Senate Abandons Night Sessions on Tariff Bill

Debate Over Duties on Knives Leads to Warm Exchange Between Simmons and Gooding.

Washington, June 10 .- The senate stion of the tariff bill, but it had difficulty in getting away owing to the fact that a record vote or amendment, demanded just before the hours agreed upon for a recess. disclosed that a quorum was not present. Later a sufficient number of senators to make up the necessary 49 was obtained and the session was brought to a close.

Pursuant to notive given Thursday night that if satisfactory pro. gress in the bill could be made in the daylight hours the night sessions would be ended, Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, in charge of theb ill, passed the word around late in the afternoon that he would move to recess at 6 p. m. A number of senators left before that time, however.

Argument Waxes Hot.

Committee amendments disposed of had to do with duties on table, butcher and other knives, and scissors and shears. Before the senate got down to the amendments therewas a lively row between Senators mmons and Gooding of Idaho, chairman of the republican agricultural tariff bloc, about duties on agricultural products. Senator Simmons charged and

Senator Gooding denied that there had been an agreemnt by which agricultural products were given protection in return for the support of the agricultural bloc for high duties on domestic products. Exchanges between the senators became heated, the Idaho senator declaring that it was "not true" that members of the block had entered into any agreement and Senator Simmons retorting that "a denial does not prove anything."

Later there was another controversy between the majority and minority when Senator Harrison, demo crat, Mississippi, sought to have the senate reconsider its vote of last night removing cash registers from the free list. Asserting that Fred B. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register company, was in Washington when the senate was voting, attending a meeting called by the republican national committee, "for the purpose of obtaining cam-paign funds," Senator Harrison declared "the people can place their own interpretation on his presence here."

"Excuse me, am I near the wounded soldiers' institute?" asked a blind veteran of a passing pedestrian, as he tapped his way along the sidewalk. "I've only been there twice, and

I'm not quite sure of the way." "You are close to it now: let me take you," came the reply. Arriving at the door, the guide said to the janitor : "Kindly take this man to the section for the blind." "Take him yourself," growled the janitor. "Under the archway on the other side of the court yard."

The civilian did so, but on the way out addressed the janitor again.

"Couldn't you be a little more obliging to the blind?" he asked, gently.

"There are too many, and I haven't the time," was the surly response.

'It seems to me it is your duty to help them," said the other. A soldier hospital attendant entered at this point before the erstwhile good Samaritan, who was immediately identified.
