

This Bronze Elk Memorial to deceased Members of Omaha B.P.O.E., now stands on the crest of Elks Rest overlooking a Valley of graves in Forest Lawn Cemetery. It was dedicated at 11-P.M. May 12.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST VESSEL—The ex-German liner Bismarck, now the Majestic, arrives at Southampton, England, to be turned over to her new owners. The mighty craft, which was delivered up under the stipulations of the peace treaty to the British Admiralty, from whom it was purchased by the White Star, required ten years to build, is 956 feet in length, of 50,000 tons displacement and can accommodate 4,000 passengers.

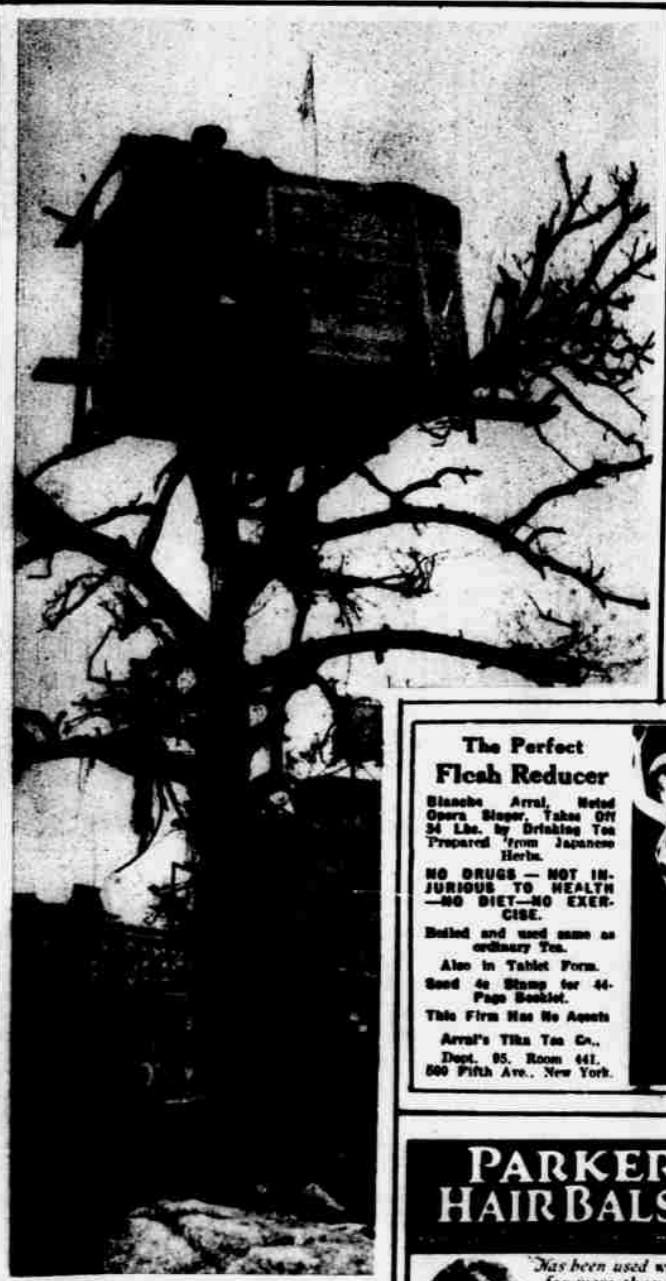

TYPISTS, ATTENTION! You may think punching a standard American typewriter with its eighty characters is a difficult task—one which you'll never really master. It's a cinch, girls, compared with the Japanese typewriter being operated by this Nipponese stenog, which prints several thousand characters somewhat after the fashion of the multigraph.

THE OWN YOUR OWN HOME IDEA as practiced by two energetic New York lads, Eugene Fata and Ed Carlson show they have the stuff of which engineers are made by building this unique tree-top bungalow in a vacant lot up 156th Street way. It is strongly built of old lumber and commands a splendid view of the surrounding neighborhood.
