in Madame Pavlova's home.

The Weloc Camp Fire of Omaha, Miss Lucy Garvin, guardian, was listed on this honor roll.

A large thermometer chart hangs on the wall of Camp Fire headquarters. As the girls register for camp their names are placed on the chart and the thermometer rises. Helen and Katherine Bloss, who have always been enthusiastic campers, were the first to register. Girls are asked to get their registrations in now so that the thermometer may register warm enough weather for camping.

A group of girls from Windsor school met Tuesday at the home of Marie Steiner, and after talk by Miss Mary Louise Guy decided to organize a Camp Fire and choose Ahaha as their name. This means walks, nature study and happiness. Those present were Audrey Corey, Margaret Stone, Marie Steiner, June Crandell, Marie Robertson and Elizabeth Parker.

A group of Dandee girls met Friday at the home of Margaret Smith to organize a camp fire group. Those present were Jean Kirkpatrick, Ruth Conrad, Frances Nicholas, Betty Kimberley, Marjorie Gould, Ernie Goodrich, Mary Agnes Marshall, Helen Robinson, Pauline Koppel and Margaret Smith.

The Letze group met Friday at the home of the guardian, Miss Collied-Kenzie, when a word contest was held. One hundred questions pertaining to camp fire were asked. Dorothy Zimmerman and Frances Harmon were in the lead.

Wed This Week

Miss Lilla Trumbull

The wedding of Miss Lilla Trumbull and Norman R. Rann will take place May 31 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Trumbull. The Rev. A. D. Trumbull of Fremont, grandfather of the bride, will officiate. Only immediate relatives will be present and following the ceremony the young couple will leave for a wedding trip in Chicago and Minneapolis. They will live at the Hamilton apartments.

Peg o' My Heart Presented by the Misner School

"Peg o' My Heart" will be presented by the Misner players Monday evening at 8:15 at the First Central Congregational church under auspices of the Young People's Sunday Evening club. Ernest Raymond Misner is directing the play.

Mary Ogan will take the role of Peg and others in the cast are Miss Bertha Peterson, Lena May Edmiston, Kenneth McCoid, Edward Roth and R. A. Mellen.

Mr. Misner will take this play and the players out on chautauqua work this summer.

Girls Community Service League. The Girls Community Service League will hold their meetings in Miller hall this week with Mrs. Noel Wallace acting hostess.

Monday—Cluga club supper, 6:30. Baseball 7:30. Miss Margaret Adams, president of club.

Wednesday—Wamm club supper, 6:30. Miss Edna Hinceline, club president.

Thursday—Lafayette club supper, 6:30. Tennis club practice, 7:30. Miss Dorothy McAllister, president.

Friday—D. T. A. club supper, 6:30. Miss Majeska Shear, president.

Sunday—Community Service club hike. Leaving end of the Deaf and Dumb institute, car line 3 o'clock. Mrs. H. C. Sumney, chaperon.

Brownell Hall Festivities. The Sophomore class of Brownell Hall gave a dance last evening at Hiatt hall for the entire school, which numbers 80 girls. Friday afternoon the Freshman class entertained the school at a tea dance at the home of Miss Elizabeth Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Roberts of Fairacres. Friday evening a play, "The Teeth of the Gift Horse," was given in the school auditorium. Next Saturday evening will be Junior night when the junior class will put on a stunt party for the school. Commencement exercises will be held June 6 at All Saints church. There are three members of the graduating class, Miss Charlotte Denny, Miss Vera Selway and Miss Hartrick Minturn. Miss Denny will enter Wellesley in the fall and Miss Minturn plans to go to Northwestern university.

B. P. O. Does. Mrs. E. E. Stanfield, who has been president of the B. P. O. Does since their organization, in February, 1921, has resigned on account of poor health. Mrs. W. D. Countsman, first counselor, succeeds Mrs. Stanfield as president of the Grand lodge. At the next meeting of the Does, June 9, there will be election of officers to fill the vacancies.

The Does will hold a memorial service at Elks Rest Tuesday, 11 a. m., where the ceremonies will be conducted by the Grand lodge officers and the Drove officers.

Get Acquainted Club

An organ recital by Miss Eloise West and contralto solos by Mrs. Hazel Smith Eldridge will be features of the Get Acquainted club program this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Unitarian church, Turner boulevard and Harney street. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Baxter will be the host and hostess.

