

The first large reception of '95 was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rogers at their beautiful home on K street. The guests commenced to arrive at about 8:30 p. m. and a continual stream of humanity passed in and out the Rogers home.

The interior decorations for the occasion were generously distributed throughout the house. The dining room, where delicate refreshment were served during the evening, under the direction of Mrs. Carl Funke and Mrs. Walter B. Hargreaves, was gorgeously decorated with lavender drapings, smilax and violets. About two hundred paid their compliments to the host and hostess during the evening, and after the crowd had thinned out dancing was the order of the evening.

Miss Eikenburg of Plattsmouth is in the city visiting her cousin, Miss Olive Latta.

Salt Lake has been crowded during the past week with skaters who are taking advantage of the fine skating—making hay while the sun shines, as it were.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross L. Curtice returned from their wedding trip last Sunday.

Mrs. George W. Avery is in the city, the guest of Mr. C. A. Howe.

Mrs. E. E. Brown opened her elegant home last Monday to the members and friends of the Woman's club. This is, in fact, the first reception given to the club and has set an example for much future enjoyment and social prosperity in bringing together sympathizers of this club. Mrs. Brown was assisted by Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Henry Oliver, Miss Agnes Sewell and Miss Stella Elliott.

E. S. Dundy, Jr., of Omaha, was in the city Monday taking testimony in federal court cases.

The next Cotillon will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Buckstaff, Wednesday, January 23rd. Miss Jeannette Wilson, Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves and Mrs. Chas. L. Burr will have charge of the favors.

Miss Mae Burr leaves for St. Joseph, Mo., Tuesday, where she will visit her friend, Miss Norman.

Messrs. Mart Aitken, J. H. Harley, R. H. Townley and N. C. Abbott are in Sioux City this week attending the whist tournament.

Pryor Markell who is well and favorably known in this city was here Thursday.

John Dowden of the Lansing theatre has been on the sick list the past week.

Miss Gertrude Harding Laws and Mr. William E. Hardy were married in the city of Enid, Okla., Wednesday, January 11, and have gone to New York on their wedding trip, Miss Laws and Mr. Hardy are well known here both in social and literary circles and while it is true that Miss Laws has been away from this city for a number of years, yet she is distinctively a Lincoln girl. Mr. Hardy is a man of sterling qualities and needs no introduction as he has lived among the citizens of Lincoln nearly all his life and is one of the most respected young men not only in social and literary circles but in the business world as well. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy will be at home at 1825 M street after February 15.

J. B. Ferguson has gone to Chicago.

S. G. King left yesterday for Champaign, Ill.

Ivol Cramer left for Loamington, Ill., yesterday.

Mrs. L. L. Stewart left yesterday for San Diego, Cal.

C. N. Levy, superintendent of the Iowa system of the Burlington, was in the city yesterday eastbound.

Attorney-General Churchill is registered at the Windsor. Mr. Churchill does not intend to remove his family here, for some time at least.

Brad Slaughter, who has been appointed receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, is at the Lincoln, where he will remain some time, at least until some radical change takes place in the affairs of the company.

Mr. Chas. C. Upham returned last week from New York after an extended visit of nearly half a year.

At the presentation of "A Jolly Good Fellow" by Mr. Charles Dickson, Mrs. S. C. Brock, Miss Rachel Brock and Mr. George Woods composed one of the box parties and Miss Mame Carson, Miss Mae Burr, Mr. C. A. Howe and Mrs. George W. Avery, of Sioux City, composed the other.

E. Rosewater spent four hours in this tainted atmosphere yesterday and then rushed back to the headquarters of pure ozone and gall and other things on Farnam street. Chimpanzees corporation comorants, legislative pick pockets and other animals of the fields which the editor imagines inhabit this real were not visible to the naked eye during the aforessid four hours.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE