

Omaha Attorney Knows Man Elected Chinese President

Harry Palmer Treated to Champagne and Cake at Home of Li Yuan-Hung in Tientsin.

Harry Palmer, Omaha attorney, probably is the only local man who knows personally the new president of the Chinese republic, Li Yuan-Hung. They met while Palmer, then a major in the army, was stationed in north China on the staff of Col. William H. Morrow, commanding the American expedition in China.

Palmer's diary of July 18, 1919, reports the Omahan's entertainment in Tientsin that day at the beautiful home of the then ex-president, 'deposed a short time before because he was the "peace man" of China.

Diary Tells of Party.
"After tea with Mr. Funatsu, the Japanese consul general, Colonel Morrow, Lieutenant Colonel Smart and I went to call on Mr. Li Yuan-Hung, ex-president of China," the diary reads. "This is the most beautiful home I have seen in China. Quite as wonderful as any home I have ever seen. We were met at the gate of the outer wall by a Chinese and Sikh soldier, as Mr. Li's home is in the British concession. Our cards were carried to Mr. Li Yuan-Hung's secretary, who came out into the garden to meet us. We had a very pleasant visit with his excellency, the ex-president, who served tea, champagne and cake.

Eyes Turned to America.

"Mr. Li said that he expected to go to America to study and that he wished to send his son to college and to law school. His secretary, Mr. Sun, is a lawyer and a graduate of Syracuse university. Mr. Li is 58 years old. He exercises regularly, rides, and has reduced his weight some 28 pounds in the last few months. He is very active and speaks some English. He learned English when a student in the naval school some 38 years ago. He personally conducted us through his home and its environs.

"As we were leaving, Mr. Li expressed deep regret that he could not return, Colonel Morrow's call in person as he was being watched with suspicion from Peking and his actions in making the call might be misconstrued. He urged us to call again soon and have dinner with him."

Is Promising Sign.

Mr. Li's return to popular favor is a promising sign for China, Palmer believes.

It was an interesting coincidence that both other officers with Palmer that day had formerly been stationed in Omaha. Morrow's brother was formerly in the law office of John Lee Webster and Lieutenant Colonel Smart married May Sullivan, an Omaha girl, while he was stationed at Fort Crook.

Capper-Tincher Grain Futures Bill Reported

House Committee on Agriculture Reports Measure With Only Minor Changes From Original Form.

Omaha Has Lined Wire.
Washington, June 12.—Favorable action was taken in the house committee on agriculture on the Capper-Tincher bill re-enacting the grain futures act to meet objections in the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States. The bill was approved with only minor changes from the form in which it was drafted in the Department of Agriculture. The bill will be considered by the house on Thursday. The measure is designed to accomplish the same result as the original grain futures act, but bases the authority for the regulation of grain exchanges on the commerce clause of the constitution instead of using the taxing power. The committee refused to delay action on the bill in order to permit a representative of the railroad and warehouse commission of Minnesota to be heard. P. P. Quist, who is in charge of the weighing service of the Minnesota commission, was to be present at today's hearing, but was delayed by a railroad washout and telegraphed that he would be on hand tomorrow.

Mr. Quist had intended to urge the committee to eliminate the section of the bill giving the secretary of agriculture authority over inspection of weighing service, which was not provided in the original grain futures act.

12 Rescued by Life Guards at Beaches

Twelve persons, among them two women, were rescued by life guards at the four beaches in Omaha Sunday. Ira Jones, director of recreation, reported to the park commissioner there were 8,000 persons in the water at the four beaches Sunday. At Riverview park, eight persons, including two women, were rescued by Life Guards George McGrane and Herb Schrader. One man fought so hard in his struggles that McGrane had to take him to the bottom of the pool to break his hold.

Two were rescued at Municipal beach by Guard Harold Coffey and two at Morton pool by Guard Billy Earl. This is not an unusual number of rescues for so early in the season, according to Jones.

County Democratic Club Behind Shannon for Sheriff

J. J. Shannon, who filed yesterday for the democratic nomination for sheriff, has been endorsed by the Douglas County Democratic club whose members promoted his candidacy. Mr. Shannon was a member of the state legislature of 1917-1918. He sponsored the twice-a-month payday bill for railroad employees and was father of the bill which required rear vestibules on street cars.

"The records will show that I led in the fight for woman's suffrage," Mr. Shannon said.

Grahams Fail to Agree on Financial Settlement

Failing to reach a financial settlement yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Graham will have a private conference with District Judge Sears at 8 this morning, preceding the hearing of a suit for separate maintenance, started by Mrs. Graham.

The ice cream manufacturer, though worth $100,000, according to the wife, is willing to pay her only $100 alimony. She asks $300. A compromise may be affected. The couple have a 14-year-old son, Howard, Jr., who is to be kept in school at the expense of his father.

Woman Burned to Death

Portland, Ore., June 12.—Mrs. Mary Edwards, 42, was found enveloped in flames in a park here yesterday and died soon afterwards. Her clothing had been saturated with kerosene. She gave no explanation of the affair. Persons attracted by her cries said she apparently had deliberately saturated her clothing with the inflammable fluid and touched a match to it.

Breckenridge Long Comes to Defense of Hoover

Plattsburg, Mo., June 12.—Defense of Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, was made here Saturday by Breckenridge Long, candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator. Long attempted to show that Hoover, attacked so bitterly by Senator Reed, had little to do with the fixing of wheat prices. Reed has been quoted as charging Hoover made farmers lose billions by fixing maximum wheat prices during the war at figures intended by congress to be a minimum.
