ON THE WHEEL.

"That idea of yours in reference to a bicycle drill battalion is just the thing," said Capt. Frank Hoagland to THE COURIER the other day. "Denver has one and it is a feature in every parade in the city. Lincoln ought to have one and I, for one, will be among those who may agree to organize such a company."

The Wanderers were out again on an evening run last Monday night.

At 6 o'clock last Sunday morning, 2nd Lieut. Hank Peters, Capt. Frank Hoagland and Bruce Gilbert left the Capital City Club rooms for Beatrice, they being the only members of the club to start on the regular club run for that city. The run down was a pleasant one and the boys arrived at Beatrice about 10:30. On arriving, they were met and escorted about the city by a number of the Beatrice club members, of whom Capt. Hoagland and his companions are enthusiastic in their praise. After dinner they started for Cortland, where they intended to witness the ball game. On account of the rain they were compelled to take the rail road track. They had, as "Chimmie" says "a great mux of a time," and arrived at Cortland just in time to see the train depart for Lincoln. Tired with the rain and mud and not with their wheeling enthusiasm they hired a team, and wheels and riders were put down at home at 11:30 p. m.

Messrs. Hawley, McKane, Sullivan and a number of others left the city last Sunday afternoon for Courtland where they intended to witness the ball game between Lincoln and Peoria at that place. On account of the rain they were compelled to board a train for their destination where, after witnessing the game they again took the train for Lincoln.

President Ed. M. Allen and his brother Will, made the run to Crete last Sunday. On the return trip they were caught by the rain and had a great time walking up hill and riding down in the mud, arriving home at 1 A. M. Monday.

He is considered one of the fast men of the city. The other evening he came in from the track and as he staggered into a certain headquarters for the boys pushing a spring frame Victor and all dripping with perspiration, he murmured just above his breath, "Tell 'em what I did, Mac," and Mac, all smiles, answered, "all right, 2:20."

Benson will soon be haunting the track on dark nights on a seventeen pound Smalley.

"I understand you are riding quarters in 30's." "Pshaw! If I did as much talking as you do I would not run with men that were not as speedy as Baldwin, Zeigler and those fellows. Of course you are in their class." Say, boys, that hurt me.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Leonard have purchased and will ride Sterling wheels.

A. M. Dickey has received his new Sylph racer.

The Lincoln Cycle Company are very rapidly popularizing the Sterling and Sylph wheels.

The Curtice Co.'s bicycle school is growing very popular with ladies learning to ride wheels.

South 17th street, during the beautiful moon-light nights of this week, has been a continuous line of cycling ladies and gentlemen, and bloomers were very numerous. The ride out to 17th and South and return is growing more popular every day.

There are many of the 4 C members who regret the abandonment of the Decoration day road race of the club. It certainly was the greatest advertisement in the city for cycling.

Local race men are putting in all their time evenings in coaxing speed out of their machines.

What has become of the agitation for the interstate meet.

Kearney showed her metal in obtaining the state meet.

The run tomorrow will be to Hickman 16 miles, and return. The start will be made from the club rooms on So. 12th at 8:30 A. M. Taking dinner at that place the participants will start on the return at 2 P. M. This is a short run and a pleasant one and was planned by Capt. Hoagland for the ladies' benefit and it is hoped that a number of ladies will join the riders whether members of the club or not.

Many of the prizes for the races of the 30th are on exhibition at Seacrest & Yule's place on N. 13th street.

Most of the race men are watching Alvy Hawley pretty closely. Some of them believe Alvy to be very fast, while others doubt his being possessed of any speed at all. Well, the 30th will solve the question.

Banks and Mockett are, it is evident, in better form than ever before and are doing some hard riding too. Many believe they will lower their records by several seconds.
