

Sergeant York Gets Deed to Farm

"Greatest Hero of World War" Delivers Eloquent Sermon at College.

Wilmer, Ky., May 31.—Sergt. Alvin York, noted world war hero of Fall Mall, Tenn., told his auditors in the course of a speech delivered at the celebration here yesterday of the 32d anniversary of the founding of Asbury college, that he had received offers as high as $1,000 a night to go into vaudeville, motion pictures or on the lecture platform, but declared that he had rather be a "pauper and homelass, knowing that he was serving God and would have a home in heaven."

In the course of his speech he told how his faith in God carried him through the exploits that made him famous as a warrior, and at the close many declared he had delivered the best sermon they ever had heard.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 31.—A big lead is off the mind of Sergt. Alvin York, the Tennessee mountaineer, whose exploits in the Argonne, where he captured and single-handed a battalion of German infantry, brought him the title of the "greatest hero of the world war" from Marshal Foch.

The deed to his fine 400-acre farm on Wolf river, Feuntes county, near Fall Mall, was presented to him yesterday. It came to him every penny paid for. The presentation was made by J. T. Wheeler, a trustee of the York fund.

Soldiers of Three Wars Decorate Tecumseh Graves

Tecumseh, Neb., May 31.—(Special.)—Rain prevailed here on Memorial day, making it necessary to hold the exercises indoors. However, the originally announced program was carried out. Music was by the Tecumseh military band. William L. Gaston of Lincoln, deputy secretary of state, was the speaker of the day.

Soldiers of three wars formed a line of march to the Tecumseh cemetery, where services were held at the mound for the unknown dead. The graves of all sailors and soldiers were decorated. The annual memorial sermon was delivered by Rev. R. J. McKenzie at the Methodist church.

Two Alleged Moonshiners Are Arrested Near Ohio

Geneva, Neb., May 31.—(Special.)—Deputy Sheriff Eric Johnson arrested John Kempf and Murray Caughy at the home of the latter near Ohio. At the Kempf place was found four and a half gallons of liquor and two three-burner oil stoves, a copper boiler, four fifty-gallon barrels and several empty sugar sacks. Three of the barrels contained mash.

Theodore Pekar was arrested at Ohio for breaking into the Farmers Union store. Only $4 in money was taken.

"Unfair Deal" Charged by Settlement Head

Mrs. Marie Doud.

Mrs. Marie Doud, who has been given 30 days' notice to leave her post as head resident of the South Side Social settlement June 15, declared yesterday that she has not been given a square deal.

"They should have let me know sooner and not waited until a few weeks before my vacation, to which I am entitled," she said. "I have six months' verbal contract providing for it. No notice was given me of any change so I shall expect them to comply with the terms."

Dissatisfaction with Mrs. Doud's work emanates from the women identified with the settlement. "We feel that Mrs. Doud has not given the settlement her best efforts since her marriage a year ago," said one of them.

O. C. Willis of Armour & Co., who heads the board, declined to comment on the complaint.

Dunbar, Neb., May 31.—(Special.)—Wilbur W. Anness delivered the Memorial day address at Syracuse before an audience that filled the M. E. church. An inspiring program was held under auspices of the American Legion post. Only three G. W. R. members of Wadsworth post survive. These are Comrades Shuey, Botsford and Kirk. The Syracuse band furnished music for the occasion.

Farmers in Gage County Report Crops Favorable

Beatrice, Neb., May 31.—(Special.)—Farmers in Gage county report that winter wheat and corn have made great progress since the late rains. In some fields the wheat is heading out and with favorable weather the yield will be about the same as last year, most of the farmers figure. Most of the corn is up and the stand is one of the best in years.

Six Carloads of Cattle Net Valley Farmer Good Return

Six carloads of cattle were marketed at the stockyards by Gilbert Akerlund of Valley. Of the shipment 42 head averaged 1,250 pounds and sold at $8.55 a hundred, the top price of the day for cattle of that weight, while 87 head averaging

1,164 lbs. were sold for $8.23 a cwt. The entire consignment was bought on the Omaha market five and one half months ago, when they averaged 704 pounds and cost $6.65 a hundred. The animals sold by Mr. Akerlund were all well bred Herefords and he said he was pleased at the good prices received and the gains made in weight.

MOZART CIGAR

Mild as a May Morning — and as fragrant

Men who know cigar making, also know that it is more difficult to make a good cigar that is truly mild, than one that is just moderately mild.

If you seek an uncommonly mild cigar—of Havana fragrance—Mozart is waiting for you. It is beautifully made.

Mozart Cigar is made by Consolidated Cigar Corporation New York

Five beautiful sizes—select the one that suits you best:

- Perfectos Finos 10c
- Magics 10c
