

Mr. L. O. Tenham

8 Boils at Once

Afflicted me—in fact I think no one ever suffered more from impure blood. Every pimple or scratch would spread, sometimes making sores as large as a dollar. Four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla have thoroughly purified my blood and my skin is smooth as an infant's. I never felt better. L. O. TENHAM, Newhall, California.

"On what does Skiffins base his suit for libel?"

"On a casual reference to him as the ideal juror in a capital case."

"I tell you," said one of the conversationists who were gathered about the village store, "some men has the knack. Look at Si Perkins. Everything he touches turns ter money."

"Yes," said Hiram Stackers, "thet's the difference between me an' Si: I teched some real money once, an' I'm durned ef it didn't turn into sawdust."

Visitor—What's that big pole sticking out of the ground there?

Native—Why, that's the axis of the earth. Didn't you know that you were in Boston?

"Is auntie a delusion, mamma?"

"Why, Bertie! What put such an outlandish question into your head?"

"Well, I heard papa say that Mr. Gofast was always hugging some delusion or other, and last eyening—"

"Bertie! He did not!"

Lady—Have you "Fashionable Sins," or "A Gilded Sin?"

Clerk—Neither, madam.

Lady—Then give me "Two Kisses."

"Do you think that young Chinkles will succeed in business?"

"Succeed in business! I should say not. Why, he'd try to organize an ice water trust in October."

"Smith says he has the key to the situation."

"Shut the door! He'll be here in less than ten minutes to borrow a dollar to get the lock!"

"Mrs. Bolton is looking extremely well. What do you attribute it to?"

"The dressmaker, of course, dear."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."—T. D. M., Norcatur, Kans.
