

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker are in Manitou.
 A. G. Beemer has returned from Denver.
 Beman Dawes has gone to Marietta, Ohio.
 Bishop Bonacum has returned from St. Louis.
 Oscar Funke, of Omaha, was in town this week.
 C. A. Atkinson left Wednesday for Mississippi.
 H. G. Whitmore left Thursday for the Black Hills.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis have gone to Minneapolis.
 Miss Nellie Marshall is visiting friends in Grand Island.
 Mrs. F. L. King returned from Lake Geneva Thursday.
 Miss Laura Houtz is visiting relatives in Huntingdon, Ore.
 Homer J. Edmiston visited friends in Omaha this week.
 Miss Claude Gwinn has returned from a visit to Benton, Ia.
 Charles A. Robbins returned Saturday from central Illinois.
 Dr. Ruth M. Wood is spending the summer in Wyoming.
 Frank S. Burr left Tuesday for Spirit Lake, Iowa, on his wheel.
 Ed A. Church returned from New York and Chicago yesterday.
 Miss Reba Duff, of Nebraska City, is the guest of Miss Ona Imhoff.
 Mr. George Avery of Sioux City was visiting in this city this week.
 Miss Lillian Wehn, of Alliance, visited friends in Lincoln this week.
 A party of Lincoln people for the Yellowstone Park is projected.
 C. W. Eckermann has returned from Washington, Iowa, his home.
 Rev. Samuel Williams, of Riverton, is the guest of Henry E. Dawes.
 Miss Mae Lansing has returned from an extended visit in Michigan.
 Robert McVicker, of North Bend, is visiting his son Hugh McVicker.
 Charles B. Gregory returned the first of the week from Custer City, S. D.
 There were a number of small picnic parties at Lincoln Park this week.
 John Wilkes of Grand Rapids, Mich., visited his aunt Mrs. Putnam this week.
 Prof. and Mrs. C. F. Ansley left Thursday for Illinois to spend the summer.
 Rev. Lewis Gregory is improved in health, and will leave for Long Island shortly.
 T. F. A. Williams, who has been visiting in Shelby, Iowa, has returned to Lincoln.
 Miss Katharine Weston of Beatrice, passed through the city Monday enroute to Denver.
 Prof. and Mrs. Amos Warner, formerly of this city, are spending the summer in Manitou.
 Mrs. Lew Marshall spent the first part of the week in Grand Island, visiting Miss Wasmer.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Blish are spending a couple of weeks among the lakes of Minnesota.
 Miss Nellie Lau has gone to Hastings where she will be the guest of Miss Stella Payne.
 Mrs. Charles S. McKenney left Thursday for the Pacific coast, intending to remain a year.
 Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright have gone on a short trip to Chicago and eastern points.
 Mr. and Harry Vinsonlaler have returned from St. Louis and are stopping at the Lindell.
 Prof. Bruner will go to Denver next week to attend the national convention of entomologists.
 C. O. Whedon and daughter, Miss Lottie, have returned from Battle Creek and Chicago.
 Miss Ada Gregg, of Kansas City, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Welch, returned home Saturday.
 Miss Sarah B. Harris entertained a small number of ladies yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Little.

 Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Brace will remove to Denver, Mr. Brace having already been in that city some time.
 Mrs. D. W. C. Huntingdon and daughter left Tuesday for Ocean Grove, N. J., to spend the summer.
 Miss Winifred Norval, of Seward, and Miss Nettie Kirley, of Beatrice, are the guests of Miss Helen Nance.
 Charles L. Burr, Ross Curtice, Fred White and Lew Marshall returned Thursday from Grand Island.
 Rev. George Danforth of the Montana state college occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church last Sunday.
 John M. Thayer, Jr. has removed, with his family, to Beatrice, to accept a position in the institute for feeble minded youth.
 The Baptist Sunday school classes of Richard Missions and Miss Elinor Williams picniced at Lincoln park yesterday afternoon.
 Miss Grace Cassell, who has been visiting Miss Henrietta Hollowbush, returned to Jacksonville, Ill., the last of this week.
 Miss Ura Kelley, is in Denver with her father W. R. Kelley. They will go to San Francisco next week to sail for Honolulu.
 Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave an informal dancing party in the fraternity hall in the First National bank building last evening.
 One or two small entertainments were given this week in honor of Mrs. Charles N. Little, of California, who is visiting in the city.
 M. W. Richardson formerly principal of the high school in the city, has been elected superintendent of schools in Milton, Mass.
 W. F. Kelley left Thursday for Mt. Pleasant, Ia., where he will join Mrs. Kelley. They will remain in Iowa through August.
 The Christian Endeavorers of St. Marks church gave a very pleasant lawn social on the church grounds last Friday evening.
 Miss Willa Cather came from her home in Red Cloud to spend a few days in Lincoln this week with her friend Miss Mary Jones.
 G. M. Barrett, of Falls City, and Miss Lou Whittaker, were united in marriage Sunday at the residence of Jule Schoenheit, 1624 D street.
 It is reported from Omaha that Judge Dundy's illness may prevent him from assuming his official duties again—at least for some time.
 Mr. Widensall of Chicago, the originator of the Young Woman's Christian Association, visited in Lincoln the early part of the week.
 G. P. Faucon returned the first of the week from Boston. He spent three weeks in the east and attended a reunion of his college class.
 George F. Walker, of Ashland, and Miss Frances Munson, of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Rev. Byron Beall.
 Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dorgan returned from their extended wedding trip Sunday and immediately took possession of their new home at Fourteenth and E streets.
 S. L. Geisthardt left Sunday for New York, intending to sail this week for Hamburg. He will make a tour of Germany, Switzerland, Italy, France and England.
 Rev. J. M. Thompson left Monday for Des Moines, where he will visit friends and relatives. He will go from there to Baltimore, returning the first of September.
 Miss Myrtle Coon, of Omaha, is the guest of Miss Kate Kluetsch. Miss Coon is a prominent singer in Omaha. She is expected to sing in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning.
 Cards announcing the marriage of John F. Harris have been received in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are now touring in Great Britain, and will make their home in the Virginia hotel, Chicago, in the autumn.
 E. B. Finch and Dr. William Vance of Kearney, laid over Monday for repairs. They are making a tour of the state on a tandem but met with a serious accident by running off a bridge near the city.

