

evening. After Dick Hellwig had been declared the winner of the royal prize and Mr. Bowen the booby, refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Krone, Hellwig, Peters, Ramsey, Hale, Pearce, Moran, Larsen, Polwoosky and McWhinnie; Messrs Dan Hellwig, McNeal, Bowen, Gascoigne, Jeckell, Morse and Dick Hellwig.

Thursday evening at the residence of C. F. White, 1234 K street, J. W. Hensley was married to Miss Marie Franks. There were about sixty guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Hensley left yesterday for Denver. They will be gone about a week. The bride is a sister of Mrs. White, and Mr. Hensley is in the employ of Raymond Bros.

The Round Table met at the residence of Hon. A. S. Tibbetts, 658 So. Seventeenth street, Monday, March 25th. Hon. A. J. Sawyer, S. L. Geisthardt, Hon. A. S. Tibbetts and H. H. Wilson discussed for one hour "Coin's Financial School," continued from last meeting. The debate was followed by a general discussion.

The reading which William Reed Dunroy has had in contemplation for some weeks will be given April 8th in the chapel of the state university. As previously announced Mr. Bryan will make the opening address and the program will include music. Mr. Dunroy will read from his prose and poetry.

The Union society of the state university has elected the following officers: Miss Catherine Melick, president; S. H. Martin, vice-president; Miss Anna Prey, recording secretary; C. M. Barr, corresponding secretary; J. P. Cameron, treasurer; H. E. Newbranch, critic; N. C. Abbott, sergeant-at-arms.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturdevant, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss May Skidmore, of Boone, Ia.; Miss Addie Ratray, of Des Moines, Ia., and Mrs. Dell Eldrege, of York, were in the city Wednesday attending the Gilbert-Conner wedding.

The Sigma Chis occupied one of the boxes at the Dramatic club's performance Monday evening at the Funke. The occupants were Messrs. Mallalieu, Hebbard and Duff; Misses Marshall, Moore and Griffith.

A feature of the women's edition of the Call to be issued today will be portraits of W. E. Clark, Dr. Spahr, Job Sherman, Guy Hurlbut, and four or five other young men prominent in society.

Hon. H. C. Andrews, of Kearney, came down to see his son, Ralph, take part in the Dramatic club's entertainment Monday night. "Curley" displayed considerable dramatic ability.

Miss Myrtle Friel very pleasantly entertained a few friends at her home, 2314 W street, Wednesday evening in honor of her nineteenth birthday anniversary.

A. M. Baird read a paper on "The Strength of American Democracy" at the meeting of the Unity club of the Universalist church Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. Hallett has returned from Ottumwa, Iowa, where she was called a month ago by the illness of her mother who was much better when she left.

Charles P. Heater and Miss Alla G. Lantz were united in marriage by Rev. E. H. Chapin at the residence of the bride's parents Sunday.

Dr. F. D. Crim has resigned as coroner and will remove with his family to South Carolina. Dr. Winnett was appointed as his successor.

Miss Carrie Wasmer, of Grand Island, arrived in the city Friday and will visit a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall.

Sorosis met with Miss Richardson Monday afternoon. The subject discussed was, "The Charity Question in America."

Jared G. Smith has secured an appointment as assistant grass expert in the department of agriculture in Washington.

The oratorio "Crucifixion" will be given by the choir of the First Congregational church Easter Sunday.

F. W. Brown, George Dayton and J. H. Harley left Saturday for Deuel county in search of small game.

E. Martin Mayer has gone to St. Joseph, Mo., to spend his vacation with parents and friends.

The Patriarchs may be entertained by the bachelor members of that organization after Lent.

Charles O. Robinson, of Chicago, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. John B. Wright this week.

The Lincoln Light Infantry will apply for admission into the Nebraska National Guards.

W. H. Wheeler, of Omaha, is in the city, reporting proceedings in the federal court.

Clifford Westcott is making a short visit at "Sunnyside," his home in Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Abbott entertained the Whist club Friday evening.

Miss Sue Gustin, of Kearney, formerly of Lincoln, is visiting Miss Towre.

John T. Mallalieu and daughter spent several days in the city last week.

Miss Woods, of Kansas City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Branch.

C. H. Morrill and J. H. Ager were hunting in Colorado this week.

Mrs. Frank W. Smith, of Alliance, Neb., is visiting in the city.

William Reed Dunroy is in Omaha.

Cal Thompson is in Hot Springs.

"77."

Dr. Humphreys' Specific "77" for grippe and colds is now on every tongue. It will "break up" an obstinate cold that "hangs on." For sale by all druggists.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE