Score Five Runs. In the fatal eighth, fatal as far as Sioux City is concerned, the locals scored their five runs on four hits, of which two were doubles. It happened this way.

Gislason walked and went to second when Snedecor slammed out a single. Griffin played the big brother act and sacrificed "Whitey" to third and "Pete" to sec-ond. Manush clouted the agate to left and Gislason and Snedecor made tracks across the pan, the hard-hitting Omaha centerfielder taking second on the throw to Grantham was issued free transportation to first, but was nabbed at second when Wilcox blew into a fielder's choice. Manush traveled down to third on the play. Wilcox pilfered second and Pitcher Wilson resumed his ascension. O'Conner doubled, scoring Manush and Wilcox and "Red" Wilder clouted out another double to center, registering O'Conner with the sixth and final Omaha tally. Okrie was an easy out and the fireworks ended.

Johnny Nove Loses. Portland, Ore., June I.—Johnny Trambitas of Portland won from Johnny Noye, St. Paul, in a tame 10-round fight here last night. In the semi-windup Battling Ortega won the decision from Billy Gardeau of Boise, Idaho.

Tobin Is Suspended After Row With Ump

St. Louis, June 1.—Rightfielder Tobin of the St. Louis Americans was given notice of an indefinite suspension yesterday afternoon by Um-pire "Brick" Owens, resulting from an altercation during Tuesday's con-test with the Detroit Tigers. Pitcher Shocker, who was ordered out of the game with Tobin, was not mentioned by Owens. Whether the notice of suspension came from Ban Johnson, league president, was unknown here.

Earl Smith, Giant Catcher,

Is Definitely Suspended Philadelphia. June 1.-The New York Giants have lost the services of one of their best catchers and con-sistent hitters. Manager McGraw announced last night before the club left for Boston the indefinite suspen-sion without pay of Earl Smith. Failure to observe training rules out-lined by McGraw led to the edict. Smith was directed to leave Philadelphia for his home in Hot Springs, Ark., this evening.

Injury to Prevent Miss

Leitch Playing in U. S. London, June 1.-Miss Ceci. Deitch, former woman golf champion, will be unable to compete in the American women's championship because of an injured arm. She strained the muscles of the forearm in the United States in 1921 and was ordered by her physician to rest it for several months. She did this, but on resuming play for the British championship this year, hurt the arm