You Saw THIS ADVERTISEMENT; Of Course you Did.

And so Would Every Reader of Lincoln's Only Weekly Paper

THE COURIER.

Who Reads the COURIER?

- Society Reads It.
- Merchants Read It.
- Wheelmen Read It.
- Lovers of Base Ball Read It.
- The Men Read It.
- The Women Read It.
- Literary People Read It.
- Lawn Tennis Players Read It.

As a Fact, Everyone Reads It.

Are You in its Columns as an Advertiser?

IF NOT, WHY NOT?

Shipped pure and unadulterated direct from the distillery. Pronounced a pure and wholesome tonic-stimulant by the medical fraternity everywhere. Gives life, strength and happiness to the weak, sick, aged and infirm.

If you cannot procure it of your druggist or liquor dealers, upon receipt of $1.50 we will express prepaid to any address a full quart sample bottle of Old Elk Rye or Bourbon.
STOLL, VANNATA & CO., DISTILLERS
 Lexington, Ky.

When the ice man comes be sure
LINCOLN ICE CO'S
 name is on the wagon. 1040 O street
They have no pond ice.

Frank C. Zehrung left Thursday afternoon for New York in the interest of the Funke opera house. He will look after attractions and will spend ten days or a couple of weeks in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Will Owen Jones and Miss Marie Gere left this week for Lake Osakis, Minn., where they will remain several weeks. A number of other Lincoln people are now at Lake Osakis.

Miss Maude Oakley entertained Miss Mae Burr and Messrs Avery of Sioux City and Maltalieu at a dinner party Wednesday evening, after which the guests went to Burlington Beach, where Miss Oakley demonstrated that she is a proficient sailor.

Thursday evening there was a picnic party of young people comprising Mrs. George L. Meissner, Miss Stella Kirker, Miss Maude Hammond, Miss Clara Hammond, D. G. Wing, C. C. Marley, Miss Dena Loomis, Miss Charlotte Clark, Charles Clark, Eugene Brown.

Among those present at Burlington Beach Tuesday evening were: Misses Helen Welch, Ada Gregg, of Kansas City, Ona Imhoff, Reba Duff, of Nebraska City, Ella Raymond, Flo Winger, Messrs Ray Welch, Will Raymond, Tom Wing, Wilson Winger, Earl Bridgeman.

A GUIDE TO HEALTH with every purchase of Munyon's Remedies
 at RIGGS' pharmacy,
 N. W. Corner 12th and O St

Mr. H. H. Walls

Like a Miracle
Pains in Side and Breast
Despaired of Help, but Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
 "I am glad to state my son's experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it was the means of saving his life. Last fall he was taken ill with pains in his breast and side. He had the best medical attendance possible, and was treated by the doctors for some time, but did not realize any relief. He could not lay down day or night, and our hopes were fast falling. My aged mother advised a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He commenced taking the medicine, and to our Great Astonishment, one bottle cured him of his pains and restored him to perfect health. This case has been looked upon by many in this vicinity as nothing short of a miracle." H. H. WALLS, Oswego, Kansas.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

Watch for the name
LINCOLN ICE CO.
 They have no pond ice. 1040 O street

Genuine Coal Creek Canyon and Rock Springs coal at the Whitebreast.
 You can't be overcharged on "Shog" flour. Its good at any price.