Alleged Gomicalties.

Jack—I suppose you had a lovely time in Philadelphia.

Jess—I should say we did; there was not a morning that we didn't go out of town for the day.

Tom—You ought not to consider your case as hopeless just because she said "no."

Jack—To be perfect exact, what she said was "rats!"

May—If your garter fell on the side-walk would you stop and yick it up if no one was looking?

May (regretfully)—I suppose I would have to, dear.

Gothamite—How can you tell an honest man when you see him?

Lakeside—I've almost forgotten. I've been a Chicagon for nearly a year now.

Tagleigh—Snobleigh claims that he moves in the most exclusive circles.

Wagleigh—Of course he does. He has to move. They won't let him stay there.

"Spare no pains to bring about the destruction of this monster," cried the Cinghalese maiden. "I implore you!"

Though but still a maid, forty summers or more had rolled over her head, and the tigress, whose death she wished to compass, was a man-eater.

Marlowe—I see that some unknown man has sent 25 cents to the Government Conscience Fund.

Bixby—Gad! it's too bad he is unknown. A man with even a 25-cent conscience would be such a valuable addition to our police force.

Madge—What's your Russian fiance's name?

Mabel (after a pause)—When can you give me an afternohn off?

Madge—Thursday.

Madel—All right. Come around and I'll tell you.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENNEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 76 cents.

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg, from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."

We have seen a number of watch chains ornamented with a pretty charm in the shape of a watch case opener, which obviates the use of a knife or fingernail to open the watch. They are sent free on request by the Keystone Watch Case Company, of Philadelphia, Pa. Your jeweler here may have one for you; if not, send to Philadelphia.

The Keystone Watch Case Company is the largest concern of its kind in the world. Its capacity is 2500 cases per day. It manufactures every description of case, but its great speciality is that most popular of all watch cases, the Jas. Boss gold filled. These are equal in beauty and wear to solid gold—while they cost only about half as much. Boss and other Keystone cases are the only cases that have the non-pull-out bow or ring, which saves the watch from theft and accident. The Keystone Company does not retail, but our local dealers handle the cases and swear by the theft-proof qualities of the ring.
