

The past week in society has been very lively. The Marshall-White wedding was the most important event. The German given by the Patriarchs club was pronounced by all present as the most successful one ever given in the city. The Young Men's Republican club banquet and the Junior promenade were both well attended.

The Olympic Whist club were entertained at the residence of J. W. Winger, 1248 J street, last evening. Those present were: Miss Helen Hoover, Miss Grace Huntsinger, Miss Bertha Hoddy, Miss Stella Curtice, Miss Daisy Cochrane, Miss Sadie Graham, Miss Helen Harwood, Miss Josephine Treeman, Miss Grace Ashton, Miss Josephine Lottridge, Miss Flora Winger, Miss Joe Winger, Mr. Clare Young, Mr. Artie Chapman, Mr. Homer Honeywell, Mr. Harry Grupe, Mr. Frank Kitchen, Mr. George Johnson, Mr. Jno. L. Lottridge, Mr. Wilson Winger, Mr. Ted Winger and Mr. Ernest Folsom.

Mr. Howard Rathbune entertained a few friends at his home 1607 M street Wednesday evening in a most pleasing manner. High five and dancing furnished the evenings amusement after which light refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Marian Parks, Miss Mildred Parks, Miss Hattie Webster, Miss Helen Howland, Miss Mamie Joers, Miss Marie Feeney, Mr. Chas. Caldwell, Mr. Homer Webster, Mr. Sam North, Mr. Winthrop and Mr. Mark Rathburn.

Miss Ruby Prindle entertained at her home Thirteenth and South streets Tuesday evening. Among those present were: Misses Mina Furr, Winnie Furr, Etta Ensey, Maggie Thirbaut, Elsie Blake, Edna Pierce, Ida Herpolsheimer and Mrs. Wortham. Messrs. W. S. Wortham, Cole, N. Lawler, A. Barber, O. G. Atkinson, William Rivers and D. M. Small. Cards, music, dancing and refreshments contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The Vine Street Congregational church held a valentine social at their church Wednesday evening. A good program had been arranged and was well rendered. Miss Churchill sang "Forget Me Not," in a manner that pleased the audience immensely and she was compelled to respond to an encore. After the program had been carried out the guests enjoyed themselves in a social way and were served with light refreshments.

The Crokinole club was entertained last Friday evening by Mr. Will Green assisted by the Misses Green at their home on Twenty-fifth and R streets. Miss Ethel Wheeler and Mr. Earl Woodward were awarded the honors of the evening after a vigorous contest. The refreshments served were dainty and the guests departed at a late hour. Those present were: Misses Alabaster, Anderson, Bell, Green, Lasch, Stearns, Upton, Watson, Wheeler. Messrs. J. A. and W. A. Bailey, Blake, Bonebrake, Cunningham, Green, Helmes, Ricketts, Seybolt and Woodward.

The Union club has perfected arrangements for a whist tournament which will be held every Saturday evening at their rooms. The game is played under the Chicago plan of duplicate progressive whist and the games are hotly contested. Last Saturday evening McDonald and Blish had the highest score. Those who participated were: Messrs Harley, Walsh, Cornish, Hellwig, Alexander, Hammond, Hall, Baker, Folsom, McFarland, Green, Townley, Abbott Ewing, Haggard, Magoon, Dayton, Traphagan, Wilson, Edwards, Rammons, Smith, Righter, Jones and Spencer.

Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Ruby, of Chicago, are visiting their sister Mrs. Jno. B. Wright.

Miss Alexander and Miss Leavenworth, of Omaha, are visiting Mrs. S. H. Burnham.

One of the largest as well as the most successful Germans ever given by the Patriarch club was given at the Lansing hall Wednesday evening. It was led by Lieutenant Pershing and Miss Clark. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Morrill daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Righter, Mr. and Mrs. Lieut. R. H. Townley, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Imhoff, Miss Clark, Mrs. C. H. Gere, Miss Francis Gere, Miss Ogden, Miss Alexander, of Omaha; Miss Leavenworth, of Omaha; Miss Sarah Harris, Miss Cora Hardy, Miss Lottie Whedon, Miss Jeanette Wilson, Miss Jennie Underwood, Mrs. Jno. R. Clark, Mrs. Paddock, of Chicago; Miss Ruby, Miss Robinson, of Chicago; Lieut. Pershing, Mr. Dan Wing, Mr. C. A. Hanna, Mr. F. M. Cook, Mr. Owens, Mr. Will Meyer, Prof. White, Mr. Emery Hardy, ex-Gov. Nance, Mr. Will Raymond, Mr. C. A. Howe, Mr. Martin Aitken and Mr. Phillips, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thompson will give a cotillon next Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Norman and Miss Brown, of St. Joseph, who are the guests of Miss Mae Burr.

Thursday evening at the Lincoln hotel took place one of the pleasantest parties of the season. The occasion was the annual promenade of the Junior class at the state university. The dining room was fitted up for the dancing and was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Decorations were furnished by the fraternities and societies of the college. Over the door was the emblem and colors of the Sigma Chi fraternity. At the north end of the hall was the emblem and colors of the Beta Theta fraternity. On the west side of the hall company B had a large trophy of guns and flags. At the south end of the hall was a beautiful panel in royal purple and old gold on one side, the colors and emblem of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and on the other side was a panel in light and dark blue the colors are the beautiful fleur de les of the Kappa Kappa Gamma society. On the centre, the sideboard was draped in in the university colors of scarlet and cream and the class of '96 had its colors of sapphire and salmon with the date '96 in a conspicuous place. On the east side of the hall the Delta Tau Delta fraternity had a large floral emblem and their colors. A long dancing program was arranged. The grand march was led by president of the board of regents, Hon. C. H. Morrill and lady. About sixty couples were present and the dainty costumes of the ladies with the severe but elegant full dress of the gentleman made it a delightful scene. The patrons of the promenade were Mr. and Mrs. Morrill, Chancellor and Mrs. Canfield, Prof. and Mrs. L. A. Sherman, Prof. and Mrs. Ansley, Prof. and Mrs. Ward, Prof. Taylor and lady, Prof. and Mrs. Allen, Prof. and Mrs. Fling, Lieut. Pershing and lady, Prof. and Mrs. Barbour, Prof. and Mrs. Richards and Miss Ellen Smith.

The Ravolla club entertained the Empire club in the Lansing hall last Friday evening.

The Pleasant Hour club gave the largest party of the season at the Lincoln hotel last Friday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Inman and daughter, of Broken Bow, are visiting Mrs. L. P. Gould.

Rheumatic Twinges

Are escaped by the use of HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC NO. 15. The infallible cure for rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. For sale by all druggists. 25c.