Miss West will play "Finlandia," Sibelius; "Londonderry Air," by Sanders; "Con Grazia," Andrew; "Melody of the Omaha," Cadman; "Solovy's Song," Grieg; "Ariele," Bonnet, and "Fanfare," by Shelby. The following numbers will be given by Mrs. Eldridge: "Blackbird's Song," Scott; "The Wind Speaks," Grant Schaeffer; "Twaa April," Nevin; "Homing," Del Riego; "Haymaking," Needham; "Cradle Song," MacFayden, and "Down in the Desert," Ross.

School Forum Frolic. The annual frolic for the Omaha School Forum has been announced to take place at the M. E. Smith roof garden Thursday evening, June 1, at 6 o'clock. Miss Johanna Chapman, chairman of the social committee of the forum, is in charge of arrangements.

Washington Girls' Club. The Washington Girls' club will entertain at a school day party Wednesday evening, June 7, at 7:30 in the Y. W. C. A.

A baby picture contest and school day program, including recitations and songs, will be features of the affair.

Culture Club

Mrs. Paul F. Bonorden

Mrs. Paul F. Bonorden, the new president of the West Omaha Mothers' Culture club, is a charter member of the organization. She has served as vice president of the club for the past two years and has also held the office of secretary.

American literature will be the study for next year.

Y. W. C. A.

Sunday—Open house at central building from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. Vesper service will be omitted.

Monday—Semi-annual banquet of Federation of Clubs, 6:15, at which Busy Circle and Morris Girls' clubs will be guests. A day at conference will be acted by the girls. The Glee club, under direction of F. A. Carlson, will sing two numbers. The Okoboji summer conference program will be outlined and plans for summer activities for the clubs at Camp Brewster will be discussed. Dancing and games in the gymnasium will close the evening's program.

Tuesday—Only the noon meal will be served in the cafeteria on account of the holiday.

Wednesday—Morris Girls' club meeting will be omitted.

Thursday—New cafe opens on second floor of Central Association building, with special plate lunches served from 11 to 2. Busy Circle club will meet at 7:45 for singing, followed by class in bakery.

Saturday—Federation council meeting, 5:30, at No. 1, Mason apartment.

Social Settlement. Sixty children from the Thursday sewing class of the Social Settlement will be entertained at a picnic in Elmwood park Saturday. Mrs. Robert Trimble is in charge of arrangements.

The Royal Q. B. C. club will hold a business meeting at the Settlement Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Club Calendar

SUNDAY. House of Hope, 1018 North Thirtieth Street—Sunday, 2 p. m. Rev. Frank H. Anderson, pastor, Plymouth Congregational church, speaker.

Old People's Home, Fontanelle Boulevard—Sunday, 2:30 p. m. Mrs. R. E. Vandenberg, pastor, Walnut Hill Presbyterian church, speaker. Church choir will sing.

Omaha Walking Club—Sunday afternoon and evening. Informal outing at Wiley Point club home, Fontanelle forest reserve, near Camp Clifton, Victoria avenue, Elizabeth Park, houses.

Omaha Walking Club—Sunday, 8:55 a. m., from Union depot, taking Missouri Pacific train to Union, Neb. All day motor. The walk will be from Union to Nebraska City, distance of 11 miles. Homer Parsons, leader.

MONDAY. Mahan Vincent Chautauqua Circle—Monday, 7:15 p. m., northhouse.

P. E. O. Sisterhood, Chapter R. S.—Monday, 7:30 p. m., with Mrs. J. H. Shinn, 218 Webster street.

Novels Club—Monday, 7:30 p. m., with Mrs. P. A. Cressy, South Twenty-second street.

George Cook Women's Relief Corps—Monday, 2 p. m., with Miss Elizabeth Dugli, 4213 North Twenty-fifth street. Members will arrange bouquets for Decoration day services.

Norma Club—Monday, 7 o'clock, luncheon and program with Mrs. R. L. Staple. Mrs. J. P. Farnsworth, leader. Miss Lillian Gwin will read a paper on "The Loper Colony and Miracles of Molokai."

TUESDAY. Omaha Spanish Club—Tuesday, 8:15 p. m., picnic supper, Elmwood park.

Longfellow Chautauqua Circle—Tuesday evening with Mrs. Ella Connell, 2317 D street.

American Cambra Society—Tuesday, 8 p. m., with Mrs. D. O. Humphrey, 4111 Gracine street.

Omaha Business Women's Club—Tuesday, 8:15 p. m., dinner and social meeting at Camp Brewster.

