Burlington Plans $400,000 Briddge

Structure Over Platte River at Oreapolis Will Be Replaced With New One.

Plattsmouth, Neb., May 30.—(Special.)—The Burlington railroad has completed arrangements to replace their present bridge over the Platte river near Oreapolis with a new, modern structure of steel and concrete, to cost about $400,000. The new bridge will be some 300 feet shorter than the present structure, and will require almost a year to complete, during which time Burlington trains will operate over the Missouri Pacific line between Oreapolis and LaPlatte.

Adam McMullen Called to Kansas as Brother Dies

Beatrice, Neb., May 30.—(Special.)—Adam McMullen, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, was called to Clay Center, Kan., by a telegram announcing the death of his brother, John, who was stricken with paralysis last Friday. John McMullen was 61 years of age and formerly lived at Wymore. He is survived by an adopted daughter, his wife having passed away last summer. The body will probably be taken to Lincoln for burial.

Citizenship Given Twelve by Plattsmouth Judge

Plattsmouth, Neb., May 30.—(Special.)—Twelve applicants were granted citizenship papers in district court here by Judge James T. Begley. Fontenelle chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held impressive services to mark the event, presenting each applicant with the D. A. R. manual of citizenship. One applicant had his request denied on the ground that during the war he claimed exemption as an alien.

AT THE THEATERS

MADAME SARAH ADLER, daughter of the renowned Jacob P. Adler, will appear at the Brandeis tonight in the great New York success "The Love of Humoresque," a thrilling melodrama, with music, by the well-known Yiddish playwright, M. Shur. The play is in four acts and was produced under the personal direction of Jacob P. Adler, the grand old man of the American Yiddish stage. Among those in the cast are several well-known favorites of the New York Yiddish stage, including Mr. and Mrs. Rosenthal, Mme. Shumansky, Mr. Rosenblatt, Mr. Goldstein, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Schwartz, Mme. Miller, Mr. H. Benjamin and Mr. Isadore Hyman.

"Jozz exponents extraordinary" are Klass and Brilliant, one of the big successes of the bill at the World theater. On accordion and trombone these two young men play any and all popular numbers requested by members of the audience. "The Eye of Buddha" is proving a most attractive headliner in the present bill with The Bison City Four a comedy quartet sharing applause honors. The entire program is one worth while.

While acting as director of the Birmingham Repertory company, John Drinkwater wrote the play, "Abraham Lincoln," which William Harris, jr., will present at the Brandeis theater for three days beginning tomorrow night, June 1. Intended at first for the use of his own company, the fame of "Abraham Lincoln" spread so far that Mr. Drinkwater took his play to London, where it ran for many months in an almost inaccessible suburban house. Frank McGlynn, who created the part of Lincoln in America, and the original company which played with him since the premiere on this side, will appear for the local engagement.

Division No. 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will give a literary and musical program at St. Agnes hall, Twenty-third and Q streets, tonight at 8.

Albert C. Dayton of Minneapolis stopped over yesterday to visit his sister, Mrs. Thomas Heeby, Sarpy county, whom he had not seen for 20 years. Mr. Dayton is enroute to Los Angeles, near where he expects to buy a ranch and make his future home.

The funeral of Louise Householder, 71, who died at his home 2037 Curtis avenue, Sunday following a paralytic stroke, will be held this afternoon at 2 from Brewer's funeral chapel. Twenty-fourth and K streets. Mr. Householder was a pioneer hog trader at the stockyards and leaves many friends who mourn his death.

The St. Stanislaus Polish Citizens' club staged a big rally Sunday afternoon at the hall, Forty-first and J streets, where several of its members and representatives of the Polish Citizens' club, Twenty-fourth and Bancroft streets, and the West L Improvement club, with which it is affiliated, ably presented the objects of the clubs and laid down the program which it is intended to follow. Musical numbers were given by the local church choirs and school children.
