

ADDITIONAL LINCOLN.

Mr. George C. Williams gave an elocution recital in Nebraska conservatory hall, Thirteenth and L streets, last evening. He read from Ballard, Phillips, Riley, Shakespeare and Hall. Mrs. Gray and Miss Davis added much to the program by their musical selections.

A reception will be given Saturday evening, October 6th, in the chapel of the Lincoln Normal University for the new students. A good musical program has been prepared and a general good time is expected.

Mr. L. G. Rollins, who has been ill with brain fever, is much improved.

M. S. Tonsey of Anderson, Ind., is a guest of President and Mrs. Croan of the Western Normal.

Mrs. C. M. Shepherd returned Thursday from Falls City where she has been for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fife gave a very delightful reception Friday evening at their home, 227 south Eighteenth street, to the state university and college students. The house was thronged with students the entire evening and a most enjoyable time was had by all present.

A quiet but pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morrison of St. Paul avenue, University Place, Thursday at high noon. The contracting parties were Miss Anna Morrison and Mr. C. A. Hiles Jr., of Chicago. Miss Morrison is a young lady of remarkable talent and is very popular among the young people with whom she associates. Mr. Hiles is a highly respected member of a large manufacturing firm of Chicago. After the young couple had been showered with congratulations they departed for Sioux City, before going to Chicago, where they will make their future home.

Miss Anna Dunn entertained a large number of friends on Thursday and Friday evenings at whist. Delicate refreshments and cute and novel prizes proved the hospitality of the hostess.

Mrs. Amasa Cobbs is still quite ill.

Miss Ferguson, of St. Louis, is in the city working up interest in a dancing school to be organized at once. Miss Ferguson will be assisted by Miss Evans, and both ladies come highly recommended by Prof. Jacob Mahlen, who is so well and favorably remembered by Lincoln people as a past master of the art of dancing.

IN OMAHA.

Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick is in the east.

Mrs. Watson Smith leaves on Monday for a two months visit at Summit, N. Y.

Miss Woolworth is home again from a summer spent in the east.

The marriage of Mr. Isaac A. Coles to Miss Elna Balch occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Balch on Wednesday at two o'clock, Rev. Charles Gardner performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Coles left for Chicago and will return in time for the marriage of Miss Balch to Mr. Reed which comes off the twenty-third.

Mrs. E. L. Dundy and Miss Dundy are at home from a summer spent in Canada and the east.

Mrs. Frank Colpetzer and Miss Colpetzer went over to Chicago Sunday.

Miss Helen Hoagland returned to Miss Graham's school at New York on Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Reed and Miss Agnes Reed went to New York on Sunday. Miss Reed will resume her studies at Miss Ely's. Mrs. Reed will spend the month of October with her and then visit in Boston enroute home.

Mrs. Wessells, who has been visiting Mrs. Francis Wessells left for the east on Sunday.

Mrs. Lucius Wakeley went to her home at Chicago on Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Kimball gave a most delightful musicale on Wednesday evening.

Col. and Mrs. M. V. Sheridan, who spent a few days in town returned to St. Paul, Sunday.

The minstrel performance for the Creche will be given October 18 at Boyd's opera house.

Miss Emily Wakely accompanied Mrs. Lucius Wakely to Chicago.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh, a son.

Senator and Mrs. Manderson are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick.

Miss Yates has returned from St. Joseph.

Mrs. Morsman is home from Michigan.

Mrs. Garneau went to St. Louis this week.

The Woman's club held its first meeting of this season Monday afternoon.

Lieutenants John C. McArthur and Briant H. Wells, this year's graduates from West Point, are recent acquisitions to the Second Infantry.

A number of people from here went to Council Bluffs Thursday afternoon to the reception given by Col. Everett in honor of the officers of the Society of the Tennessee.

Prepare your folks at home for the cold weather. Herpolsheimer & Co. are headquarters for underwear—attend their special sale.

These chilly mornings and evenings the children need heavier underwear. Go to headquarters for it at Herpolsheimer & Co—sale now in progress.

AT THE THEATRE.

Robert Downing presented "The Gladiator" at the Lansing theatre Monday evening, giving an elaborate presentation of what is to most people, a tiresome play. "The Gladiator" and "Virginius" are too melodramatically heroic to appeal with much effect to the modern taste. Stage declamation isn't the vogue just now, Thomas W. Keene to the contrary, notwithstanding. Mr. Downing is a most painstaking artist; but his endeavor does not go out along the proper lines. His company this season is not strong, particularly the female part of it. Eugenie Blair must, it seems, be taken along with Downing; she is not a competent actress.

Spink's new racing play, "The Derby Winner," with Arthur Dunn as the principal comedian, was presented at the Lansing Thursday night. The author has borrowed many of his ideas from "The Henrietta," "In Old Kentucky," etc. and the play per se is notably weak. It is saved from failure by some particularly clever work by the company. Dunn was last seen here in Henderson's extravaganza "Sinbad," in which with his whiskers he made a decided hit. He is one of the funniest comedians in this country. His fun is spontaneous in much the same manner as Seabrooke's or Francis Wilson's. Dunn made the play a success and provoked warmer applause than is usually received from a Lincoln audience. But there are other clever people in "The Derby Winner" besides Dunn. W. Eldridge, a real darkey, who plays Gillie Jones, a jockey, gave what was, perhaps, the best dancing sketch ever put on the Lansing stage. He is, in theatrical parlance, "a wonder." Frank Dayton exhibited a newness in his part, Milt West. This actor was formerly seen in Lincoln in "Shenandoah." Max Miller and J. P. Lee succeeded in investing some new qualities of mirth in the Frenchman and Duchman combination. Lee's dog in the pit story in the second act was high art in its own line. The racing feature of the play was inferior to the best of this class of plays.

A dollar quality for 75c; a 75c quality for 50c at Herpolsheimer & Co.'s underwear sale.

The warmth of wool and wear of cotton in the fleeced hose at Herpolsheimer & Co., 25c, 35c, and 50c; also the out sizes.