WEDNESDAY.

Camba Club—Wednesday, 7 o'clock, luncheon with Mrs. R. F. March, 144 Park avenue.

H. F. O. Dress Sewing Club—Wednesday, 10 a. m., Child Sewing Institute. All day sewing session.

West Side W. C. T. U.—Wednesday, 7 p. m., with Mrs. Martin Johnson, 1925 South Fifteenth street.

THURSDAY. Miller Park Presbyterian Women's Society—Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. I. C. Palmer, 1714 Vane street.

P. E. O. Sisterhood, Chapter E.—Thursday, 10:20 a. m., with Mrs. Andrew Tramm, 4213 California street. Members may invite guests.

Mothers Guild—Thursday, 2 p. m., 81. Hillas hall, Eighteenth and Cass streets. Members will see the work of Father Flanagan's home.

J. F. W. Club—Thursday, 7 o'clock

luncheon and program with Mrs. D. H. Weiler, 2412 Dodge street. Mrs. A. G. Schreiber in charge of program.

American War Mothers, State Convention—Thursday, 9 a. m. All day session. George Mack auditorium. All members who had some of daughters in the world war are invited.

FRIDAY. Iowa Avenue Presbyterian Aid Society—Friday, 7 o'clock, luncheon in church parlors. Mrs. A. C. Miller and Mrs. W. C. Hilde, hostesses.

SATURDAY. Omaha Walking Club—Saturday, 2 p. m., from end of Albright car line over walking club trail to Wiley Point camp.

League of Women Voters—Saturday, 10:30 o'clock, luncheon and program. Grandeur restaurant. Dan Hillyer, J. N. Norton, of Polk and Adam McMullen, District, candidates for governor, speakers.

Consideration of Gift Shop Policy. IT IS IMPERATIVE that the giver of gifts duly consider the policy of shop where his gift expression of sentiment is purchased. Nothing but the highest integrity in shop policy should be tolerated. Silver showing of gifts for every purse. Service chests from $10 up. John Henrickson, Jeweler. Established 1882. 16th at Capitol.

Orkin Bros. Store Open at 8:30 Monday. Extraordinary Purchase and Sale of 700 Smart Gingham Dresses. These Dresses Were Made to Sell at $7.50, $10 and $12.50. More Than Fifty Different Styles. Checks in All the Wanted Shades. Navy, Pink, Orchid, Green, Brown, Yellow, Purple and Black with White. Also many novel combinations of materials and colors. Come and Get Three Dresses for the Price of One. Ten Dresses—An entire Summer wardrobe for less than $40. Not More Than Ten Dresses. Easy for you to make a selection. Open at 8:30 Monday Morning. Edholm—Jeweler W. O. W. Bldg. Must move before August. Greatly reduced prices.

Camp Fire Girls

The regular monthly meeting of the Camp Fire Guardians' association will be held Thursday, June 1, at 7:30 p. m. at Camp Fire headquarters. This is the last meeting before camp and a large attendance is desired.

On May 3 Mrs. Samuel Streit, a member of the national board of Camp Fire Girls, in New York city, entertained Madame Pavlova. At this time Mrs. Oliver Harriman, national president, presented Madame Pavlova with the Camp Fire Girls' check of $1,000, which was their birthday gift to the Russian girls in Madame Pavlova's home.

The Weloc Camp Fire of Omaha, Miss Lucy Garvin, guardian, was listed on this honor roll.

A group of girls from Windsor school met Tuesday at the home of Marie Steiner, and after talk by Miss Mary Louise Guy decided to organize a Camp Fire and choose Ahaha as their name. This means walks, nature study and happiness. Those present were Audrey Corey, Margaret Stone, Marie Steiner, June Crandell, Marie Robertson and Elizabeth Parker.

A group of Dandee girls met Friday at the home of Margaret Smith to organize a camp fire group. Those present were Jean Kirkpatrick, Ruth Conrad, Frances Nicholas, Betty Kimberley, Marjorie Gould, Ernie Goodrich, Mary Agnes Marshall, Helen Robinson, Pauline Koppel and Margaret Smith.

The Letze group met Friday at the home of the guardian, Miss Collied-Kenzie, when a word contest was held. One hundred questions pertaining to camp fire were asked. Dorothy Zimmerman and Frances Harmon were in the lead.

Edholm—Jeweler W. O. W. Bldg. Must move before August. Greatly reduced prices.